

Short bio (about 50 words)

Robert Klitgaard is University Professor at Claremont Graduate University and a former Dean of the RAND Graduate School. His books on corruption and development, including Controlling Corruption and Tropical Gangsters, have been translated into eighteen languages. In 2024 he received the Anti-Corruption Excellence Award from the Government of Qatar and the United Nations.