HUNTERSVILLE HAPPY HOUR MESSAGE

By President Mike Fitzgerald

It's hard to believe that we are rolling into the month of December. We just completed our annual Wreath Fundraiser and it was a huge success! Thank you everyone!

We had a great guest last week. Dale Gentle shared with us A World War 2 Story: The Bomber War in Europe.

This week the students of the Mallard Creek Interact Club will visit.

I hope to see everyone Monday and don't forget to bring a friend!

Club Fundraiser –

Fresh Fir Holiday Wreaths

We sold 100 natural Fraser Fir wreath fresh from Ashe County.

November 12 – Vocational Trip to Metrolina Greenhouses

We had a great turn out with Rotary club members, friends and family. Thanks to Vickie Van Wingerden for letting us on the tour. We will go back on March 15 for a spring tour!

November 10 – Foundation Banquet

We had a great time at the banquet, with 11 attendees from our club. Great evening!

November 10 – Community Service

Huntersville Veterans Day Parade

Our club had Bob's 53 Pick Up in the parade with students from Grand Oak Elementary singing "America the Beautiful". Our Rotary tent gave out cookies and we took orders for Christmas wreaths, thanks to our volunteers!

Youth & International Service

October 24 – United Nations Day & World Polio Day

Our club members educated students at Huntersville Elementary about how Rotary got involved in eradicating Polio. Students brought money to school and got their Pinkie Painted Purple, just like the children that get the immunization drops in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Nigeria.
