IT'S THE SMALL THINGS

Upper Right — Sam Mahler is practicing climbing fences to get in shape for basic training in the Marines.

Center Left — Blaine Cooper smiles as he goes to Senior Math — a class which will help him in college.

Center Right — Kip Bailey relaxes for a few seconds to get energy to take him through the next class.

Bottom Right — Greg Amones finds a way to carry his milk and get to where he is going on his crutches.

... THAT MAKE US STRONG

Many times in life, people are recognized because of their outstanding accomplishments. What is behind each person and his greatness? It's the small things. The small things in a person's life are built up only as far as that person wants. Some choose to pursue and achieve; others choose to explore new ideas and do their own thing. It takes hours of conditioning to develop strength to scale a fence, to endure a basketball game, or march a few miles in a parade. It takes hours of studying to pass classes to achieve grades for the college and career of one's choice. Each hour spent is a small part of life that helps each person achieve his goals. When everything is put together and we have reached the top, we look back at the small things and realize that each one has made us strong.

Upper Right — Sindy Wilhelm listens to the homework assignment.

Center — Bobbie Jo Williams, Kim Hall, Rose Redinger, Susan Wilhelm, and Lisa Vanator clown around for the camera.

Lower Left — Gayla Stults and Kerry Harshbarger are fascinated by what they see on their slide.

Lower Right — Brent Detwiler checks to see if his cement blocks are level.

... THAT HELP US LEARN

Small things happen every day. A first grader studies subjects that form a foundation of knowledge. These high school girls learn that cooperation is building the small things. Two seventh graders actually study "small things" in order to expand their horizons. As these bricks are being laid and leveled, students stack and level the small things that they learn in order to achieve success. All of these bricks are stacked together with good times. Being with friends, laughing at mistakes, or spending a moment alone are all pieces of our lives that help us learn so we can achieve our success.

Top — Kathy Agnostou, Joy Mahler, and Teri Harley chat excitedly about an up-coming event.
 Center — Wiley Powell and Joey Stone relax during their lunch hour.
 Center Right — Eric McClain thinks about his future.
 Bottom — Pariah, a student rock band, practiced many hours to become one of the hits of the Fall Variety Show.

IT'S THE SMALL THINGS ....

Lower Right — Tammy Savage begins a new day.

Center Left — Brian Trump takes a break from studying.

Center — The Girls' Chorus performs a selection by the Supremes.

... THAT MAKE LIFE FUN

It's the small things that make life fun — playing in the band, playing a joke, dressing up or down for a special occasion, singing a song, spending time with your friends, acting out a story, or taking a break from your regular routine.

MARCHING BAND'S HIGHLIGHTS

The Argos Marching Dragons, Poms, and Flags performed in North Webster's Mermaid Festival, their own Argos Fourth-A-Bratton, and Bremen's Fireman's Festival Parade, where they placed third. They played for the opening ceremonies at the National Rock and Gem Collector's Convention held at Notre Dame's ACC and placed first at Culver's Lakefest Parade. Their summer season ended with a second place finish at Plymouth's Blueberry Festival Parade.

Top — Majorette Sarah Manuwal leads the band during the parade.

Lower Right — Pom Pon Shelly Wilhelm concentrates on her routine before the band lines up.

Top — The five Senior band members are Rose Redinger, Lisa Vanator, Sarah Manuwal, Bobbie Jo Williams, and Kim Hall.

TEAM WINS LAFAYETTE INVITATIONAL

Top — Senior David Stults runs toward the goal.

The '86 soccer season had some memorable events. Winning the Lafayette Invitational had to be one of the best. It was a long and tiring day for the players but well worth it in the end. However, we didn't need the bus to break down. Playing at and watching I.U. was an enjoyable weekend, even though we didn't play very well. The 17 wins is among the highest recorded for an Argos team and shows the quality of this year's team. So you can see, we had a good season, but it was not without its disappointments. Losing out to CMA in the tournament was hard to live with after we had beaten them earlier this season. This year's Senior class will be missed, but with the nucleus of players returning in '87 we hope to put Argos soccer on top in Indiana.

— Coach Van Duyne

GIRLS HAVE DETERMINATION

The 1986-87 Volleyball Season was a positive step for the Volleyball Program at Argos. The season record was 7-13, which is the second best record in Argos Volleyball history. We're very proud of this feat. Those Varsity players contributing were: Sr. Rose Redinger; Jrs. Karla Snyder, Jodi Shivers, Cheryl Ellis, Melissa Lard, Jeanne Martens, Heather Burnett, and Camma Capes; Soph. Jennifer McKinney.

Some highlights of the season included three tourneys. We began the season by hosting our own tournament. We lost in the first round to the winner of the tourney, Ft. Wayne Christian. We were winners of the consolation game against Lakeland.

Our next win came at the Triton Tourney. We defeated CGA in the morning which allowed us to face LaVille in the afternoon. Our efforts fell short of powerful LaVille, but playing in the afternoon round of the tourney was also a first for Argos Volleyball.

We are invited to a third tourney hosted by Winamac. In the morning we were defeated by Knox, but we were victorious over Caston in the afternoon. This win was thrilling for the girls since they had beaten them earlier in the season, and they gave us a good match in both contests!

Other highlights included victories over Trinity and O-D. The girls were proud of their accomplishments when the season ended. The team will strive for even more for next year, because these girls have determination! We're very proud of them.

— Coach Kim Snyder

Bottom — Coach Rohl and Coach Snyder plan the second half strategy.

SENIORS REMINISCE

I chose the theme "It's the Small Things" for the yearbook this year for many reasons. First of all, take a look at the Senior class and at the school and even at the town of Argos — all are pretty small. But being small has its advantages such as being able to know everybody, at least by name.

Through the years, my class has shared many experiences. We started kindergarten in the fall of 1974 with 39 kids. Over the years, our class size increased to a total of 57 students in the sixth grade.

On these two pages, I have tried to include as many pictures as possible of the pictures taken of us while we were growing up. I am sure everyone remembers taking a milk break, having three recesses, playing on the monkey bars, and standing in line — alphabetically!

But as time went on, we acquired new and more responsibilities and learned new things. I remember looking up at the "high school" kids and thinking how much older they all seemed and how I couldn't wait to be a senior. Well, we made it. And as I look at the underclassmen now, especially the elementary students, I cannot believe we used to be so little.

I went through my old yearbooks and past class lists and found that through all the years we had as many as 57 students and as few as 31. Fifteen Seniors have been at Argos since kindergarten — for 13 years!

Now as our final year comes to a close, many of us have plans to follow. Some will go to college; others, to the military; still others will just go off and make their fortunes. But all in all, when we see each other on the streets or meet at class reunions, we will remember all of the times we spent together and catch up on what has happened since we have left Argos High School. So to the Class of 1987, as you all reminisce about your school days, remember the lessons you've learned, the friends you knew, and especially the best of times!

FEATURES

The Sunshine Society held its annual sweetheart dance on Saturday, February 20, from 8 until 11 p.m. The music was provided by U93 from South Bend. Upper Right — Couples enjoy a slow song.

Center — Tausha Hissong, Stacy Shirk, and Melissa Kline (seated) served punch and cookies to the couples.

Lower Left — Lisa Alderfer, Michelle Thomas, and Kim Crow share a secret or two of the night.

Lower Right — D.J. Bobby Rivers talks to Angie Becker, Teri Harley, Richard Eby, and Blaine Cooper.

JUST YOU AND I

Upper Left — Cory Dennie, Lee Leffert, Sonny Personette, John Dietl, and Damon Leichty have a laugh.

Center Right — Kim Hall, Troy Heisler, Kip Bailey, and Dana Hall sit this dance out.

The time is the present. The setting is at a Pajama Factory. The workers want a 7½¢ raise! The bosses are against it! Thus begins the spring musical presented by the Music Department. The main characters include Vernon Hines (Greg Edwards), efficiency expert and the story teller. He lives by the clock and times the number of stitches which go into every pair of P.J.'s. The factory president — Halsar (Wes Nellans) — flaunts his authority while his second-in-command — Prez (Shawn Thompson) — chases every girl he sees. They hire Sid Sorokin (Blaine Cooper) to supervise production but, unfortunately, he falls in love with the chairperson of the Union's grievance committee, Babe Williams (Nicole Johnson). Babe and Sid later get into a fight because of a potential strike by the workers. The boss's secretary Gladys (Heather Burnett) attracts lots of attention as she performs at the Union rally to the song "Steamheat." When Babe encourages a slow-down in production at the pajama factory, she is fired by Sid. A Union picnic brings them together again, and the workers receive their 7½¢ raise after all.

Upper Right — Brenda (Cheryl Ellis) expresses how she feels about the new superintendent.

Center Right — "The Pajama Game" — the 1987 musical.

Lower Right — Prez (Shawn Thompson) tells the plans to Mae (Jodi Shivers), Joe (Richard Eby), and Brenda (Cheryl Ellis).

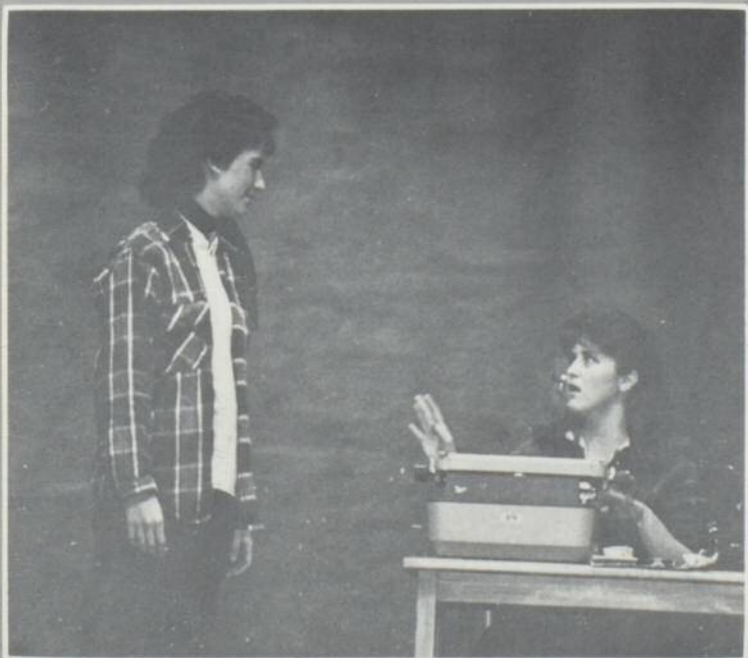

Lower Left — Gladys (Heather Burnett), James Lancaster, and Lee Leffert provide entertainment at the Union rally by singing "Steam Heat."

Center — Sid Sorokin (Blaine Cooper) serenades Babe Williams (Nicole Johnson).

Upper Right — Mae (Jodi Shivers) says "... her name is Miss Williams ..." referring to the Grievance Committee (Nicole Johnson). James Lancaster has been shoved by the superintendent, and the Grievance Committee is making her report.

Center Left — The factory workers (Girls' Chorus) sew the pajamas while racing with the clock.

Lower Left — "No rootbeer for me ..." says Mabel (Susan Wilhelm) as Poppins (Teri Harley) asks for a dollar in order to attend the Union picnic.

Center Right — Pop (Eric Barlow) discusses the stamp album with Sid (Blaine Cooper).

TOGETHER . . . THESE ARE THE BEST OF TIMES

The 1987 Prom was hosted by the Junior class and was held at the Plymouth Country Club on May 9. Before the Prom, many couples enjoyed a formal dinner served at 7 p.m. The dance lasted from 9 p.m. to 12 p.m. The music was provided by the band Illegal Procedure. The After Prom was held at Quick's Lanes from 1 a.m. to 4 a.m. The Lion's Club hosted the After Prom and provided refreshments for the students.

Upper Right — Chad Johnson and Jodi Shivers cuddle to the music performed by Illegal Procedure.

Center Right — This is one dance at which all of the couples participated in dancing.

WORLD ...

WHERE FRIENDS ARE FRIENDS FOREVER

Upper Left — Brandon Calhoun asks Stephanie O'Dell for a dance as the Fourth Graders celebrate Pioneer Day.

Upper Right — Mark Shufelt gets his car washed and ready for the summer.

ARGOS IS A SMALL WORLD . . . .

Upper Right — Richard Eby pauses to think of some of the memories of his years in Argos Community Schools. It is impossible for him to remember everything that has happened; yet, it is impossible for him to forget many things — the first day of school, starting high school as a freshman, playing in his first varsity basketball game, his last final exam his Senior year, etc.

Lower Left — Chris Lee thinks about Oliver Twist in Literature class.

... FULL OF BIG MEMORIES

Center Right — Matt Krom gives advice to people for the summer: "Read."

LIVE FOR TODAY
YESTERDAY
TOMORROW

Another year comes to a close as we put the finishing touches on the 1987 yearbook. We have shared many special moments throughout this year, and each picture in our book has its own story to tell.

As the Class of 1987 leaves Argos High School, we know that we have gained the confidence to make anything possible. Our class motto says: "Live for Today. Learn from Yesterday. Dream for Tomorrow." Our experiences in the classroom and in school activities have provided us with a firm foundation from which we can draw to make wise choices today so that we can build a better future for tomorrow.

The following anonymous poem contains some advice for our future that I would like to share with you.

It's not enough to have a dream, unless we're willing to pursue it.
It's not enough to know what's right unless we're strong enough to do it.
It's not enough to join the crowd,
to be acknowledged and accepted.
We must learn to be true to our ideals,
even if we're excluded and rejected.
It's not enough to learn the truth,
unless we also learn to live it.
It's not enough to reach for love,
unless we care enough to give it.

Susan Alayne Wilhelm
1987 Yearbook Editor
