THE DRAGON'S TALE
ARGOS COMMUNITY SCHOOLS
ARGOS, INDIANA

SCHOOL DAYS OR SCHOOL DAZE? THE

Both the school and community avidly follow the Argos Dragons--the high school basketball team.

The Argos Community School opened its doors in the fall of 1956.

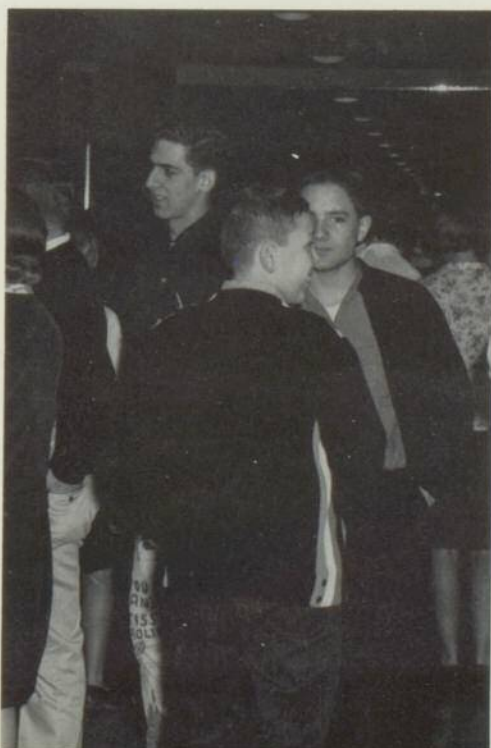

Mr. Eveland's art class in session.

CHOICE IS YOURS.

Our shop's motto could be--"A place for everything and everything in its place."

A favorite pastime at noon is congregating in the lobby and chatting with friends.

BOARD PONDERES EXPANSION OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

Mrs. J. Paynes, Mr. D. Burkett, Mr. G. Roberts, Mr. H. Carr, Mr. J. Maze.

R. Cullers, A. Osborn, J. Drapalik, D. Adams, D. Baker, S. Bowell, J. Roahrig.

When the Argos Community School Corporation was first formed, plans were made to provide for further expansion. During the past seven years the classrooms have become so crowded that it has been necessary to use high school space for elementary classrooms. The formation of a cumulative building was postponed until 1963 because of the possibility of reorganization. Since Argos will be allowed to remain an independent unit, the fund was started and an emergency loan approved. $112,500 was raised in this manner.

The next step was to plan an addition. The new section, as designed by Reid, Ruebe, Thompson & Associates, Inc. will consist of five classrooms, an audio-visual storeroom, a teachers' book area, an elementary principal's office and restroom facilities. It will be located off the play porch in the elementary section. The addition is designed to blend with the present architecture.

Each room will have a maximum amount of storage space and will have its own sink and closet.

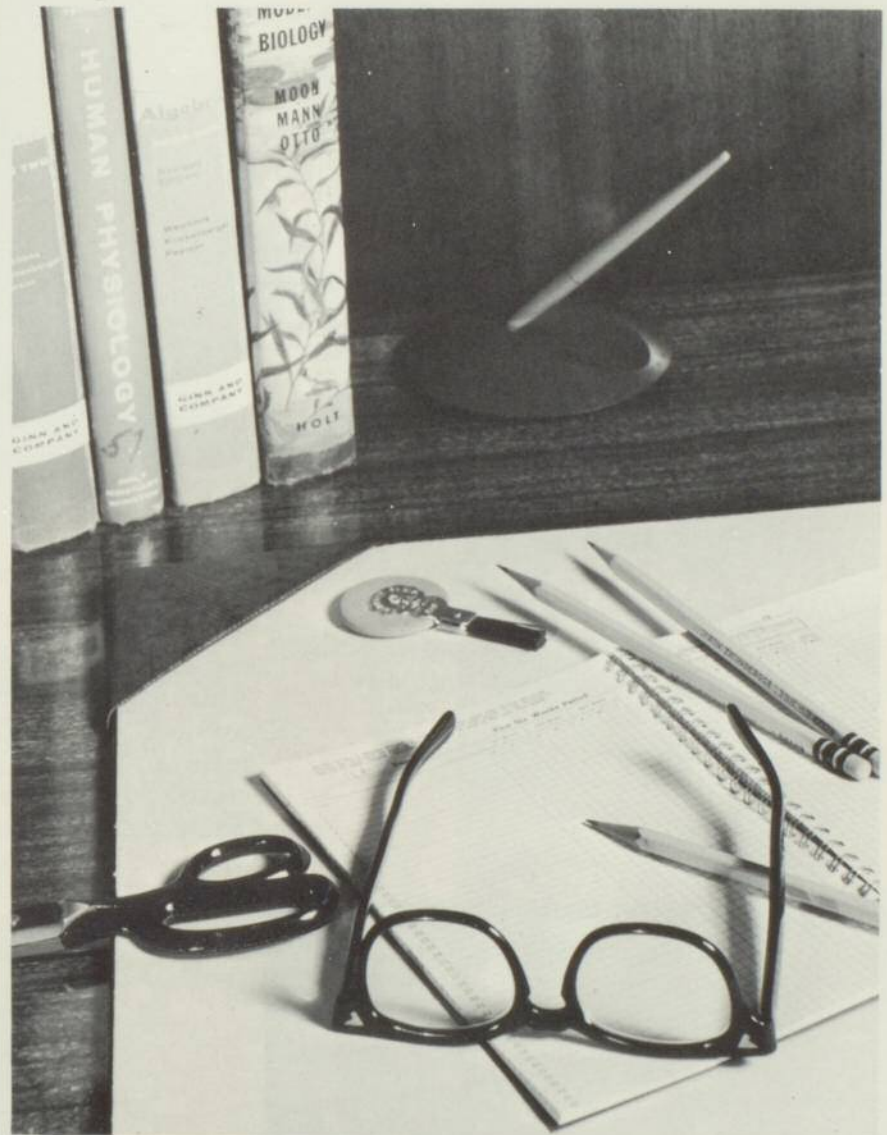

Our new assistant principal comes to us from Rochester, Indiana and our superintendent is from here in Argos and is maintaining his role as principal in addition to his new duties.

FACULTY'S DIVERSIFIED TALENTS

Teachers get hungry too, you know!

Mr. Snyder

During the in-between years, students are making many adjustments from childhood into adolescence. Mrs. Dorman, Mrs. Boggs and Mr. Snyder are just three of the junior high teachers helping pupils to accept the greater challenges that life presents as we grow in ability and years.

This is the way to approach Art.

COMPLEMENT PROGRAM

Are you chewing gum, again?

The physical education department has been able to purchase some new equipment this year and the boys, as well as coaches Powell and Morgan, are enjoying the new parallel bars. Many students have already proven themselves capable on the rings that were purchased last year.

Coach Morgan

Welcome to Argos!

Mr. Butt came to us from Grace College the second semester, and works daily in the music department with all the choral groups in junior and senior high.

MR. WYSONG HEADS GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT

There is not a student in high school whom Mr. Wysong does not know personally and vice versa. Students see him for program help as well as for general guidance. Mr. Wysong is responsible for our testing program and administers all types of tests from beginning I.Q. to college aptitude tests. Mr. Wysong is also a senior class sponsor and teaches social studies.

CUSTODIANS POPULAR WITH STUDENTS

Dusting . . . An Endless Chore

The Argos school is new-looking and sparkling thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Smith, Mr. Zink, Mr. Shaffer, and Mr. Free. In addition to cleaning duties, the custodians are confronted with sundry, miscellaneous favors for teachers and students. These range from setting a clock to being ever-ready with a key to permit after hour visits to the school. For many obvious reasons, the custodians are infinitely important to the school's operation.

HOMECOMING

Queen Linda--Second Junior crowned in our history

This year Miss Linda Carmean, a lively junior, was selected by the student body as the 1964 homecoming queen. Linda, a student council member for three years and vice-president of the student council, is also vice-president of the Sunshine Society. Chosen as second and first runners-up respectively, were seniors, Rosemary Heckaman and Jane Drapalik. This year's profitable dance was informal for the first time. Those attending were entertained by the "Shades," an all-girl dance band from Triton.

The Student Council, under the advisorship of Mr. James Wysong, spent an active, profitable year.

In addition to the usual Christmas and Easter treats for the elementary children, the council surged forward to bring some variety to the high school calendar.

Besides the annual homecoming affair, a fall Sadie Hawkins dance and an early spring Bunny Hop showed profit for the hungry treasury. The credit must go to a hard working membership and excellent advising.

The council has also spent a great deal of time preparing a code of ethics for the student body. This has been a new undertaking this year and much thought and preparation is going into its creation.

A colorful record of the year's Sunshine activities is the gold and white key ring made by Mary Ann Moose. Each of the keys denotes an activity done by the society to bring sunshine into the lives of others. Holding the keyring are this year's officers.

Mrs. Metheny with Sara at Knightstown.

"Stairway to the Stars," the 1965 state-wide Sunshine theme was the theme for the annual Sweetheart dance. As couples danced to the music of the Rochester High School dance band, they enjoyed Mr. Eveland's special decorations.

Many new projects were initiated this year. Appropriate favors were presented to the faculty each month. Christmas cards were collected and 20 scrapbooks made to be sent to various hospitals. The annual Ideal Ladies Party was once again a highlight in the Sunshine year.

The most exciting project was the adoption of Sara Faye Shepherd of the Knightstown Children's Home. Girls wrote to her and sent her many small gifts. Palm Sunday, 23 members visited Sara and gave the girls in her home a party.

The day's activities were concluded with a terrifying experience. While we were eating supper in Kokomo a tornado struck causing severe damage. Luckily no one was hurt. The group returned home at 1:30 a.m. only to find that several tornadoes had also done much damage in the surrounding area. The day was a memorable one in many ways.

OFFICERS AND SPORTSHEADS

SEATED: P. Caslow, C. Harrell, S. Adams, B. Thompson. STANDING: M. Berkheiser, K. Longstreth, J. Roahrig, D. Null, A. Haring.

G.A.A. has a membership of 80 girls in grades 9-12. Points are accumulated by attendance at meetings and performance in the various sport areas. Numerals are won after earning 150 points and then a sweater. Senior girls are eligible to be state award winners after they have earned 350 points. These awards are lovely wooden plaques with the name engraved on it.

Malindia Nolin was the recipient of this year's bowling award for maintaining the highest average. She had good competition from Karen Longstreth. The girls bowled at the King Pin Corner in Plymouth weekly for eight weeks before a winner was finally chosen.

Senior plaque winners are SEATED: P. Caslow, R. Becker, J. Roahrig, D. Null. STANDING are: L. Carmean, B. Longstreth, M. Nolin, L. Weissert, S. Warstler, M. Deamer, A. Haring, B. Beam, sweater winners. These are awarded after the accumulation of 250 points.

There are also winners in basketball and the Juniors won that one. Unfortunately they did not appear for their picture. The Freshman girls won both the volleyball and softball eliminations although all of them are not pictured.

National Honor Society was established at Argos High School in 1962. It is called the D.R. Rohrer chapter in honor of Mr. Russell Rohrer who has served the Argos community in the capacities of teacher, principal, and superintendent for over 40 years.

Students are elected during their sophomore year as probationary members and they are chosen on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership and service towards their school and community.

Mr. James Wysong has sponsored the group since its inception three years ago. The total membership is now twenty-three.

On May 6, 1965, 7 sophomores and one junior transfer student were initiated into membership. They are: S. Hagan, B. Thompson, M. Berkheiser,

B. Tucker, D. Weidner, J. Voreis, T. Schultz, and L. Wakeland.

The FTA hosted the all-day FTA area meeting at Argos this fall. Enthusiasm was at a peak and members worked hard to make our approximately 200 visitors welcome.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Mahoney and Mr. Bassett, the FTA is a busy and active group. Mary Berkheiser was nominated for the state office of Corresponding Secretary from Argos.

ROMAN HOLIDAY

The Prom theme--Roman Holiday was aptly carried out by the Juniors thru the use of beautiful columns twined with ivy. Clusters of golden grapes hung from the false ceiling on the deck. The star studded blue crepe paper transformed the room, and handsome couples danced to the Don O'Dell Combo.

The after-prom was held in Culver at The Eagles Lodge. Once again the Argos Lion's Club generously provided this extra party for the Prom goers. It was a gala evening and a grand affair from the banquet at 6:30 right through to the end of the after-prom at 5 A.M.

KOOKS & SPOOKS DESCEND ON DANCES

Beatnik poetry reading greeted by chorus of snaps from audience.

Sophomores keep busy pouring cider for thirsty guests at Halloween Dance.

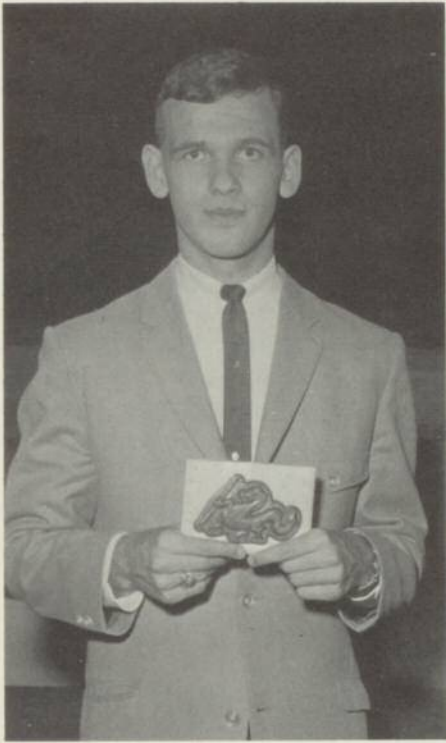

Both All-High Parties were highlighted by the decorations. The Sophomores fancy haunted house gave real atmosphere to the scene. For April's Beatnik Party, the Freshmen went all out on their theme. Couples entered the pad through shredded newspaper curtains and ate their potato chips from garbage cans. An added attraction was Coach Powell reading from a collection of beatnik poems.

Many hours of planning precede each all-high party. They are always well supported and the students who attended seem to have as much fun as those who have worked on the preparation for each affair.

DRAGON'S ROAR PUBLISHES FIRST EDITION

HOMER Q

This year the "Dragon's Roar" was completely reorganized. In years past, the paper has been printed as a part of The Argos Reflector; but this year's daring staff decided to undertake a mimeographed paper doing all the writing, typing, and printing within the school. Six issues were published over the school year.

An editorial column was written by one "Homer Q. Dragon." It was not until the awards day assembly that students found out Homer Q's identity. Mrs. Hindman presented Homer with a special journalism award, a beautiful plaque with a hand carved wooden dragon with quill in claw, mounted on a marble base. Mr. Eveland made this beautiful trophy and Ron Cullers was the proud recipient of it.

Mrs. Hindman is the advisor and the staff was very grateful for her prodding and her help on each edition. Mrs. Shunk gave of much of her valuable office time to type and run off the stencils.

KNEELING: D. Cannan, M. Warrick, J. Carr, L. Wakeland, J. Ferguson. R 2: B. Thompson, P. Carr, A. Cole, P. Overton, M. Benedict, S. Solomon, M. Berkheiser. R 3: Mrs. Hindman, M.

THE SENIOR CLASS PRESENTS YOU CAN'T KISS CAROLINE

FOCUS ON TEENS

The plot of "You Can't Kiss Caroline" revolves around a local hang-out called "The Club" and add a set of circumstances only adolescents could create. The action centers around Joe and Caroline, a new girl whom Joe has bet his friends he can kiss within a week. The supporting players represent a cross-section of normal, therefore kooky, teen-agers. The girls naturally feel slighted by the fact that the masculine attention is centered on Caroline and decide to wage all out war against her. From the first soda to the final banana split, the battle of the sexes is on! The senior class wishes to thank Miss Mahoney, Mrs. Jurkiewicz, and Mrs. Snider, as well as the crew who painted sets and Sandy Warstler who sponsored the after-play party.

Out Of This World is a comedy centered around an eccentric bachelor, Otis Kerby. His niece, Linda, lives with him while attending college nearby.

Life gets complicated when Uncle Otis leaves the peace of his attic hideout to find his home full of people.

Linda has one bright idea after another, all of which add up to mass confusion. Through a series of hilarious events life eventually returns to normal.

The cast was plagued by flu throughout rehearsals and the photographer, after making four trips and not finding all, finally snapped any group he could find together for a yearbook picture.

Mrs. Stephenson was full of patience and helpfulness for the cast and was a really wonderful director.

An after play party held at the Legion was enjoyed by all of the cast and their dates.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

ARGOS CHAPTER

One aspect of the Vo. Ag. course is welding. Many FFA members first learned the rudiments from instructor, Mr. Cooper, and then went on to complete welding tasks on the farm.

At the annual FFA Parent & Son Banquet, Miss Linda Carmean was crowned 1965 Chapter Sweetheart by Miss Jane Roahrig, 1965 title holder. Approximately 140 members and guests were present. Len Sout, the state FFA President, was the guest speaker. He challenged the membership as to the kind and quality of membership each maintains in his own chapter.

The Argos FFA chapter runs a food booth at the 4-H fair each August. This is one of their big projects and while it is considerable work the boys enjoy the comraderie of working together with a common goal. They also run this booth for the hereford sale each year. This helps to get the chapter started on their various projects with funds in the treasury.

D. Stults, C. Swihart, S. Shriver, and D. Nifong were on the crops judging team that won first place in the county. M. Morrill, T. Maze, J. Keyser, and W. Hollar earned third place.

MAURICE MONSTER AND VALERIE VAMPIRE TRIP THE LIGHT FANTASTIC

This year the Argos Marching Dragons featured three band shows, "Mr. President," "The Late Monster Show," and "Viva Vodvil." Each of these marching programs was given at regular season basketball games. "Mr. President" given after last year's exciting national election, included formations associated with famous presidents such as Abraham Lincoln, F.D.R., and John F. Kennedy.

The "Late Monster Show," depicting the romance of Maurice Monster and Valerie Vampire, was on the lighter side. One formation represented a tombstone, Maurice's wedding present to Valerie. The show was climaxed by the entrance of Mike Ringle and Susan South.

The final performance of the season, "Viva Vodvil," included acts and songs of that era. Vyron Staton did a juggling act while on a balancing board. Two gagmen, Larry Wakeland and Charles Gaby, told jokes.

This year the Music Boosters sponsored several fund-raising activities. Parents and friends all pitched in with donations, time, and work to make our annual fall fish fry with the Famous Jonah Club a success. About 750 people were served, and a profit of $455 was realized.

On January 30, the Northern Indiana solo and ensemble contest was held here. This was a large undertaking as we had to provide rooms and eating facilities for all these people. The Music Boosters did a superb job! Approximately 1700 people attended representing 29 area schools. Serving everyone meant using three classrooms plus the cafeteria. The entire shop area was filled with pies and more pies. The cafeteria was used for hot lunches and a snack bar. Another snack bar was set up in the vocational agriculture room. Twelve pianos were transported to the school by van. The gymnasium was a center of activity as it hosted the popular dance band competition. The library served as the headquarters for the tabulation of all score sheets. Band and choir members worked as assistants to the judges and doorkeepers, while several boys helped park the many cars which jammed the parking lot. Despite the seeming chaos in the hallways, it is a credit to Mr. Doherty's organization that everything functioned so smoothly. It was a busy and interesting day.

Interest in choral music is greater than ever. The concert choir has 63 members and the freshman girl's chorus has 27. The choirs began the year under the direction of Mrs. Snider, who was succeeded by Mr. Garry Butt. The choir performed at the Winter Concerts and the Spring Festival. Their repertoire is varied and quite extensive.

	*League Game

The diamond crew placed second in the Marshall County standings with a 6-2 record and a 9-7 overall slate. After being defeated by Bremen, the boys came back to challenge many strong teams which fell to the Dragons' might, but we just couldn't seem to down LaPaz, the league winners.

In the first all county tournament, Argos drew LaPaz and lost again. LaPaz went on to win the tourney.

John Kibort was elected captain rallying the team on to many outstanding victories. Wade O'Dell was elected MVP with a .992 fielding average. All but five will return next year, and the feeling of victory isn't soon forgotten--a great combination for a county championship team!

A record of 36 wins, 1 tie, 12 losses. Under Coach Morgan we made the best showing in the sport's 8 year history here. At 3 meets we had a perfect score of 15 to our opponents' 40. Leland Cox was elected Captain and Larry Wakeland, most valuable. For the first time we finished in the top ten of the 20 team sectional. In the Triton Invitational, we placed 4th and we were later 3rd in the county. The presence of fans at our home meets cheered us considerably. We set ourselves the goal of running 100 miles during practice. The response was so good we upped it to 150 miles and most of us made it. Next year we plan to achieve a trophy or two for Argos High School.

Jerry Blocks That Kick

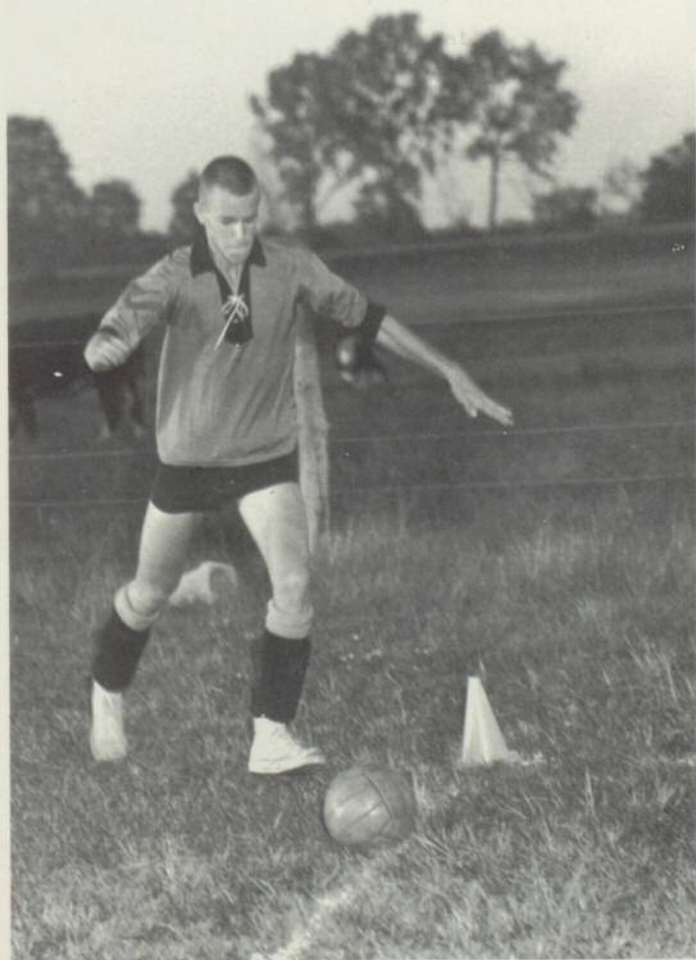

Our soccer team took to the field this fall with new jerseys. We earned the money transporting bleachers. This year's co-captains were J. Patton and T. "Chico" Umbaugh. Jerry was later elected most valuable player. A great deal of the credit for the season must go to our outstanding goalie, Jay Thompson. Jay's tremendous agility and drive allowed only 5 goals in 8 games.

Spring Soccer practice was held for the first time in '64 and as enthusiasm for the sport grew, the team's attitude was, "Who's going to beat us?" The proof of this threat is in the scoring columns. No one did! We cheerfully challenge all comers. Soccer has caught fire in Argos and is here to stay. Our championship team now proudly wears gold soccer balls engraved, "Undeclared, 1964."

DENNIS BAILEY PERFORMS FOR FANS

FANS IMPRESSED WITH SKILL

The gymnastics program expanded at Argos for the third year in a row with the addition of parallel bars. Many new stunts were performed on them by students from the 5th grade on up.

Through an extensive 8-week unit in physical education, the freshman boys found increased courage and bulging muscles as they competed with one another and with themselves to perfect their routines.

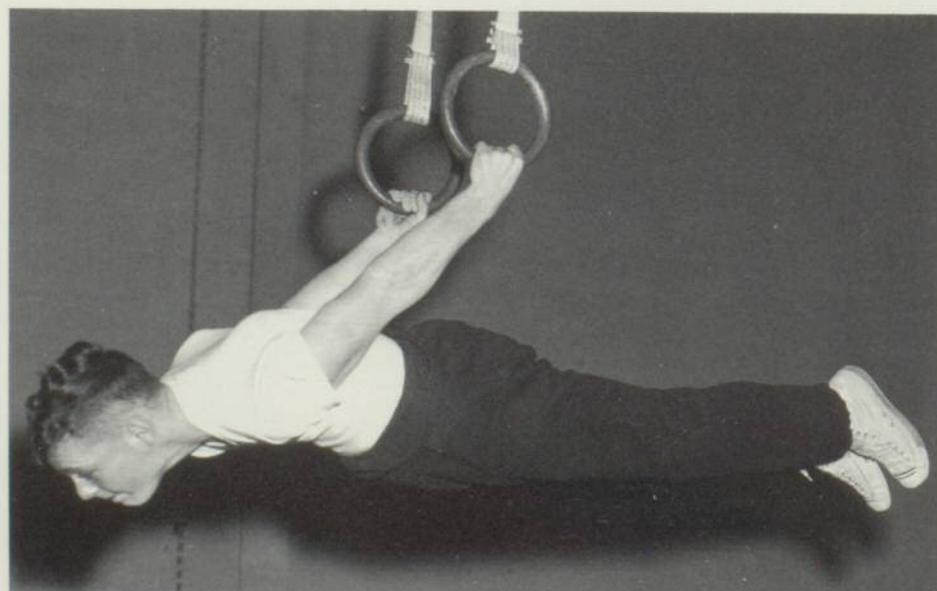

The competition for the intramural gymnastics trophy was the culmination of the program. Competition included routines on the rings, won by Greg Thompson, vaulting and rope climb, won by Bill Hollar, and by Dennis Bailey on the parallels, horizontal bar and floor exercises. Thus Dennis decisive overall winner.

As an added incentive, the boys found they could impress the opposite sex with their gymnastic feats. Gymnastics also provides an excellent opportunity for the smaller boy to excel through self-discipline and training. Perhaps a future Olympic gymnast is now learning the basics.

SHOULDER STAND AND FRONT DISMOUNT.

Spectators at the Walkerton game were enthusiastic about Dennis Bailey's half-time performance of routines on the parallel bars. We hope to have more such public displays of student achievement next year.

After a slow start the Dragons sparked and went to have the best season since 1959. Of the 10 games we lost, five were lost by a total of 12 points. We had the third best record in the county. Elected as captain of the team was Jay Thompson, and Leland Cox as most valuable player. The new gold bench capas arrived in time for the sectional and Dragon fans were proud to see the team's new look. Seven Seniors will retire this year, but Coach Powell is confident that there will be plenty of takers for the empty positions from the strong B-team. The B-team had a 9-11 season.

Coach Morgan, P. Good, J. Gonce, T. Ross, M. Morrill, D. Becker, T. Maze, G. Overmyer, S. Warstler, D. Bailey.

The small Freshman Dragons faced a tough schedule this year cheerfully and willingly. The hard work and lessons learned throughout the year resulted in steady improvement and a victory in the final game. We hope that this trend of improvement and winning will continue next year. Although we only managed to conquer one of our opponents, we learned much about teamwork and basketball. Our three cheerleaders were behind us all the way, and we appreciated all the loyal Dragon fans.

Morgan's Men enjoy winning!
Season Won--17 Lost--10

In the LaPaz Relays Argos placed behind Triton and Culver. Later in the Rochester Relays and County Meet they pushed out Culver but not Triton. Records broken in field events were the pole vault by Jerry Patton who moved his old mark of 10'6" up to 11'9 1/2" setting the Rochester Relay record for class "B" teams and C. Davis who moved the high jump from 5'9 3/4" to 5'10 1/2" to set the school record.

In the running events J. Patton again shattered a school and county record in the low hurdles by moving the time up to 21.2 setting a new country track meet record. The 880 Relay team of D. Nifong, K. Martens, W. O'Dell, and J. Thompson ran a 1:38 to break a record and earn a trophy from the Rochester Relays.

PRINCIPAL HOUGLAND GUIDES GRADES

The elementary principal, Mr. Harold Hougland, coordinates the curriculum and activities of the elementary school.

When the new elementary addition is completed, the elementary principal's office will be moved there, leaving more space in the administrative suite for high school activities.

Teaching is understanding

Who am I?

I teach cleanliness, good manners, and how to tie shoes. I sew rips and tears, wipe away tears, and help pull boots on and off. I smile, frown and sometimes shout. I comfort, cajole, wheedle, inspire, infuriate, and all in the name of education. Who am I? A teacher, of course. The brightest spot in my day comes when a youngster says, "Yes, I see, I understand."

As you study so shall you know

The first few weeks of school sees the teacher's desk blossom with rosy, polished apples presented by eager, loving hands.

As the novelty of school, new teachers, and new subjects wears off, so too does the supply of freshly rubbed apples dwindle.

The space allotted to apples is replaced by a pumpkin, then a miniature turkey, or Christmas tree, a snow man, and at long last evidences of spring appear in the form of bouquets of daffodils and hyacinths, tulips, and lilacs. Always the season of the year is seen at a glance upon the teacher's desk.

Creating a yearbook is an exciting, frustrating task, and one that has many hours of labor preceding the thrill of seeing the finished product.

What's exciting about creating a yearbook? The most exciting part is meeting a deadline. Getting the pictures back and fitting them into a planned layout gives a feeling of satisfaction too.

The staff works from the start of school in September until the very last day of school, selling ads, selling books, writing copy, planning and drawing layouts and so on, all so that there will be a complete record and a good glimpse of the year just completed.

This year some staff members attended workshops at Valparaiso University and Ball State and learned many new ideas for the '66 version of the Dragon's Tale.
