PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Kent Pike

Happy Sunday Happy Rotarians!

Thank you for attending my virtual installation last week, Covid-19 has us doing things a lot differently. As we reflect on this July 4th Holiday weekend, we as Rotarians must lead by the words of our Fore Fathers, that all men (Humans) are created equal. No other organization, I can think does more for Humanity across our world than the Members of Rotary. Rotary opens doors for us as Rotarians to do good in our world. This week I encourage you to pause and see how you can do good and be a hero to our community. I look forward to Zooming with you on July 13th at our Normal Time. Please send your 4th of July pictures to Ineke for the Newsletter. Have a Safe and Blessed week.

Community Service - People of Action Needed

Tuesday, July 7, and Thursday, July 9 These volunteer opportunities have been serving ongoing needs during COVID-19. Both of these facilities employ safety measures to ensure proper distancing and supply masks and other PPE to volunteers. Please sign up at the below link(s) as soon as possible. If you have trouble with these links, please contact Kevin Kendrick at bkkendrick@outlook.com. We need 8 volunteers for NC-MedAssist and 10 volunteers for Second Harvest.
