ASIS: Halloween Dance

The Students participating in ASIS put on their annual Halloween Dance on October 31, 2003 located in the high school cafeteria. Thanks go to all the chaperones that helped make the dance possible.

Goblin and Goblette of the 2003 Halloween Dance is (senior) Joel VanDerWeele and (junior) Lacy DeWitt as Popeye and Olive Oil.

Variety Show 2003

Above, Ben "Jammin" Overmeyer took first place in this year's Variety Show with a drum solo for everyone to remember.

William Wu, or foriegn ezchange student from Taiwan, plays "Colors of the Wind" exceptionally well on his saxophone.

Tucker Thayer and Monica Downy took home second place with a humorous, gender questioning rendition of "I Got You, Babe" by Sonny and Cher.

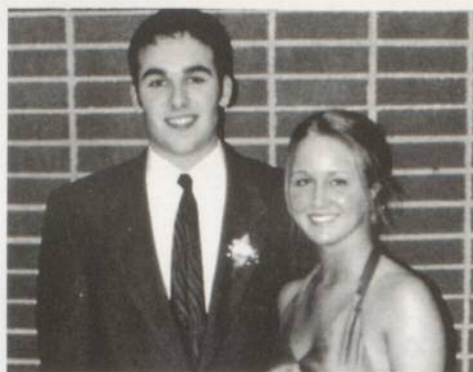

Third place was received by Kevin Walker and Doug Hammond with a soothing guitar duet of "Tears in Heaven."

The Music Dept. puts on Christmas and Spring Concerts

Each year the music department puts on two concerts, one for Christmas and one for the spring awards. The band, choir, and swing choir perform as well as any students who wish to do a special number, like Tucker Thayer and Monica Downey below.

A Black Tie Affair

The Sunshine Society each year puts on a semi-formal dance in February for grades 9-12. This year it was on February 21, 2004 and held in a new location-Gym 2. This gave everyone a lot more space to enjoy the evening. There were refreshments, and the music was provided by Jeff O'Dell. Everyone found the evening to be a blast of fun!

Taryn Clark was named this year's Sunshine Queen.

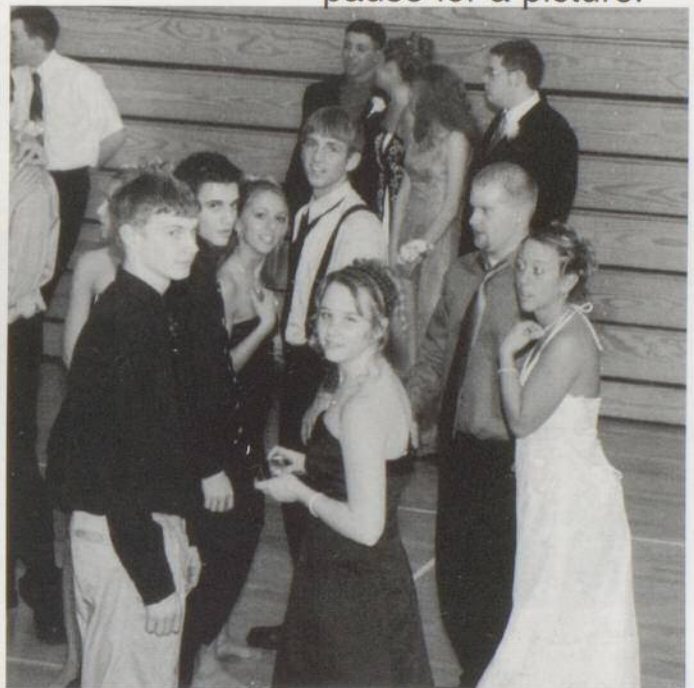

Students get down to the Cha-Cha Slide.

Lacey Denton keeps rockin the night away.

Below-Ben Overmyer, Lacy DeWitt, and Scott Robertson keep the party going.

The story is set on a pacific island during World War II. Although the war is raging in the Pacific, acutal fighting has yet to arrive on this island. The Navy personnel assigned here are, for the most part, biding their time, waiting for something to happen. Tactical assessments blame the Allies' lack of success on poor intelligence, and Lieutenant Joe Cable takes on the task of infiltrating enemy territory to send information back to the troops. He enlists the help of a local planter, Emile de Becque, to help him navigate unfamiliar territory. De Becque at first refuses because of his love for Nellie Forbush, an American nurse, but he later agrees to go after Nellie's prejudices thwart their relationship. wheter or not he and Cable can successfully map out enemy strategies and return to the island cannot be certain. In the meantime, the sailors look to Bali Ha'i, a mysterious neighboring island, for excitement, and Navy commanders prepare for the coming battles.

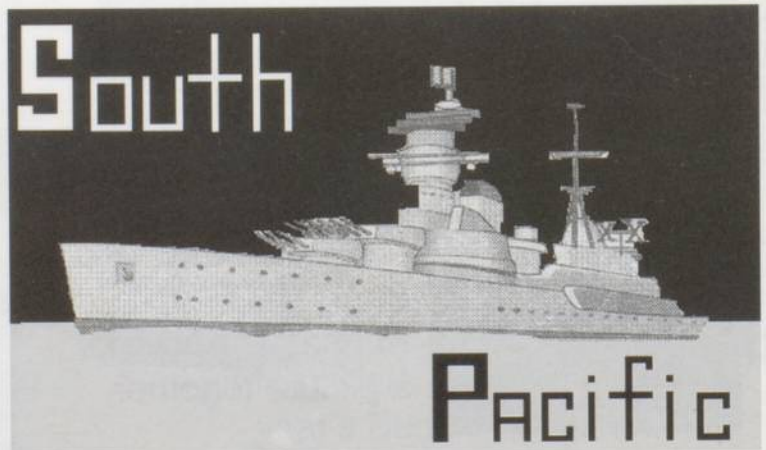

Above--Wes Dehne (Emile de Becque) and Monica Downey (Nellie Forbush) prepare for a heart warming kiss during their time in the spotlight.

Top Right-Amie Pritchett (Nurse) helps Ryan Taber (Pilot) with a little eyeliner for an eye opening performance.

Middle Left- Joe Davis (Luther Billis) explains what a boar's tooth bractlet is to the Sailors and the Seabees.

Middle Right- Zach Shafer (Lt. Joe Cable) imagines being at Bali Ha'i, while Bloody Mary sings to him.

Left- Vicky Lagenour is helping the office staff by folder papers to be mailed.

Below- Laura Thomas helps Katrina Shoemaker in the library.

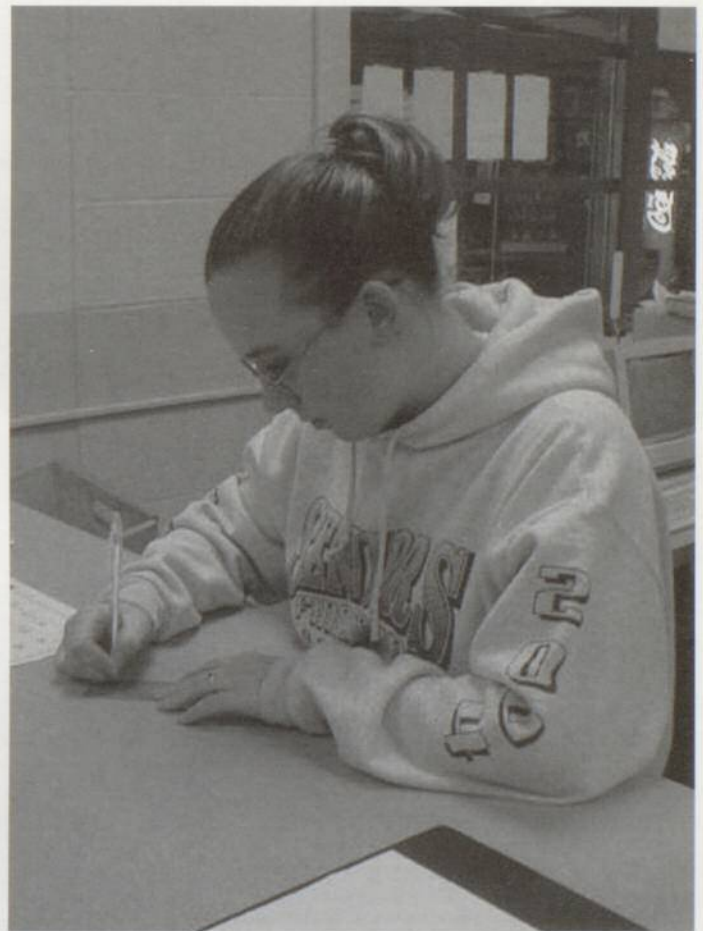

Always Helping!

The students on these two pages are all helping someone. There are many opportunities to help students and faculty around Argos Jr.-Sr. High School such as working in the library, kitchen, elementary and high school offices, and cadet teaching in the elementary!

Left- Tracy Halford helps by putting paper in the elementary work room copier.

Prom Convocation

Each year the Argos firedepartment and EMS come into the school around the time of prom to perform a mock accident as a result of druck driving. Students are asked to be the victims and act out the accident with fake blood and all! The EMS then shows students how they deal with the accident and how the students would be taken care of. It is done to make students aware of the consequences of drinking and driving.

Above- Stephanie Braasch, Andrea Haas, Austin Pennington, and Matt Good were the students asked to help.

Upper Right- Andrea Haas and Stephanie Braasch portray the victims in the accident.

Classrooms

Below- Mrs. Robinson grades papers while she has a break.

Above- The child development class is participating in a group activity.

More Classroom Shots!

Right- Mr. Dorton's class shows off their rockets that they shot off earlier in the class period.

Left- Jamie Meckley is typing on her english project with one of the labtops.

Even More!

Above- Taylor Hulse loves taking time out of class for a picture.
Right- Tracy Halford gives us a smile in journalism
Upper Right- Brandon Warner and Eric Ward have invaded the display case!

The 2003-2004 basketball season was spectacular for Ms. Newell. Newell was inducted into the Indiana Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Newell was a Varsity starter for Indiana State for 4 years with 1,435 career points (fifth on ISU all-time list) and a career scoring average of 14.6 ppg (6th on the ISU list). Newell also was a state champion in 1978 and 1980.

Ending the season on a 17-6 record was great for the Varsity squad. Newell won her first ever NAC Championship in her 7 years of varsity coaching at Argos. Great Job Newell! The team is pumped and ready to go for next years season.

Cheer Camp 2004

“Girls Night Out”

Each January, the high school cheerleaders conduct a cheerleading camp for girls in grades K-6. This year over 80 girls participated, learning new dances, cheers, and jumps! As always, the girls had a great time and showed their stuff at a Girls Varsity Basketball game.
