

Instructions for Obtaining CE Credit

17th Annual Philadelphia Prenatal Diagnosis Conference

Continuing Medical Education Credits

For Physicians

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the Essential Areas and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education through the joint sponsorship of The George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences and the Philadelphia Prenatal Conference. The George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The George Washington University School of Medicine and Health Sciences designates this Live and Enduring Activity for a maximum of 56.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Other Healthcare Professionals

A certificate of participation will be provided to all other healthcare professionals for requesting credits in accordance with state boards, specialty societies, or other professional associations.

Many societies and credentialing bodies accept the AMA PRA Category 1 CreditTM as an equivalent if the topic is relevant to the applicant's field or discipline.

If participants have doubts whether an activity will qualify for CE, they should contact their state licensing board to ensure they accept reciprocity with AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM for re-licensure registering for the course.

Midwives, Nurse Practitioners, and Registered Nurses

The American Nurses Credentialing Center accepts AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM issued by organizations accredited by the ACCME (Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education).

For the purposes of re-licensure most State Boards of Nursing accept AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM for attendance at structured learning activities offered by organizations accredited by the ACCME.

Midwives, Nurse Practitioners and Registered Nurses may receive a maximum of 28.5 hours of Category 1 credit for completing this course.

Physician Assistants

The National Commission on Certification of Physician Assistants (NCCPA) accepts certificates of participation for educational activities certified for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™] from organizations accredited by ACCME or a recognized state medical society.

Physician assistants may receive a maximum of 28.5 hours of Category 1 credit for completing this course.

- I'm unable to attend the entire Live Conference. Can I still participate in the Enduring Conference to earn the full CME credits I registered for?

Yes. Your CME credits will reflect participation in both the Live Conference and the Enduring Conference. You may continue with the educational courses during the Enduring period to maximize your total credit hours.

- Do I need to write down the courses I attend to claim CME credits

– If you attend the conference in person, you must check in and check out each day to ensure your participation is recorded.

– If you join virtually, our conference platform will automatically track your participation and maintain a record for CME credit.

- What is considered 'completion' of a lecture

A lecture is considered completed when your participation time reaches 90% or more of the session duration.

To receive CME credit, you must also submit the required evaluation.

- Can I claim the CME credits for sessions which were registered for free?

CME/CE credits will NOT be granted to attendees who register for free. If you wish to claim the credits, you will have to register and pay the registration fee.

- I am a physician. Will this conference provide ultrasound CME credits that count toward AIUM accreditation?

The conference provides up to 40.25 ultrasound AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™, including sessions in OB Ultrasound, Fetal Anatomy, and Fetal Echocardiography.

After completing the courses, email prenataldiagnosis.conference@gmail.com to request your AIUM participation report, which—along with your CME certificate—can be submitted to AIUM for accreditation.

- I am a physician. How many CME credits can I claim based on my registration type?

	Physician MD/ PhD/DO - All Three Days	Physician - Fetal ECHO & Ultrasound - 4 days (3+1 days)	For Physicians ONLY up to 45 CME (3+2 days)
