

Last Train Out

Background: One of the first songs I wrote after a 25 or so year layoff from songwriting, this helped to start a burst of creativity. A song about escape from whatever it is you need to leave. Just don't look back at the tracks you've left behind.

Verse

11pm

Nervously waiting

On the last train out

The station deserted

'Cept the rats millin' about

Making my escape

Like a record fading out

Disappear into the night

On the last train out

Pre-Chorus

I'll see you on the other side

Where the wanted men hide

Waiting to ride

The last train out

Chorus

All aboard

The last train out

All aboard

The last train out

A one-way trip

No return route

Gone without a sound

Going underground

On the last train out

Verse

11:08

Didn't use my real name

Didn't want anyone to know

Didn't say goodbye

Didn't leave a note

This is my reprieve

This is my hideout

Disappear into the fog

On the last train out

Pre-Chorus

I'll see you on the other side
Where the wanted men hide
Waiting to ride
The last train out

Chorus

All aboard
The last train out
All aboard
The last train out
A one-way trip
Leave it all behind
For the last time

Bridge

The tracks click in rhythm
Smokestacks obscure your vision
The steam whistle cries
The engines grind
Driving wheels churn with precision
Cut the hills like an incision
Don't look back
At the tracks you left behind
All aboard

Verse

11:18
Last train boarding
Time to check out
Conductor makes last call
His words are drowned out
The ticket punched
Enter an empty car
Slip into the blackout
Leaving no doubt
On the last train out

Pre-Chorus

I'll see you on the other side
Where the wanted men hide
Waiting to ride
The last train out

Chorus

All aboard
The last train out
All aboard
The last train out
A one-way trip
Gone without a sound
Going underground
