

Magic

(The Hand's Quicker Than the Eye)

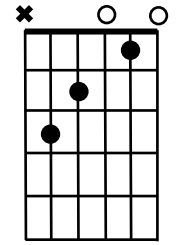

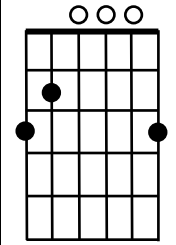

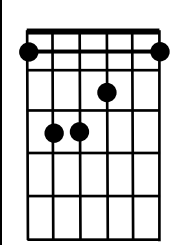

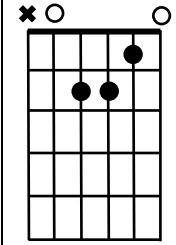

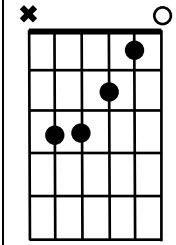

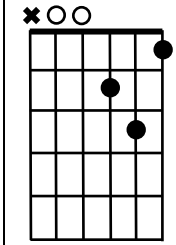

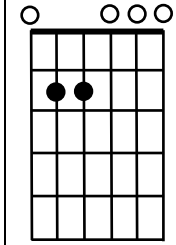

Background: Women and relationships can be like magic. Sometimes good and exciting, other times not so much, but always mystifying. This is a fairly vicious song about a guy's relationship, with the theme set to magic, of course.

Trapped underground
Hoping Hell can save you

Verse

She waves her wand at me
And cuts my heart in half
We can't see
What the mirrors hide

Her audience just laughs

Push the pin into the doll
And watch me writhe in pain
Black magic's curse
Voodoo dispersed
The full moon begins to wane

Pre-Chorus

She is Magic
She captivates and mystifies
Enigmatic
You believe what she denies

Chorus

All my life
The hand's quicker than the eye
The illusion is just a lie
You hear the sound
You feel the ground
Collapse beneath you
