

sPaYrE cHaYnGe

Background: From the perspective of a homeless man seeing a man walking to his car last at night. He's in need of help. The passing man tries to ignore him but when they catch eyes, they realize, they recognize.

Written: Date: June 9 - August 23 , 2026

Arr.	Key	Time	Tuning	Tempo	Style	Capo
1	A	4/4	Standard	100	Rock and Roll	2

Arrangement	1
Intro
Verse	A Dsus2 A Dsus2 E G Dsus2 C G Dsus2 A
Chorus	D A D A C G D x2 A
Bridge	C G D

Chords Used in this Song

A	Dsus2	E	G	C	D

sPaYrE cHaYnGe

Verse

A Dsus2

The city sky is turning black

A Dsus2

Like the sun ain't never coming back

E G Dsus2

This life's turned into something strange

C

Now I'm out here looking

G

Just looking

Dsus2 A

For some spare change

Chorus

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

E

When I look back

There's so much

G D/Dsus2

I would rearrange

C

But right now I'm begging

G

Just begging

D A

For your spare change

Verse

A Dsus2

A passing man stares straight ahead

A Dsus2

Pretends not to see me but I know he can

E G Dsus2

I know he wonders is this man deranged

C

But right now all I want

G D

All I need

A

Is some spare change

Chorus

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

E

When I look back

There's so much

G D/Dsus2

I would rearrange

C

But right now I'm begging

G

Just begging

D A

For your spare change

Bridge

C

He stops and stares

In his face I see

G D

Recognition setting in

C

He says I remember you

Back in high school

G D

How long has it been?

C

We thought we would

Go places far

G D

What happened to us both?

C

You might think

I have it all

G D

But I'm living what once loathed

And then he walked away

Verse

A Dsus2

No one carries cash no more

A Dsus2

No one's got spare change

E G Dsus2

There's so much in my life I wish I could rearrange

C

But right now

G

All I'm asking for

D A

Is your spare change

Chorus

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

D/Dsus2

Spare change

A

I need some spare change

E

When I look back

There's so much

G D/Dsus2

I would rearrange

C

But right now I'm begging

G

Just begging

D A

For your spare change

A

Your spare change

A

I feel like spare change

A

I ain't nothing but spare change

A

Your spare change

sPaYrE cHaYnGe

Verse

The city sky is turning black
Like the sun ain't never coming back
This life's turned into something strange
Now I'm out here looking
Just looking
For some spare change

Chorus

Spare change
I need some spare change
Spare change
I need some spare change
When I look back
There's so much
I would rearrange
But right now I'm begging
Just begging
For your spare change

Verse

A passing man stares straight ahead
Pretends not to see me but I know he can
I know he wonders is this man deranged
But right now all I want
All I need
Is some spare change

Chorus

Spare change
I need some spare change
Spare change
I need some spare change
When I look back
There's so much
I would rearrange
But right now I'm begging
Just begging
For your spare change

Bridge

He stops and stares
In his face I see
Recognition setting in
He says I remember you
Back in high school
How long has it been?

We thought we would Go places far
What happened to us both?
You might think
I have it all
But I'm living what once loathed

And then he walked away

Verse

No one carries cash no more
No one's got spare change
There's so much in my life I wish I could rearrange
But right now
All I'm asking for
Is your spare change

Chorus

Spare change
I need some spare change
Spare change
I need some spare change
When I look back
There's so much
I would rearrange
But right now I'm begging
Just begging
For your spare change

Your spare change
I feel like spare change

I ain't nothing but spare change
Your spare change

sPaYrE cHaYnGe

Capo on 2 Verse: A Dsus2 x2 E G Dsus2 C G Dsus2 A	Chorus: D A D A C G D x2 A Bridge: C G D
Verse The city sky is turning black Like the sun ain't never coming back This life's turned into something strange Now I'm out here looking Just looking For some spare change Chorus Spare change I need some spare change Spare change I need some spare change When I look back There's so much I would rearrange But right now I'm begging Just begging For your spare change Verse A passing man stares straight ahead Pretends not to see me but I know he can I know he wonders Is this man deranged But right now all I want All I need Is some spare change Chorus	Bridge He stops and stares In his face I see Recognition setting in He says I remember you Back in high school How long has it been? We thought we would Go places far What happened to us both? You might think I have it all But I'm living what once loathed And then he walked away Verse No one carries cash no more No one's got spare change There's so much in my life I wish I could rearrange But right now All I'm asking for Is your spare change Chorus Your spare change I feel like spare change I ain't nothing but spare change Your spare change