Counting to Infinity

Verse

Time is no cheap commodity
Our most precious resource
A nonlinear space oddity
A formidable force

Pre-chorus

Nothing is predictable
Chaotic and mystical

Verse

Survival instinct is primal
Self-preservation is innate
Power is intoxicating
Enrichment the desired state

Pre-chorus

Going faster by the mile
Disaster arrives in style

Chorus

I'm so tired
Feel like I'm counting to infinity
Awake and wired
Adrift in your vicinity
So uninspired
In need of some affinity
I'm so tired
Of counting to infinity

Verse

Reflect on your life choices
Before it's all gone in a blink
But don't take it all too seriously
Life don't care what you think

Pre-chorus

We've reached the final stage
Unleashed from the cage

Chorus

I'm so tired
Feel like I'm counting to infinity
Lost in your desire
I need your femininity
Hearts on fire
Floating in proximity
I'm so tired
Of counting to infinity

Bridge

Time is running short
To save this lost castaway
Each day more hope is lost
With every crashing wave

InterludeVerse

Abandon hope
All ye who enter here
Three Shades encircle The Gate
The Thinker ponders near

Pre-chorus

Each circle seals your fate
Eternal damnation awaits

I'm so tired
Feel like I'm counting to infinity
Weak and mired
A Shade in search of the Trinity
Circumstances dire
In need of Divinity
I'm so tired
Of counting to infinity
I'm so tired
Of counting to infinity
