What's Up with Student Life?

Upper left—Andrea Druckemiller leans on a crutch to ease the pressure on her newly reconstructed knee. Ouch!
Center—the new benches are often occupied at lunch by Brandon Miller, Jason Trump, Kerri Bash, and Jenni Brittin.

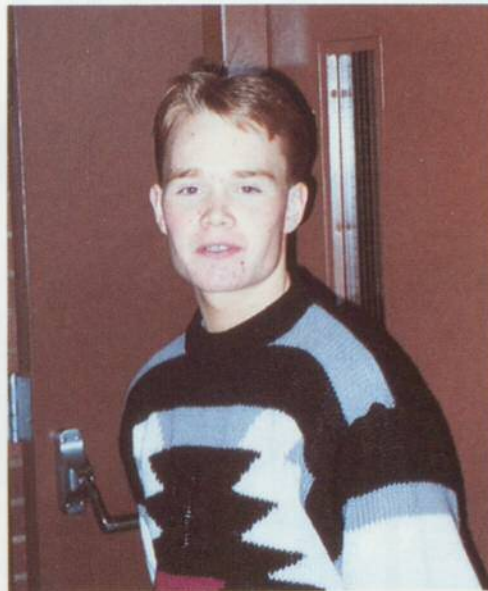

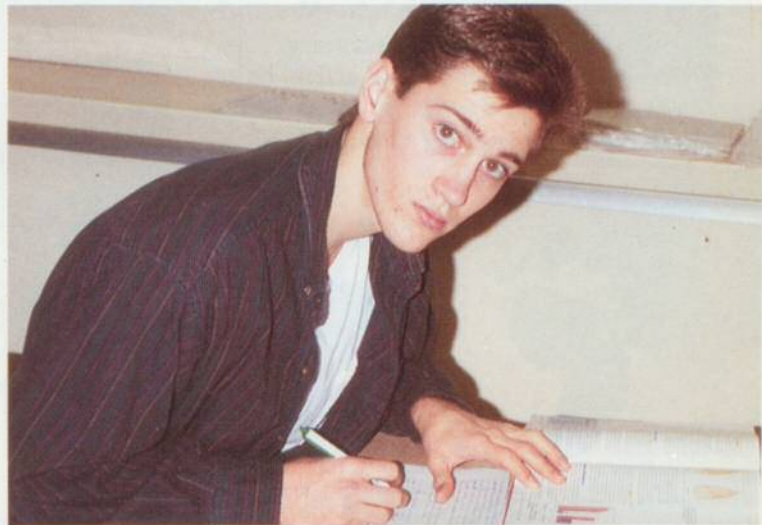

As students arrived on the first day of school, many changes awaited them. The first difference they noticed walking down the hallway was the new carpet. As they glanced at their lockers, they were shocked to see that the lockers had been renovated. There are also some new faculty members, and both basketball and baseball have new head coaches.

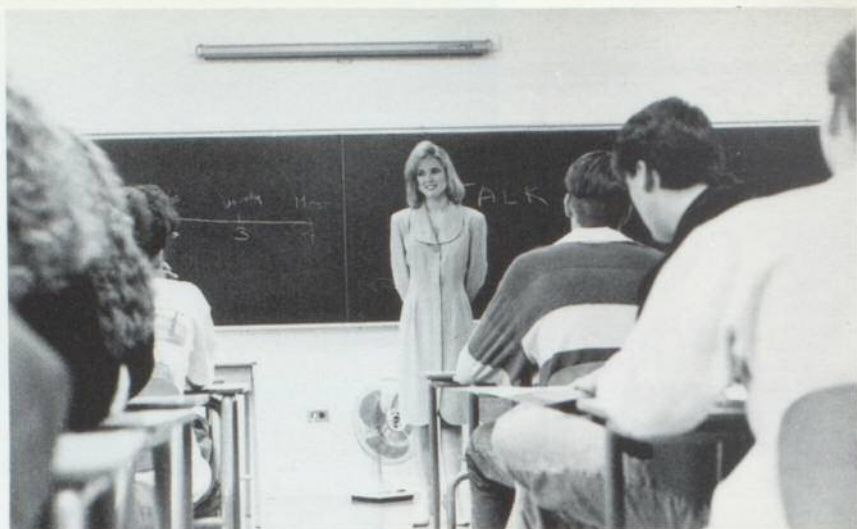

The students began the second semester with more changes. The office had been computerized and new benches were installed near the cafeteria. The long-awaited Channel One educational news programming was installed in February. Another new addition was the weight room which is to be used by the sports teams and interested students alike. One last benefit was the new juice machine.

This year's seniors enjoyed their last year at AHS participating in a wide variety of activities while the year proceeded to fly by. Academics, sports, and graduation were on everyone's mind. Thoughts were turned to college, jobs, and other future plans. However, it wasn't all business at AHS during the '92-'93 year. Seniors relished their final year by relaxing and letting go at noon and during passing periods.

Third Queen For

Wednesday, November 25, 1992 brought Homecoming history to Argos High School. The Queen was, for the third consecutive year, a member of the class of 1993. Amy Eley was crowned this year's Homecoming Queen that eventful evening. Leon Cowger was Amy's escort. Senior Stephanie Okerbloom, escorted by Andy Nifong, was first Runner-up. Freshman Tara Brown, accompanied by her escort Jeremy Umbaugh, was second Runner-up.

Upper right—Stephanie Okerbloom shows her excitement as she realizes that she will probably remember this night for the rest of her life. Lower right—Amy Eley and Leon Cowger share the Queen's spotlight during the second half of the game.

Homecoming Dance

The traditional post-game dance as held in the cafeteria. The first dance is reserved for the Queen and her court. The pictures below show some of the couples as they begin the festivities. Upper left—the men of the night flash big smiles at the camera. Lower left—Students get down and party. Upper right—Stephanie Okerbloom and Andy Nifong take a break from the fun. Lower right—Casie Yoquelet dances with Byron Andrews. Center right—Tara Brown coaxes a smile from Jeremy Umbaugh.

KING OF HEARTS CROWNED AT MORP DANCE

On Friday, February 19th, the FHA sponsored its annual MORP dance. This year's fund raiser was called the "King of Hearts" contest. FHA members placed heart stickers on their favorite guys throughout the day, and the guy receiving the most would become king. As you can see in the photo at the left, Roy Hurley won the crown, which was presented to him by FHA officer Monica Humes. The Music Place provided the tunes for the dance.

Above we catch Rachelle Hall as she tries to keep busy selling tickets and stamping hands at the door, but someone has managed to get her attention for a moment.

This photo shows Valerie McGee, Sarah Nifong, and Kim Zentz enjoying a bit of conversation between dances. Sometimes being a wallflower can be just as fun as dancing, right girls?

MYSTIC DREAMS

MYSTIC DREAMS was the theme for this year's Sunshine Dance. It took place in the cafeteria on Saturday, January 16th. In addition to the student couples, several sponsors, faculty members and their spouses chaperoned the event. The Music place furnished a variety of songs for the crowd's enjoyment. Punch and cookies were served as refreshments by the eighth grade volunteers in the photo on the center right of the page. It's always fun for these girls to get a preview of what's in store for them next year.

The annual Junior/Senior Prom took place on Saturday, May 1, 1993. The prom started at 9:00 p.m. and lasted until 12:00 a.m. at the Center Lake Pavilion in Warsaw. The after prom took place at Gillam Lanes also in Warsaw. It was a very nice place and it seemed that everyone enjoyed the evening. The music was provided by a D.J. called the Hit Man.

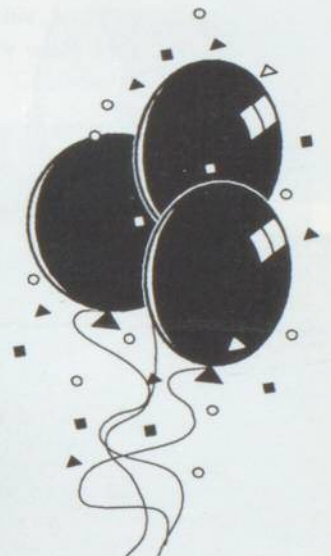

Top Right—Class sponsors and their guests talk about the events at the prom and the students' fancy outfits. Center Left—Margaret McLaughlin, Jennifer Milliser, Jennifer Putchaven, Miranda Geldner, and Casie Bishop all stand together to show off their prom dresses for the photographer. Center—All the couples at the prom are dancing to a special song and enjoying the evening. Bottom Right—Everyone gathers around Mr. VanDuyne as he shows off his cool dance moves. Get down, Mr. VanDuyne!

Bottom—Carolyn Hensley and her date Josh Hammond along with Jennifer Dean and her date Rob Good prefer to spend their time as spectators rather than dancers.

The Pavilion was decorated by some dedicated juniors early that morning. The decorations were helium-filled black and white balloons, to match this year's colors. Also prom booklets engraved in black and rainbow foil were given to all who attended, so that the evening's memorable moments could be noted and kept as a souvenir.

DRAGON DEBUT

Above—The high school band takes the audience to the sunny beaches of California with a medley of 60's Beach Boys tunes.

VARIETY SHOW '92

The Dragon Debut was held in the high school gym on Friday November 6, 1992. A special attraction this year was the emcees, who were the spouses of Mrs. Burroughs and Mrs. Brock, band and choral directors. Mr. Mike Burroughs and Mr. Art Brock are pictured to the center left as they warm up the audience for the night. Prizes were again awarded to the three best acts as chosen by a panel of independent judges. Heather Leichy won 1st place for her solo "If I Loved You," Carrie Jo Heckaman won 2nd for her selection from South Pacific, and Mary Hensley and Heather Leichy were awarded 3rd place for their duet "Cabbage Patch."

This year's musical production was presented on the evenings of April 23 and 24, 1993 in the high school gymnasium. The show performed was Oklahoma by Rodgers and Hammerstein. The high school choir made up most of the cast, but a few roles were given to talented students not in the chorus. Many weeks of preparation and hours of rehearsal time were spent in order to get the show ready for opening night. Mrs. Brock, choral director, and her assistant Mr. Hutchinson needed a great deal of creativity to turn the simple gym stage into a believable setting for the musical. This involved several elaborate set constructions and lots of backdrop painting. We applaud the efforts of everyone involved in the production, and we congratulate them on a job well done!

OKLAHOMA

Opposite Page: Top Left—Brett Kessler (Curly) and Ameer VanDerWeele (Laurey) sing "People Will Think We're in Love" as they dance across the stage. Top Right—Mary Hensley (Aunt Eller) scolds Eric Clark (Ali) for selling her a worthless egg beater. Ali is doing his best to talk his way out of this difficult situation. Center—Shelton Hensley (Will Parker) informs Ali of his intentions to marry Ado Annie, played by Carrie Jo Heckaman. Bottom—Shaindel Beers, Jeremy Umbaugh, Leon Cowger and the rest of the chorus sing "Farmer and the Cowman."

Top—Gertie, as played by Heather Leichty, tells Curly to remember to choose her basket at the box lunch social, which seems likely at this point. Center—Laurey is trying to hide her feelings for Curly while she sings "Many a New Day," along with the help of the other choir members. Bottom—Curly tells Craig Ellis (Judd) just what he thinks of him and of his feelings for Laurey. Judd doesn't seem too afraid, however.

Some of the cast members had to do double duty moving props, playing dual roles, working the spotlights, manning the sound mixer, or helping out as accompanists. The principal pianist was Mrs. Cindy Taber, but Hether Leichty also played some numbers, when she wasn't on stage! The musical was well received by those who attended, and we look forward to next year's production.

On the evening of Thursday, May 13th, the Music Department gave its final concert for the year. It included the junior high and high school choirs and bands, as well as selected soloists. A wide variety of music was offered from classical music to current favorites. The program began at 6:30 p.m. with the junior high groups. Awards were presented to outstanding music students midway through the program. At 7:30, the attention was switched to the high school groups and to the students who received recognition for their special contributions to the department.

MARCHING BAND AT BLUEBERRY FESTIVAL

As always, the Marching Band started the school year off with its participation in the annual Blueberry Festival Parade held on Labor Day in Plymouth. This is the first performance for the music department each year, and it gives them the chance to show off their new talent.

Top Left—The band rests up under a shady tree before they begin their mile-long parade route. Center Left—Candy Winters talks to some band members about the music they are going to be playing.

GRADUATION DAY!

Sunday June 6, 1993, in the high school gym, the 107th Argos Community Schools graduation exercises were held. The Class of '93 graduated with forty-nine members. Seven of these students graduated with Honors and four with High Honors. Music was provided by the high school band and choir with featured performances by the Senior Ensemble, Senior Swing Choir members, and a duet by Mary Hensley and Ameer VanDerWeele.

U.S. HISTORY
CLASSES FOLLOW
FALL ELECTIONS

The 92-93 year brought several radical changes to the Computer Literacy and Computer Programming courses. The first change involved equipment. The old computers were replaced with 21 Macintosh LCII's which had 63 times as much memory as their predecessors, as well as color monitors and hard drives.

Another change was in the area of software. The main software used by the Literacy class was ClarisWorks. Students worked with word processing, spreadsheets, databases, and graphics. The Macintosh line of computers originated an operating system superior to the standard text-based systems of most IBM-compatibles. The Graphical User Interface (GUI) is the direction of future operating system software on DOS machines as well. This provided Argos students with the opportunity to become familiar with MS-DOS machines and common software, as well as the Macintosh and its GUI.

A third change was in the shift from BASIC to Pascal in the Programming class. This language better fits the needs of the Advanced placement (AP) computer programming curriculum. Recognizing the heightened academic rigor of the course, Algebra I was added as a prerequisite for the Programming course.

Center Right—In a blur, Ryan Morris speeds past the other team, heading for the goal. Lower Left—It takes more than a team to make a basketball game, here the Argos cheering section shows its approval. Lower Right—When the crowd gets lazy, you can always count on the cheerleaders to get them going again!

Basketball is the major winter sport at AHS, with boys and girls competing at all levels from 7th to 12th grade in varsity and B-team action. However, for a basketball season to be successful, many people have to work together to make it happen. Mr. Snyder, the coaches, the players, the cheerleaders, the Pep Band, the principals, the students, the faculty and the community all must do their part. This season was good, but the hope for the future is to keep getting better.

Upper Left—Laretta Ruiz gives the team a boost with another free throw. Upper Center—Coach Busick gets a congratulatory pat on the back for a job well done. Upper Right—Eric Clark chases an out-of-bounds pass. Center Left—Coaches Liverance, Davis, Bibler, and Busick observe the action at the first pep rally of the season. OLD GOLD CLUB SPARKS NEW ENTHUSIASM

In order to regain some community interest and involvement in school spirit, the Old Gold Club was started by some concerned members of the Argos Community. Thanks to the efforts of such people as Deb Nifong, Mary Faulstich, Jill Beam, Kevin Dunlap, and others, the organization was formed and began to work its magic. Some of the projects they sponsored were: sports bottles for the athletes, cookies for the players, concessions at soccer and baseball games and some basketball games, athletic banquets, a 50's dance, and the Dragon Tail Party. In addition, they awarded two scholarships to outstanding Senior athletes. The school and community alike look forward to the Old Gold Club becoming another athletic tradition at Argos. We are all very appreciative of the support given by the Old Gold Club this year! The pictures above are from the Dragon Tail Party during soccer season.

Lower Left—Tanya Koenenmann got some 50's fashion tips from someone who really knew their poodle skirts. Lower Center—Leon Cowger and Carrie Brown do the stroll with the crowd between games. Lower Right—Jennifer Keller, Mrs. VanDuyne, and Mrs. Strunk, our resident dance authority, show some cool dance moves from the past.

In Memory

Mike Keller, January 16, 1976—February 11, 1993.

Mike will be missed by his family—his sister Jenni, his younger brother Adam, and his parents Pam and Eugene. Mike's absence will be felt by all those he touched during his lifetime. His friends, peers and the faculty at Argos High School will remember him always.

CLASS OLYMPICS '93

RECOGNIZING THE STAFF

The '93 Dragon's Tale would have been impossible to do without the many hours spent by several people. In the photo (top left) are pictured Randy Zehner, Jenni Nunemaker, Leon Cowger, Ameer VanDerWeele, and Andy Nifong. Andy and Ameer were co-editors this year. He was responsible for the Sports section and he drew layouts for the Academic section. She worked with Andy on the Opening and Senior sections. Leon took the ad pictures and helped organize the ads. Randy Zehner and Jenni Nunemaker deserve special recognition for their efforts in selling ads which fund a major part of our yearbook. Jenni also merits recognition for doing the Album section by herself, and for helping with the Academic section. Stephanie Martin (top right) also did the Features section on her own. Not pictured are Laretta Ruiz, Mary Hensley, Stephanie Okerbloom, Christie Drubert, Krystal Wolf and Mandy Bailey who helped identify organization pictures. In addition, thanks to Brett Kessler, Kevin Glover, and Ben Reese for their help writing copy. Special thanks to Mrs. Weaver's Computerized Accounting class for writing the copy for the Academic section and to Mr. Levi's French II & III and Spanish III classes for tallying the Senior Survey results. Finally, thanks to all others whom we've forgotten for any assistance you gave to make this yearbook a reality.
