DRAGON'S
TALE

Part of the educational process is making choices and learning to live with them. Students at Argos must make dozens of choices each year. They must decide what classes to take, what clubs to join, what friendships to pursue, whether or not to go steady, what clothes to wear, how long or short to wear their hair—the list is endless. Each class has their own unique decisions to make. Seniors must decide upon pictures, keys, mugs, shirts, announcements, thank you cards, memory books, colleges, technical schools, jobs, and the Senior trip. Juniors select the time and place for the prom and choose their class colors, motto, and flower. Sophomores have to decide whether or not to take driver's training. Freshmen make choices about class rings and the high school curriculum they plan to complete. Top Right—Travis Miller chooses to complete the requirements for his advanced scholar curriculum by taking French II. Center Right—Mark Dean opens the tray return window during the fourth hour lunch. He chooses to work.

Center—Jeremy Davis is our student "rocker." He has taken guitar lessons for 2 years and plans a career as a recording engineer.

Center Left—Tamar Troyer shows off her long hair. She has never ever had it cut—just trimmed.

Lower Right—Billie McLaughlin gives up a study hall to work in the office as an assistant. One of her duties is to operate the copy machine.

CHOICES

Top Left—Duane Crum and Casie Bishop give up hours and hours of their personal time to serve as managers of our basketball teams. Duane estimates that he works 20 hours a week in this capacity; Casie, 15.
Center Left—Sherry Smith and Erin Flory are best friends and have been since elementary school.

Right—Stephanie Wood has her arms full of costumes for group picture day. She has chosen to be in many activities—14 in all—just during her Senior year.
Center Left—Jim Bradley and Melissa Shafer are best friends and are dating.
Lower Left—Wendy Barbour and Kerry Harshbarger are filling out their college entrance papers. Wendy wants to attend Valparaiso University and major in English. Kerry wants to attend Purdue University and major in elementary education.

AND MORE CHOICES

Top Right—Juniors Ameer VanDerWeele, Amy Eley, and Carrie Brown give up a Saturday morning to sell concessions during a Junior High and Freshman basketball tournament.

Lower Right—Cassie Bishop is hoping that she will comprehend the classroom lecture in her dreams by osmosis.

The annual SSS dance was held in the school cafeteria on March 21, 1992. The theme was "Once Upon a Time." The dance song was "Everything I Do, I Do For You" by Bryan Adams. Pink and silver balloons, stars, and lighted trees were used to decorate the walls and ceiling. The Decorations Committee created a drawing of a castle to hang on the wall to carry out the fairy tale theme. FFA donated a waterfall backdrop for photographs. The DJ was The Music Machine from ZIP104. Pink paper slippers were given as a keepsake to the people who attended.

The annual spring musical was held April 24 and 25 at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Choral Director Tami Brock and Stage Director Rick Hutchinson worked together to produce the musical, "Cinderella." Many hours of hard work by both the staff and play members paid off in an outstanding display of singing and acting.

The role of Cinderella was played by Lori Lard, and the role of the Prince, by Eric Clark. The musical told the well-known tale of a young girl who rises up from her life of torment, caused by her wicked stepmother and two stepsisters, to marry the Prince whom she meets at a ball, thanks to her Fairy Godmother. In all, the musical was a great success thanks to the time and energy each cast and crew member put into the production.

Left—Doug Peters gets spruced up and ready to travel to an away basketball game with his teammates. Below—Sophomores Chad Nolin, Traci Kline, Jennifer Dean, Karl Pesak, and Jennifer Milliser ban together for a quick photo opportunity.

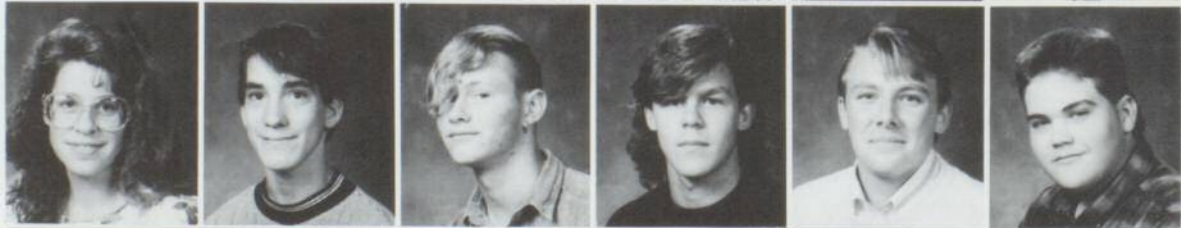

Being a sophomore means many things—you're half way through high school, you're probably going to be driving soon, you might be getting a job, you're well on your way to being an upper classman, and of course there are those classes like Biology, English II, and Geometry (hopefully out of the way after this year)!

FRESHMEN

Upper left—Stephany O'Dell contemplates "Why a yearbook picture now?" and so does Roger McKinney. Lower left—A demonstration of typing "baseball style" is given by Byron Andrews. Upper right—These students from Physical Science discuss the material for the day.

Being a freshman means being on the bottom rung of the ladder, but slowly climbing upward, taking a lot of grief from upper classmen, more homework, beginning to think about the future, and classes like English I, P.E., and Algebra I.

Ann Marie Stockberger, November 6, 1974—October 23, 1991.

Ann will be missed by her family—her brother Ron and her parents Billy and Barbara Ann Stockberger. Ann will also be missed by her many friends and the faculty at Argos High School.

The end of the year is a time for making lots of choices: what events to participate in on Track and Field Day, whether or not to take summer school, how many hours to study for those final exams, and whether or not to get a part-time job during the summer. On these two pages are pictures showing many Argos students making the right choices.

Another year, another book. The mad scramble to get all our pictures taken, pictures cropped, layouts drawn, and copy written and typed on the computer is over for a few months.

Special thanks to Leon Cowger who took ad pictures and sold the most ads; to Andy Nifong who took pictures for the Sports and Features sections and who did the Sports layouts and copy; to Carrie Brown who completed the Organization section; to Krystal Wolff who worked on the Academic section; to Lori Lard who wrote copy, and to Ameer VanDer Weele, Laretta Ruiz, and Karra Hutchinson for working many hours on the Album section. Thanks also go to McDonald Studio for all the work they have done in being our school photographer and to Susan Taylor, our Herff-Jones Yearbook Representative.
