COME SEE OUR SMALL WORLD

DRAGON'S TALE
VOLUME 15
ARGOS COMMUNITY SCHOOLS
ARGOS, INDIANA 46501

Argos is a small community, population 1,393. Argos is basically a rural community with a sprinkling of industry and commerce, several churches, and a school which houses all twelve grades and kindergarten.

One of our most modern structures is the Methodist Church, completed in 1971. Two identical signs positioned at both the north and south ends of town by the Chamber of Commerce welcome visitors and residents. People of all ages enjoy sitting on our town bench. Almost every graduating class manages to decorate our water tower.

Come see our small world!

FAMILIAR FACES

Come see our small world of students. Each student has his own special personality, interests, aspirations, and dreams. Here are the faces of a few of our student body:

1. Pam Becker and Jim Von Ehr
2. Agnes Schafer
3. Bill Westafer
4. Laurie Warner
5. Larry McKee
6. Tom Chamberlin
7. Mike Davis

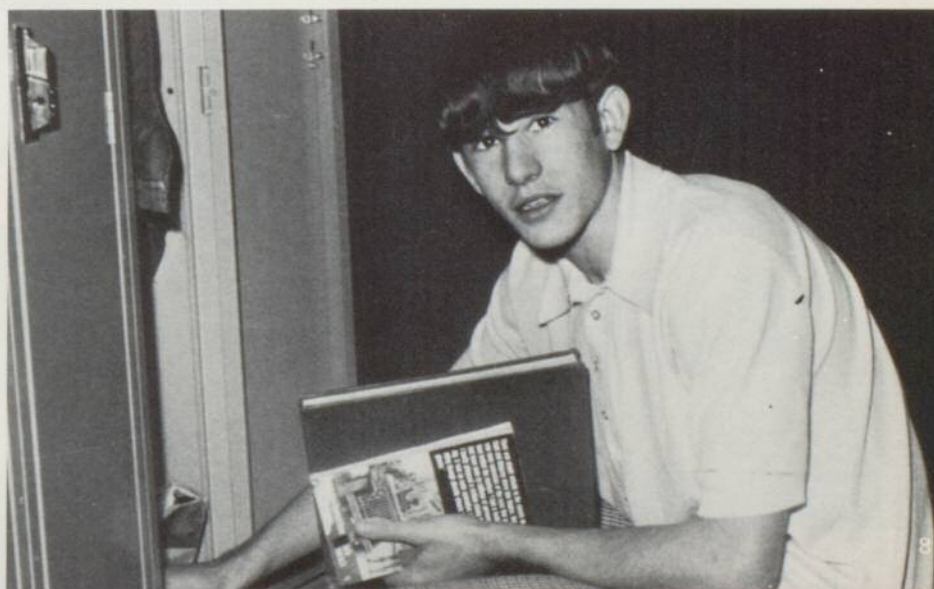

Here are some more familiar faces--

1. Shelly Metzger
2. Joe Rex
3. Dave Carpenter
4. Roger Keller, John Castleman, and Jan Eby.

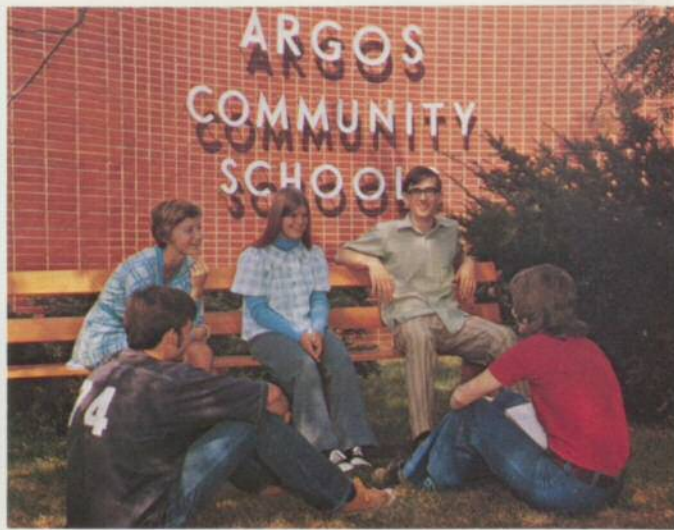

Even though Argos is small, it boasts some new faces each year. Pictured here are--

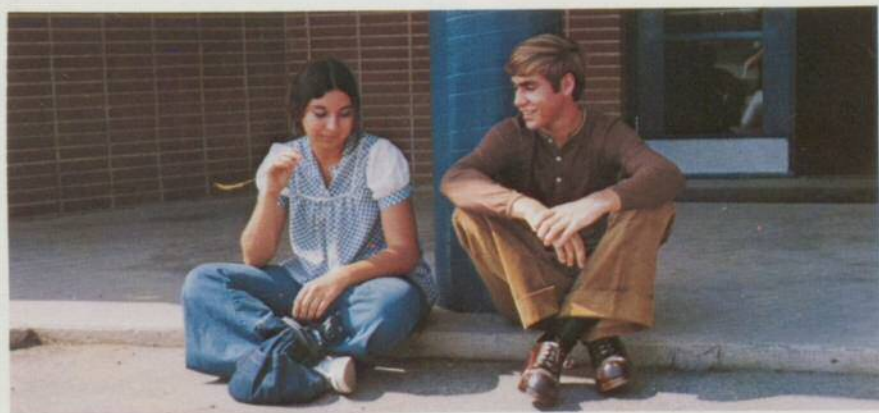

5. Ginnie Dodson, sophomore
6. Myria Nyby, sophomore
7. Karen Prockno, freshman
8. Grover Kull, 8th grade

NEW FACES

Argos sports fans were proud when our varsity soccer team became state champs at Culver in the final game with New Albany.

1. Terry Tucker prepares to kick the ball for a possible goal in the final game.
2. Coach Snyder (Coach of the Year in Soccer) explains to his champions what to do in the last half of the game.
3. Bruce Jennings taps the ball to his teammates.
4. J.C. shows style in his defense against New Albany.

FEATURES

OUR HEART'S WERE YOUNG AND GAY

Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough are going to Paris! Cornelia wants desperately to study acting under Monsiur De La Croix, and Emily wants to go cosmopolitan. On the boat, the girls meet two dashing young gentlemen by the names of Leo McEvoy and Dick Winters, and romance blooms. The famous actor, Otis Skinner, finally sets his daughter straight on the career of acting. This was a hilarious comedy of the 1920's.

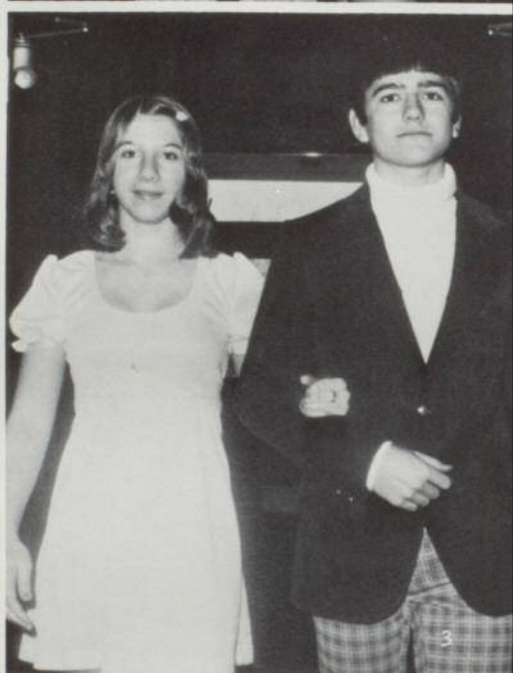

(1) The director, Phoebe Heishman, worked many long hours to make the play a delightful success. (2) Otis Skinner played by Tom Edwards. (3 & 4) Emily Kimbrough played by Gail Ward. (5) Leo McEvoy played by Tracy Rowe and Cornelia Otis Skinner played by Candy Nifong. (6) Mrs. Skinner played by Ellen Redinger. (7) CAST--BACK ROW: L. Kendall, P. Quimby, J. Roberts, C. Driebelbus, D. Golden, B. Wells, E. Redinger, R. Edwards, K. Kaufman, D. Zentz, R. Grossman, R. Hooker, J. Clark, W. Palmer. FRONT ROW: C. Nifong, R. Rowe, R. LaPlante, G. Ward.

JUNIOR PLAY

COMING HOME TO A VICTORY

Homecoming was a night of excitement for the crowd as they watched the Dragons defeat Kewanna.

The crowd quieted at half time of the varsity game to watch the crowning of the homecoming queen. The eight pretty and nervous candidates were escorted to their positions in the center of the basketball court.

Pictured here is the homecoming court (1). Freshman candidates were Tina Hollar (2), escorted by John Chamberlin, and Candy Nifong (3), escorted by Bruce Shivers. Sophomore candidates were Justine DeWitt (7), escorted by Jan Eby, and Maria Nyby (9), escorted by John Castleman. Junior candidates were Donna Hollar (5), escorted by Steve Barger, and Karyn Oviatt (8), escorted by Tracy Rowe. Senior candidates were Jane Rice (6), escorted by Mike Weissert, and Vicki Keller, escorted by Steve Hampton.

Vicki Keller was crowned our 1973-74 homecoming queen by last year's queen, Debbie Sherwood (4). Donna Hollar was first runner-up; Jane Rice was second runner-up.

Pastel colors decorated the lobby in the form of hanging balls, balloons, and stars. The band, Wheatstone Bridge, played as an opener COLOR MY WORLD. Color My World was also the theme of the 1974 formal Sunshine Dance.

Small cakes and punch were served to approximately 45 couples.

1. Kevin Edmonds and Kathy Keb,
2. J. C. Thompson and Gail Ward,
3. George Kolar and Terri Ferrell,
4. Steve Rowe and Cindy Irwin,
5. Six piece band, Wheatstone Bridge.

COLOR MY WORLD

WE BELIEVE IN MUSIC

Denise Berkheiser, Tami Van DerWeele, and Tracy Rowe play their guitars while Teri Van DerWeele and Kim Kaufman sing along. (1).

Bill Westafer shows his unique talent as a ventriloquist while he and Lester talk to each other. Bill served as the emcee of the event. (2).

"All Kinds of People" was acted out and sung by a fourth grade class. Teri VanDerWeele was their leader. (3).

As part of the Variety Show, Mike Burroughs sang a solo entitled "Try to Remember". (4).

The mixed chorus sang "San Jose". (5).

"Not me," cries Laurie Warner, Doris, and Georgi Selner, Anges, as Larry McKee, Sammi, threatens to hang their lovely heads in his chamber of horrors (3). Gracie, Teri VanDerWeele, shows how much she loves her new step papa, Mr. Turner, Steve Hampton. Gracie's brother Bob, Mick VanDuyne, and Sister Marilee, Angela McGriff, look on with pleasure (4).

SENIOR PLAY

"Oh . . ." is Henry Turner's, Steve Hampton, reaction as he comes down due to one of little Gracie's tricks (1). Angie McGriff, Marilee, and Mick VanDuyne, Bob, watch as Aunt Lydia slowly faints into oblivion after receiving the news of her sister-in-law's recent engagement (2).

"My foot is rooted to da floor," Nicodemus, Bill Westafer, cries forlornly after hearing a ghostly voice above the fireplace (3). "Holy Gabriel, he's a foamin' at da mouf" screams Bill Westafer, Nicodemus, the black handyman, when Mick Van Duyne, Bob starts one of his mad epileptic fits (4).

The Senior play, "A Ready Made Family", involves one hectic day in the lives of the Martyns and Turner families. After receiving news of their mother's marriage to a school friend, the Martyn children, Bob, Marilee, and little Gracie, decide that they must do something. They are sure that Mr. Henry Turner has married their mother for her money only.

With this idea in mind, the children set about throwing fits, talking babytalk, and playing mean jokes to make Mr. Turner divorce their mother.

The Turner children, Sammie and Doris, are also very upset about this marriage, believing that their step-mother is a golddigger. They too begin to do frightful, yet comic, antics to discourage their new mother.

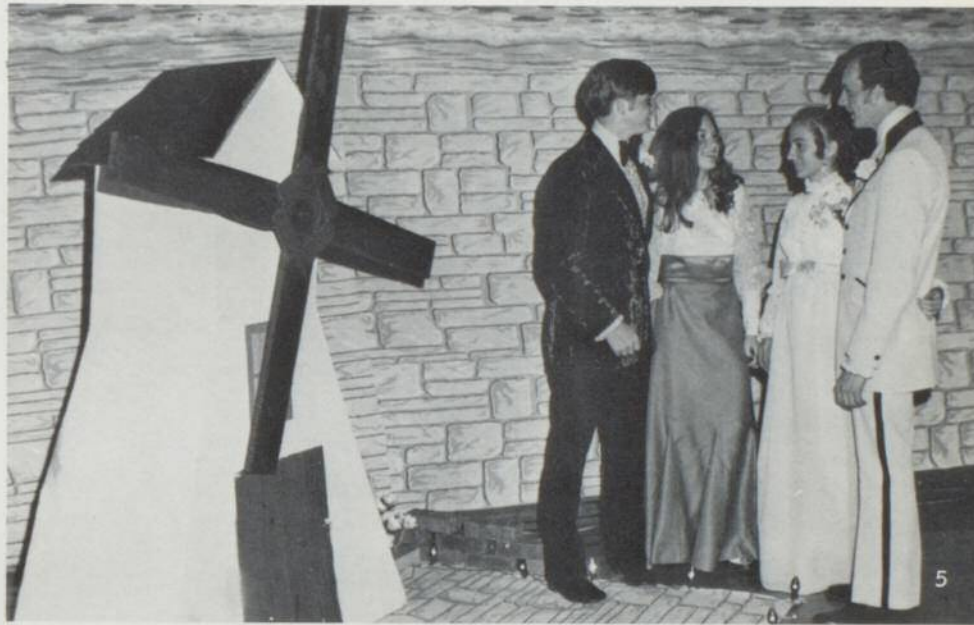

All the while, Miss Lydia Martyn, the aunt, and Begonia and Nicodemus, the hired help, seem to be caught in the middle of things until everything settles down and the children find out they like each other and their new parents.

The theme of the 1974 Junior-Senior Prom is "Springtime in Holland". The Brotherhood Mountain (1) are playing for the prom. Janice Spohn and Mark Chizum (2) are posing romantically beside a water wheel.

Cindy Nifong and Larry Houin (3) are posing to have their pictures taken. Bob Keb and his date Cindy are enjoying the refreshments, (4).

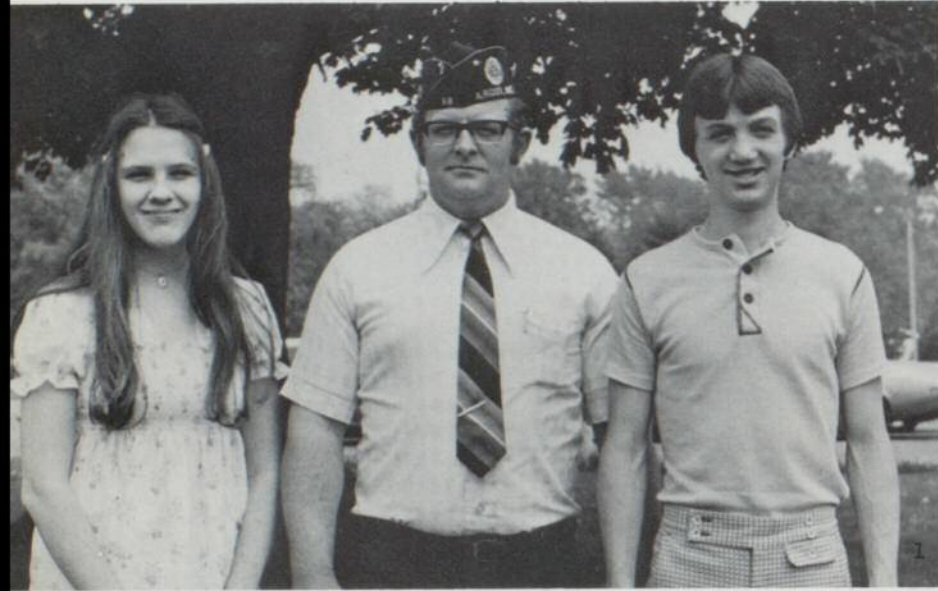

Mick Van Duyne and Loralie Thompson (5) are chatting with Bob Keb and Cindy McMillan. Doug O'Dell, Lou Ann Solomon, and Sherrrie Yoder (6) are conversing during the prom.

AWARDS

Mr. Jerry Becker, Commander of the American Legion of Argos, presented the American Legion Citizenship Awards to Agnes Schafer and Bill Westafer (1). Agnes also received recognition for winning the State Exchange Bank Scholarship and the D.A.R. Award. Deb Calhoun received the shorthand award, and Laurie Warner, the advanced typing award (2). Teri Van Der Weele was the recipient of the Nellie Newhouse SAE Scholarship, J. O. Thompson Scholarship, and the Marshall County Bank & Trust Scholarship (3). The Distinguished Musician's Certificate presented by the United States Youth Foundation and the National Band Association was received by Larry McKee (4).

Those receiving sweaters for their achievements in G.A.A. were: Ellen Pedinger, Deb Overmyer, Peg Quimby, Pat Smith (who also received the High Game Bowling Award), Robin Grossman, Sylvia Pena, Judy Roberts, and Lou Ann Solomon (5).

The Industrial Arts Award was given to Tom Chamberlin (6). Loralie Thompson received the Biology Award, and the Chemistry Award was received by Rhonda Hooker (7). People who were awarded Mathematics Awards were: Karen Rensberger, Algebra I; Maria Nyby, Geometry; and Ellen Redinger, Algebra II (8).

The American Legion Science Award was given to Terry Tucker, and the American Legion Mathematics Award was given to Steve Rowe by Mr. Becker (9). Ellen Redinger--American History Award, Tim Wolfe--World History Award, Cindy Flagg--Social Studies Award.

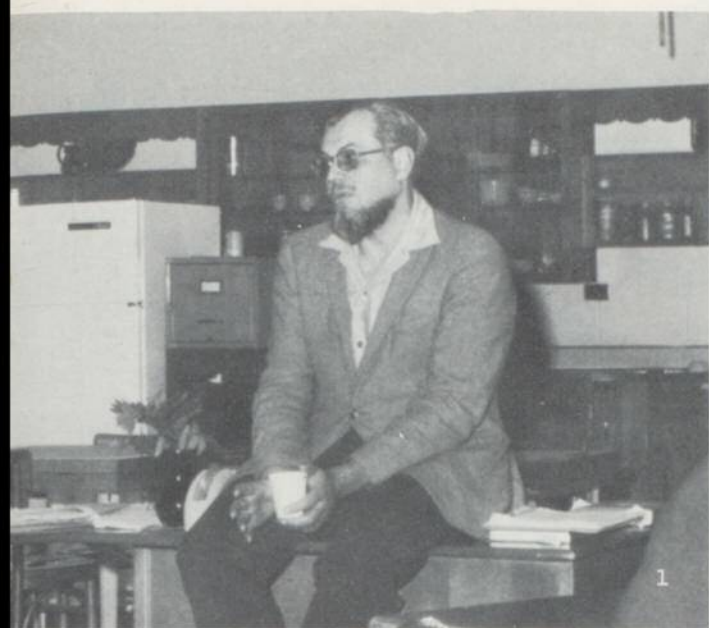

Tracy Rowe, Boys' State Alternate; Dean Zentz, Boys' State Delegate; Allen Mechling, Boys' State Alternate; Lyndon Bailey, Boys' State Delegate (1). Robin Grossman, Girls' State Alternate; Ellen Redinger, Girls' State Delegate (2).

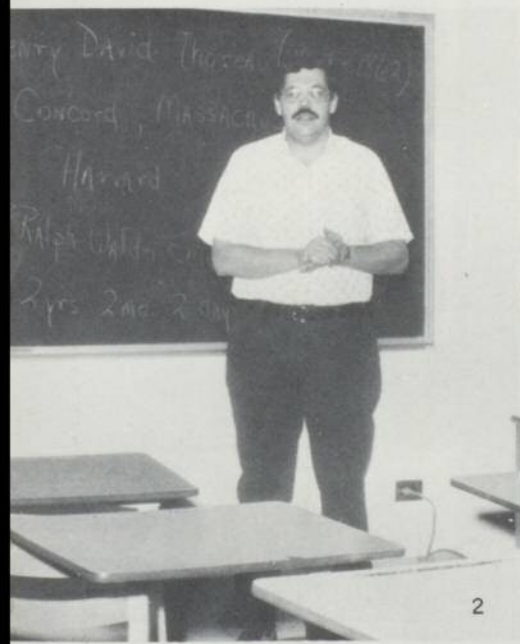

Foreign Language Awards were given to Ellen Redinger, French, and Lou Ann Solomon, Spanish (3). Kaye Thompson received the Yearbook Award, and Larry McKee received the South Bend Tribune Most Valuable Staffer Award for his time spent on the school newspaper (4).

P.T.O. Scholarships were awarded to Duane Watts and Karen Zehner (5). Outstanding Senior Home Economics Silver Award was given to Cindy Flagg (6). Vicki Keller was awarded a House of James Scholarship (7).

AWARDS AND CAREERS DAY

Mr. Claussen (1) spoke to interested students about psychology and various aspects of social work. Harold Lowe (2) from the Plymouth Pilot News talked about the field of journalism. Mrs. Schlegel talked to many girls about the nursing profession (3), Ned W. Rudd (4) spoke to the students about veterinary sciences. Lt. Richard Coplen (5) discussed the training requirements for becoming a police officer.

CAREERS DAY

Mrs. Carol Meredith and Jim Chamberlin, II talk to a group of students about business management. (1).

Dr. James Hampton talked to a group on the medical profession. (2).

Dick Duke from International Junior College talked to many students interested in accounting and data processing. (3).

Jon VanDerWeele talked to the students on sign advertising. (4).

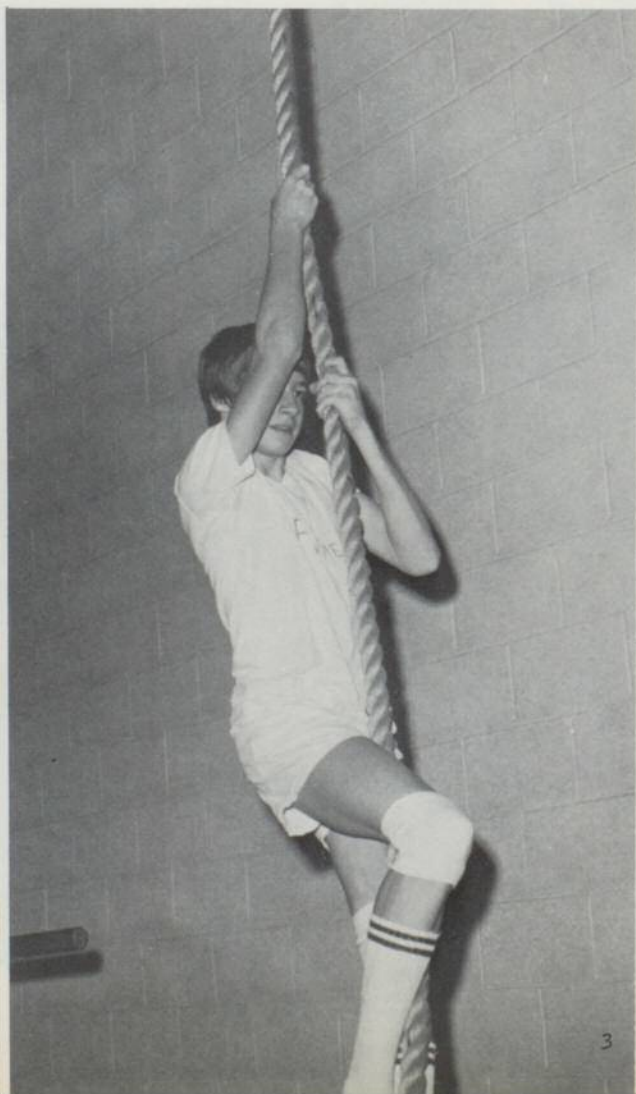

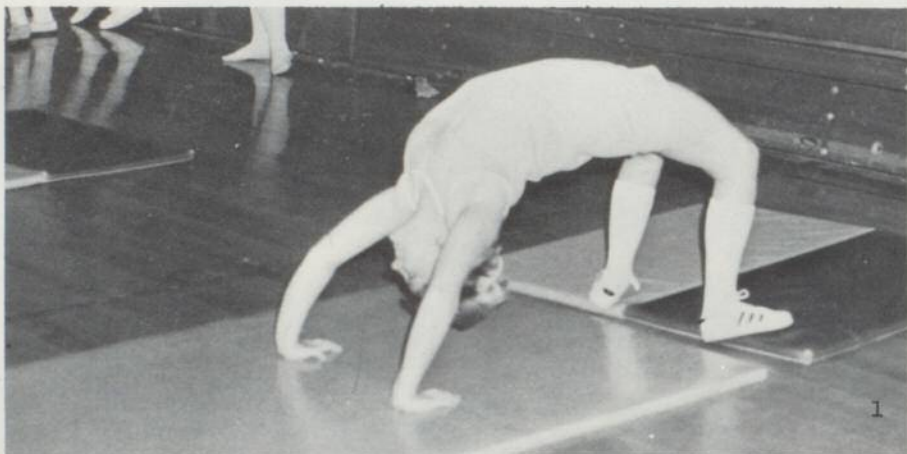

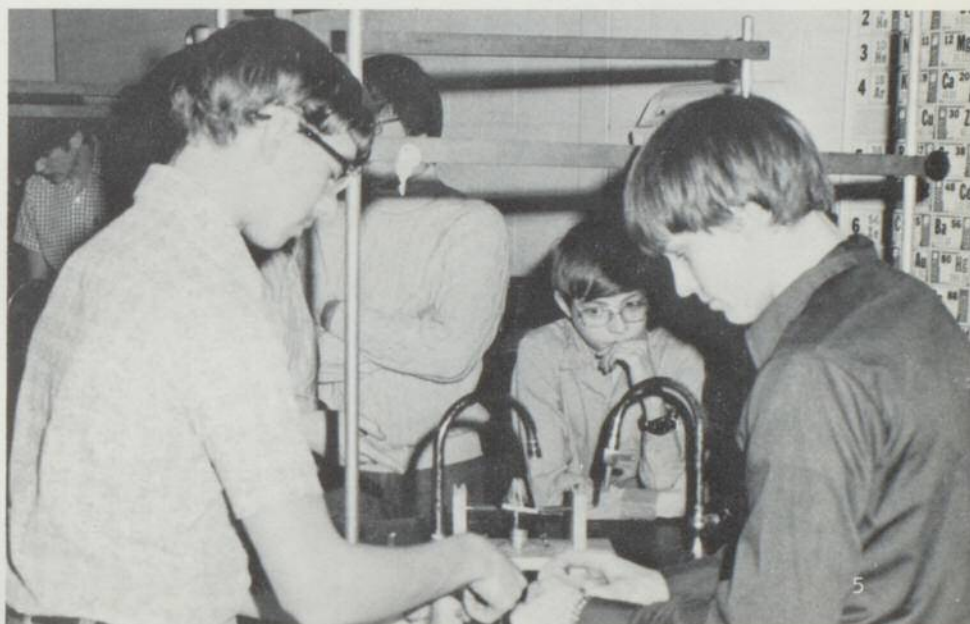

ACADEMICS

Freshmen find that being in physical education classes is a way of life. The requirements for both boys and girls can be strenuous such as in gymnastics.

Judy Bryan (1), Pam Shoemaker (2), and Kurt Palmer (3) demonstrate a few of their many abilities in physical education classes.

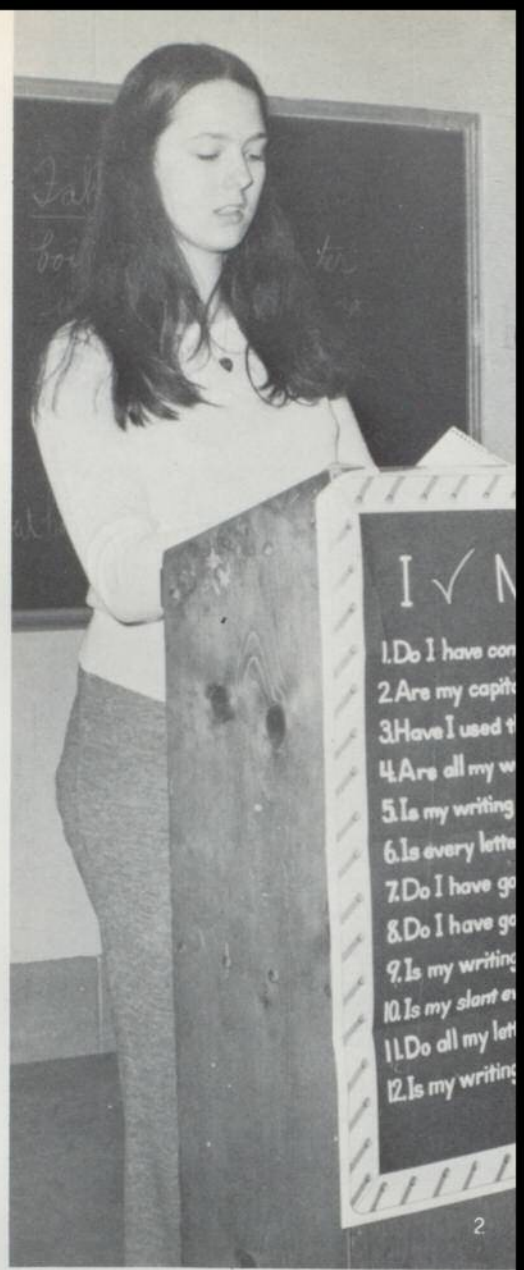

No biology year is complete without the dissection of a frog as Tim Hansen (4) proves. Freshmen general science (5) does have its interested students, Kent Oviatt enjoys watching Terry Edmonds and Hobart Stevens as they work on their project. Whatever the teacher is explaining to these Junior High science students, they seem not to be taking it seriously (6).

PHYSICAL ED. AND SCIENCE

SPANISH, SPEECH, AND ENGLISH

Doug Snyder (1) and Diane Ulery (3) listen carefully to the tapes in their Spanish class. This year was the first year for advanced speech. The requirements were more rigid, and the topics were more in depth than in the regular speech class during the sophomore year. The fads and memories of the 50's was a speech topic used by Angie McGriff (2).

Seventh graders (4) remain with basic spelling during one of their English classes. Kim Kaufman (5) has the class's attention for her oral book report. Diagramming sentences has always confused students since elementary days. Barb Thompson (6) draws a sentence diagram for her English class.

The three stages of Home Economics can be seen as Judy Staner (1) prepares, Rhonda Adams (2) washes dishes, and Mindy Welborne (3) eats.

Martin Waggars (4) awaits dictation in shorthand class. Accounting can be a very tedious class, but a simple calculator can be of service, as Joe Roush (5) demonstrates. Dixie Golden (6) uses the correct typing posture as she keeps her eyes on her manuscript and fingers dashing over the keys.

HOME ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

AGRICULTURE AND SHOP

Joe Winterrowd and Jeff Becker (1) are trying to start their small engines in class. Jay Smith, Mike Burroughs, and Lyndon Bailey (2) are tearing down a lawn mower engine. Tony Robb (3) is working on a metal lathe.

Mark Roahrig (4) is repairing a hack saw that he broke in small engines class. Doug Warner and Jim Kolar (5) are working on a drafting display.

A controversial topic in social problems brings mixed emotions (1). Mike Burroughs (2) works on a macrame design for Art II with the help of Mr. E. Miller.

Jay Eby (3) is smiling during one of his less serious moods in history. Mr. Cutlers (4) helps Doug O'Dell with an Algebra II problem, Study Hall (5) is what you make of it.

MORE OF OUR WORLD

Raymond Ludwig (1) sneaks a smile as the year ends in mechanical drawing. Ken Hart (2) is wearing a T-shirt with a slogan "Let's Boogie" which was a popular saying during the year. Loretta Winters (3) . . . does it look like she is related to Barb Winters?

AND MORE

Cheri Hooker (1) tires to close her mouth while chewing on a jaw breaker. Senior, Dana Andrews, sits patiently waiting for the noon hour to end (2). Dave Hampton (3) is very much at home on the golf course.

Ron Rensberger (4) is showing Mr. Strycker pictures of the FFA trip to Oklahoma. Mike Burroughs (5) poses for the school photographer. (6) A student who must come to school in the bus rides the bus an average of 4,320 times during 12 years of school.

Pam Robinson (2) manages to get turned upside down in a wastebasket in one of her classes. John Castleman (3) and Sue Metzger (4).

You've seen our small world, and I have tried my best to achieve the one goal I was after--to bring out some hidden faces at Argos that no one really knew existed. You might think that this school is small; but, really, no one knows everybody. Perhaps this yearbook will help in some small way.

I want to thank the ad salesmen for making this book possible, Jerry Shaffer and Steve Hampton who were excellent photographers, Mrs. McBride who worked so many long hours trying to meet our deadlines, the section editors, and last--but not least--the other members of the yearbook staff.
