FROM THE FAMILY OF NADINE SHAW ABRAM

We are grateful to God Almighty for allowing Nadine to be a part of our family, allowing us to share in the development of this masterpiece and to experience the massive contribution that she gave to humankind.

According to God's plan, Nadine has accomplished her God-given assignment here on earth and has left an indelible impact on all who have crossed her path. She will be gravely missed by us all. We are all comforted by the fact however, that the day is coming, and not too many days hence, that the end of all things will come and a brand new life will begin in the earth made new ~ where we will all meet again around God's great white throne. We look forward to that day with great anticipation.

"Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning." Until then, rest in peace our beloved.

-The Abram/Holt/Shaw Family

We would like to thank everyone who participated in and contributed to this celebration, and to Nadine's life.
