*This is a tale of a gang of kids who went to Argos High School.
Even in the seventh grade,
they had career ambitions.*

*At times, these kids were ornery and mischievous.
Some liked to hang around,*

*while others liked to sit around.
Their friendships grew stronger through the years.*

This class had a fall here and there, but they were tough and kept their cool.

They had style and were always willing to lend their shoulders to help one another.

 LAVENDER AND CREAM

CLASS MOTTO SUCCESS COMES FROM HANGING ON AFTER EVERYONE ELSE HAS LET GO.

FLOWER — LAVENDER ROSE SET IN A CREAM CARNATION DIPPED IN LAVENDER.

Our school years will provide a lifetime of memories. Everyone in our class had a favorite subject or extracurricular activity.

On May 22, 1983, graduation day arrived, and the 50 Seniors got ready for the ceremony.

The processional was led by Valedictorian, Nancy Hartman, and Salutatorian, Pam Rowe. Farewell speeches were given. The Senior Ensemble sang its last song. Each graduate received a diploma and proudly marched out of the gym.

Then they lined up for congratulations.

Thanks to A.H.S.,
the 1983 Seniors

are ready to face

the world and to reach for their goals. Our story ends, but for these 50

adults, it is just the beginning.

MR. HESS RETIRES

Mr. Hess has served as an educator at AHS for forty-three years in the following capacities: Vo-ag and Science teacher, Assistant Principal of the Junior-Senior High School, Junior-Senior High School Principal, Supervising Principal of the total school (K-12), and Superintendent. He received a Bachelor of Science in Agriculture (B.S.A.) degree and a Master of Science (M.S.) degree from Purdue University.

When asked what he felt had been the positive changes made in education during his career, Mr. Hess responded that he felt that the present emphasis on a stronger academic program has been one. He also included decisions at the federal level to provide matching funds on a 50-50 basis for the purchase of equipment for use in science, math, and other subject areas and to provide funding for school library and related areas.

Mr. Hess listed the following important achievements and highlights during his years at Argos: (1) the move to a new building in 1957; (2) the building of much needed additions since then on a cash basis by use of cumulative building funds; (3) the present sound financial condition of the school district; (4) maintenance of a first class commission in both schools for the past twenty-five years; (5) maintenance of high academic standards; (6) maintenance of higher graduation requirements locally than those required by the State Department of Public Instruction; (7) the number of courses available to high school students in view of the size of the school; (8) reaching the "Final Four" in the 1979 State Basketball Tourney along with the subsequent seventy-six game regular season winning streak.

As a tribute to the community and to the school, Mr. Hess states: "For thirty-eight years it has been a rewarding experience to serve as a teacher and as an administrator in the schools of the Argos community. During that time the school system has received excellent support from residents of the community, from community organizations, from the business community, from parents, from board members, from teachers, and from other members of the school staff. Because of this fine support, our schools have been able to achieve the present degree of excellence."

1983 marked the beginning of a new group at Argos — the PALS (People Active in Listening Situations) peer facilitator group. A facilitator is someone who helps someone else achieve his maximum potential by listening to them, discussing topics of current interest, and tutoring. The project involved a one-on-one link-up of upper classmen and seventh graders. The PALS group was designated by the School Improvement Committee. The initial goals of the PALS group are to improve total school climate and help ease the transition from elementary to junior high school for students.

MARCHING DRAGONS ACQUIRE "FAME"

Left, right, left, right — this is somewhere in the back of the marching band students' minds as they go down the street. This year the band consisted of 48 playing members and 18 drill corps members. They marched in five parades receiving 2 firsts, 2 seconds, and 27th at the State Fair contest which made the summer work worthwhile.

1 — The excitement of the parade has caused Dave Crum to play the wrong instrument.

2 — Paula Wallace thinks about the parade that is about to begin in a few minutes.

3 — Mary Roush is practicing before the parade at Plymouth.

4 — The band gets warmed up.

5 — Jeff Tolson is ready to start.

6 — "And now for the Argos Marching Dragons!"

7 — They're off to win first place.

8 — Tami Shidler and Laura Bash plan on finishing the performance without getting carried away.

9 — This is not the end of the Marching Dragons; they will be back next year.

FUN FOR EVERYONE

Our fourth annual Variety Show on November 5 was directed by Pam Huber and Sandy Burroughs. The show included a variety of acts — dancers, skits, songs, and even a puppet show.

1 — The Flag Corps does a routine "Working for the Weekend."

2 — Some Senior girls do the skit, "Is It Time Yet?"

3 — Pam Rowe, Mrs. Burroughs, and Janice Wright fiddle away in their skit "Who Dunit?"

4 — Robyn, Cindy, Tami, and Laura told us in their skit that "We Didn't Have to Be Weeds."

5 — There was no stopping Marilyn Houin and Kristi Snyder as they dance to "There's No Stopping Us."

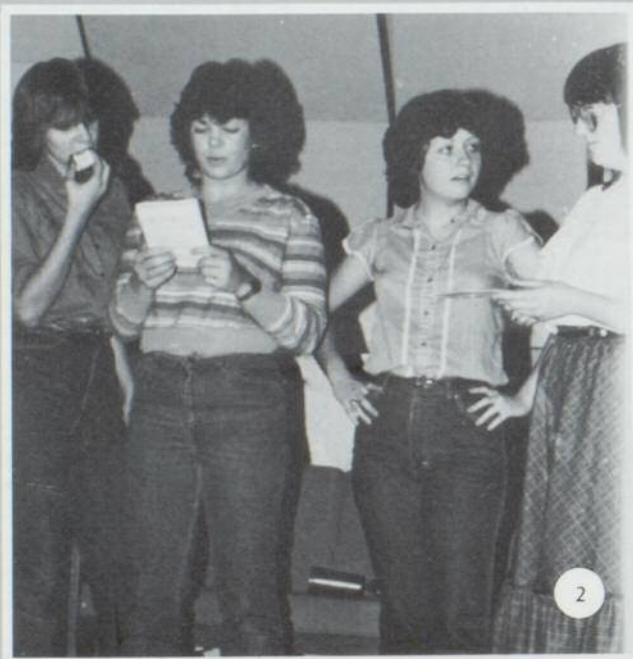

6 — Mrs. Truman sings "What I Did For Love."

7 — Special education students do their interpretation of "Celebration."

8 — Mitzi Risner, Dar Burkholder, and Laura Bash provide two musical selections using puppets.

9 — Peggy Stockberger and Benji give their version of "Annie" and the song "Tomorrow."

10 — Poms dance to the song "Eye of the Tiger."

DRAMA CLUB TRIES A NEW FORMAT

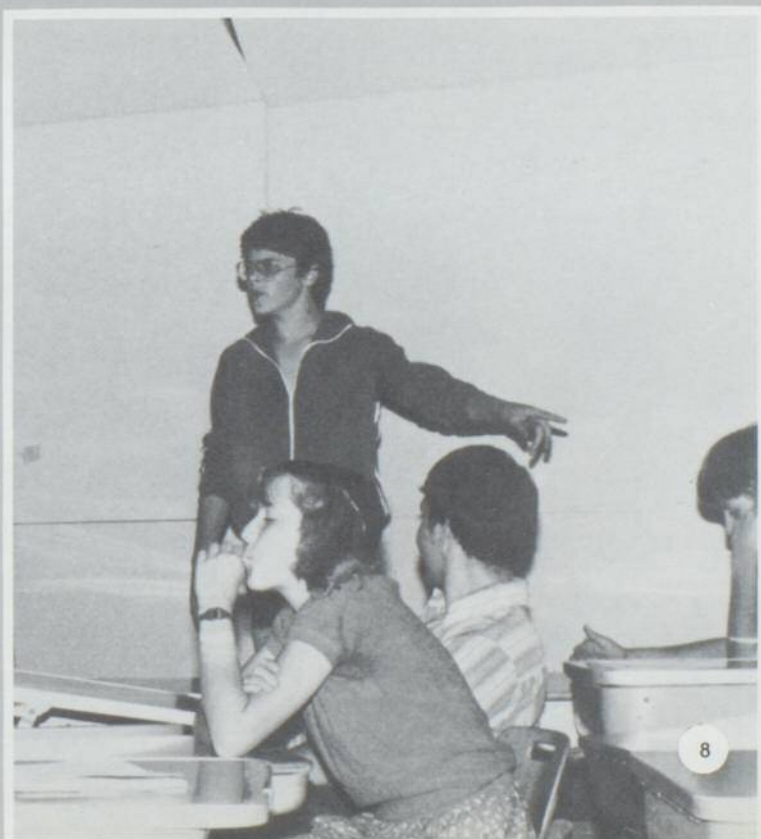

Drama Club students experienced a new format for the fall play this year. Under the direction of Mr. Levi and assistant director Mr. Livengood, they performed three one-act plays.

They started the evening with a comedy, "The Final Dress Rehearsal." This was a play about a group of actors trying to perform the play "Cinderella."

The second play, "The Babysitter," was a spook story about four girls misled into an already planned babysitting job. A ghost has planned it.

The evening was finished with a comedy, "An Apple for the Teacher." It was about a teacher dealing with a group of out-of-the-ordinary kids.

- 1 - We are ready and willing to act.
- 2 - Practice makes perfect or at least good.
- 3 - Bob Zentz has everyone listening.
- 4 - Tony Stone is more fascinated by the audience than by the play.
- 5 - "Don't get saucy with me," says Cathy Snider.
- 6 - "I wish I could go to the Ball," thinks Kris Hudspeth.
- 7 - "This candle has to light tonight."
- 8 - Jeff Herrin is sure that Rod Miller hit him; Denise Stutler could care less.

"The envelope please . . . the second runner-up is Miss Angie Thompson."

"The envelope please . . . the first runner-up is Miss Marilyn Houin."

"And now for the 1982-83 Homecoming Queen . . . Miss Janell Prochno!"

Homecoming is a traditional ceremony at Argos High School. Each year in the month of November, Sponsor Mrs. Ginger Calhoun gets her student council members together and they begin preparations for the event. Each high school student casts three votes for his favorite candidates. The votes are tallied; the results are kept a secret until the half-time break of the varsity game when the winners are announced.

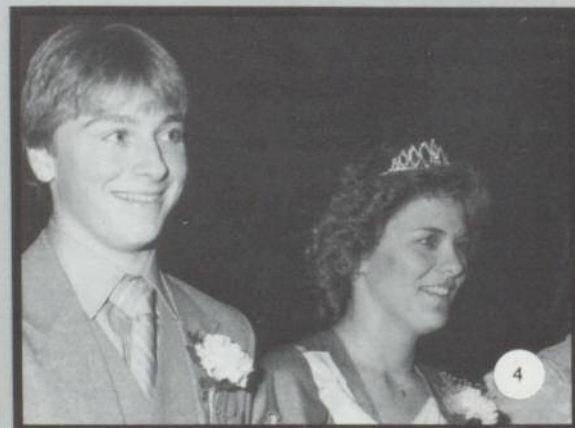

1 - Kim Heuer proudly places the crown on Janell Prochno.

4 - Janell and Jay listen happily as the announcer finishes.

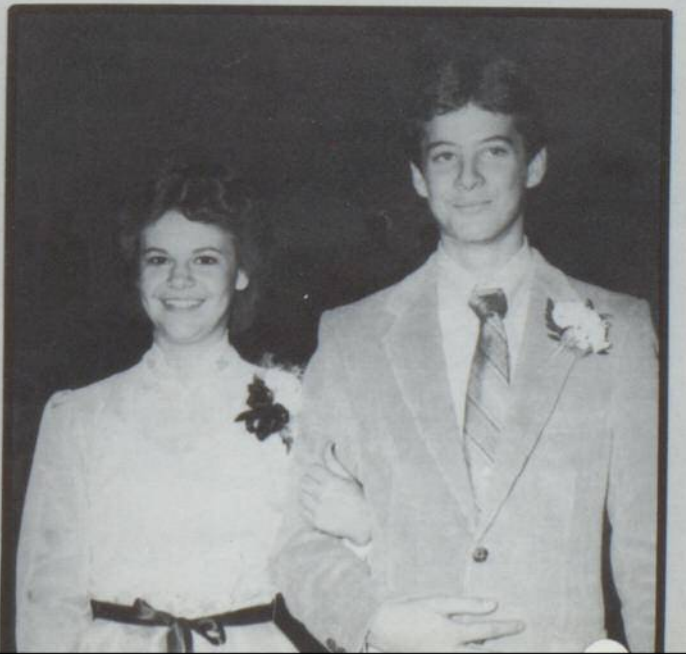

5 - Angie Thompson, escorted by Doug Overmyer, is announced as the second runner-up.

THE SUSPENSE IS KILLING ME . . .

- 1 - Mary Roush is shown with her escort Mike Dennie.
- 2 - Lorrie Friar smiles as she stands with her escort Jeff Herrin.
- 3 - Darla McCune and escort Brad Snyder await the results of the voting.
- 4 - Becky Cripe and her escort Steve Powell share a secret.
- 5 - Tina Alderfer is standing with her escort Jeff Shivers.

Every year the Sunshine Society puts on a dance for the high school and faculty. The dance was held on February 12 this year. Some Special Education students attended and enjoyed themselves so much that they plan to attend next year.

The music was provided by the band "Just After Dark," and the theme of the dance was rainbows and balloons.

1 - Boyd Hollabaugh, Bob Powell, and Jay Stauffer.

2 - Robbin Wilcox and Jon Eby.

3 - Tom Friar and Deb O'Dell.

4 - Kris Hudspeth and Jeff Deeton.

5 - Darla McCune and Garry Eby.

6 - Tami Shidler, Joe Wilson, Cindy Walls, and Bill Stults.

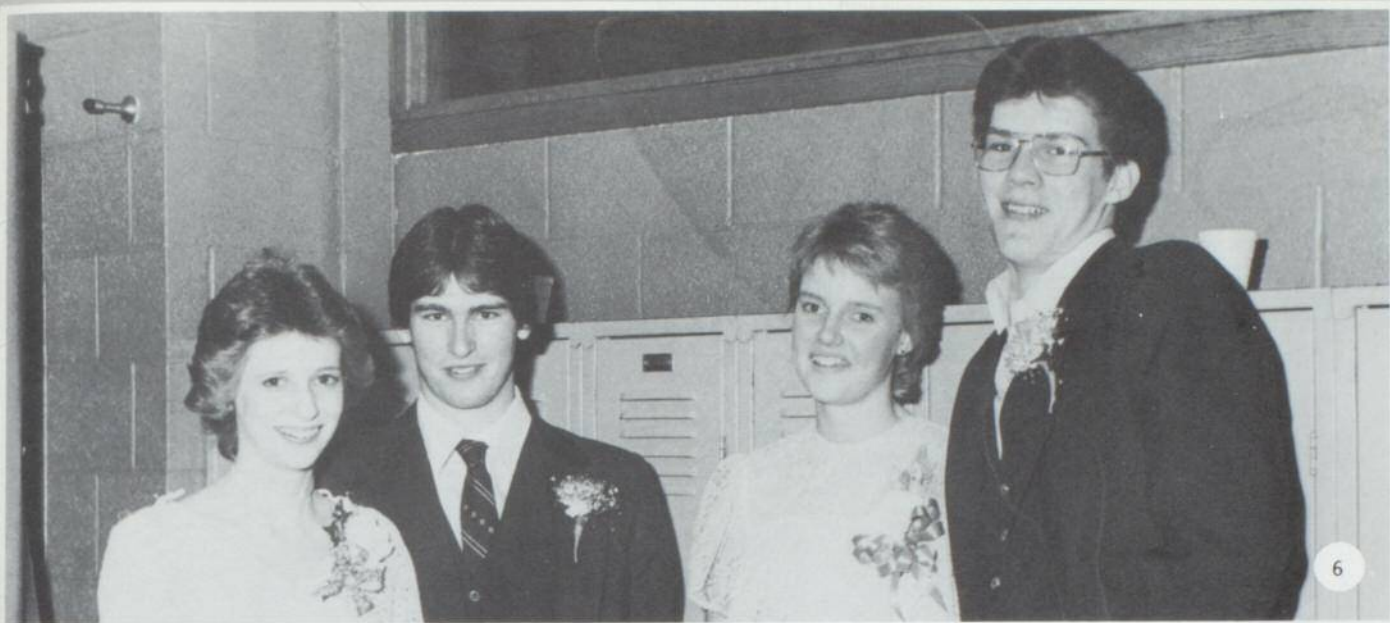

7 - Kristi Snyder and Kim Lattimer.

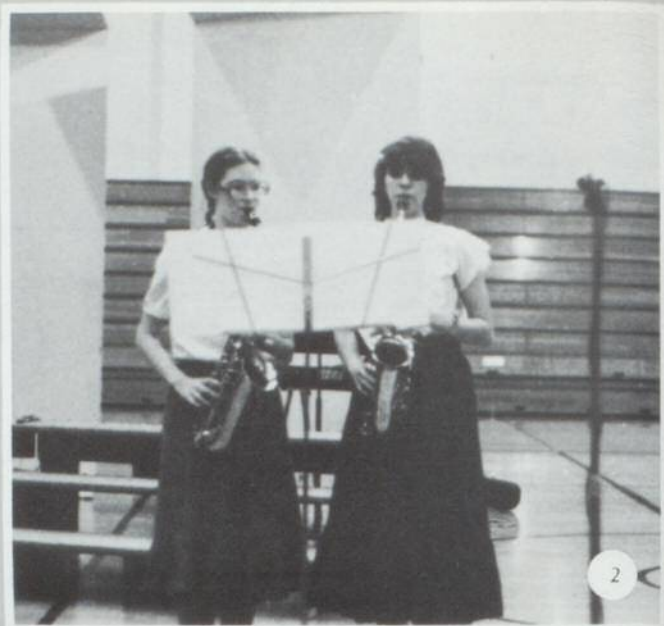

8 - Jeanne Drake and Dave Winenger.

9 - Wilma Doll, Clyde Manuwal, Melody BonDurant, Bill Bailey, and Diane Lyons.

"TWO LESS LONELY PEOPLE"

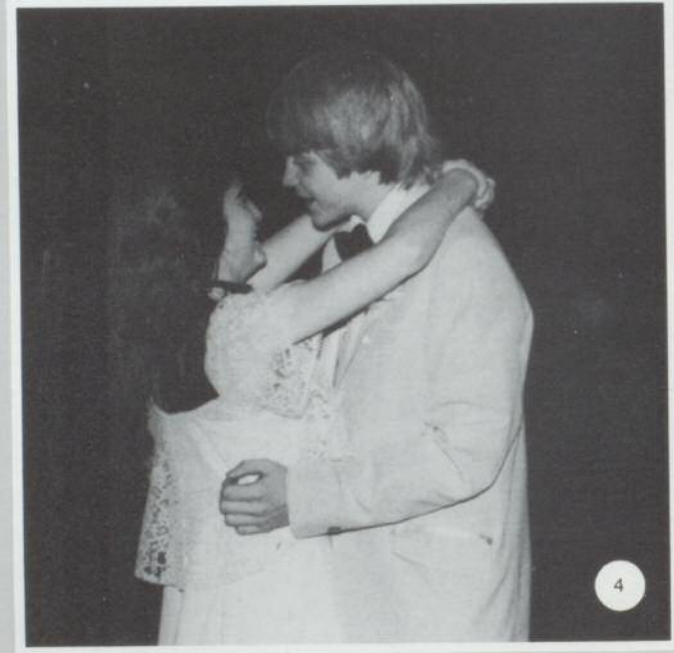

- 1 - Linda Van Duyne performs her xylophone solo during the '83 Spring Concert.
- 2 - Robyn Shidler and Laura Bash harmonize to their contest piece, "#5."
- 3 - Junior High and High School students combine to make perfect harmony during the Christmas Concert.
- 4 - The Junior High Band executes its willingness to play.
- 5 - The Flute Section cooperates.
- 6 - The High School Choir performs during the Christmas Concert.
- 7 - The sopranos take the melody during our Christmas Concert.
- 8 - Jeanne Drake sings "The Rose."
- 9 - Pam Rowe presents a gift of appreciation to former choir director Sandra Burroughs.
- 10 - Ernie Parker publicly introduces a song he has composed.

On May 7, 1983, the annual Junior-Senior Prom was held in the cafeteria. The theme this year was "Love Lift Us Up" which was the title of a very popular song from the movie "An Officer and a Gentleman." The Prom began at 9 p.m. and concluded at 12 a.m. The After Prom which started at 1 a.m. was held at Quick's Bowling Lanes in Plymouth. The After Prom was sponsored by the Lions Club. The band for the prom was Starke Raven from Warsaw.

WE'RE OFF TO SEE THE WIZARD!

1 — Aunt Em is calling for Dorothy. Uncle Henry is afraid there is going to be a twister.

2 — Aunt Em scolds Dorothy for not getting home on time.

3 — After the twister, Dorothy awakes in Oz. The Sorceress of the North informs her that her house has killed the Wicked Witch of the East.

4 — Dorothy is then greeted by all the Munchkins who thank her for killing the witch.

1 — The Wicked Witch of the West then appears telling Dorothy that she has killed her sister and that she will pay for it.

2 — Dorothy in her attempt to get back home runs across a Scarecrow, who undoubtedly needs a brain.

3 — They don't get very far when they find a Tinman in the forest, who needs a heart.

4 — In the jungle, they encounter a Lion who is in need of courage.

5 — The Cowardly Lion explains in a song what he would do if he only had courage.
