

Title of the Video : _____

1. The _____ has the longest mammal migration known at 10,000 -12,000 miles round trip.
2. Pristine _____ host nesting birds in the fall.
3. The _____ is critical to the health of this ecosystem.
4. Mangroves buffet the salt marsh against _____ and storm surge.
5. Every October, _____ begin gathering at Guadalupe Island, off the coast of Mexico.
6. The _____ has reached near threatened status.
7. A total collapse of the sardine fishery in the Eastern Pacific. It has _____ fully recovered.
8. Few creatures navigate crashing waves and ripping currents like the _____.
9. Hungry pallid bats emerge from their caves and crevices and follow their _____.
... pollinating the Cardon.
10. Sea mounts, _____ that don't quite reach the surface.
11. Sea mounts are so numerous and so large, they comprise the _____ largest habitat on Earth.
12. The Galapagos Marine iguana is the world's only _____ going lizard.
13. It's a phenomenon called island _____. No predators, no competitors, and unlimited food can quickly turn a little guy into a monster, one that eats salad and naps 16 hours a day.
14. Studying the curious creatures of the Galapagos inspired _____ theory of natural selection.
15. This is (the Galapagos) one of the last places on Earth where the scalloped _____ gathers in numbers.

Copyright Pearson Prentice Hall

