A Little Variety

Argos High School Variety Show 2005

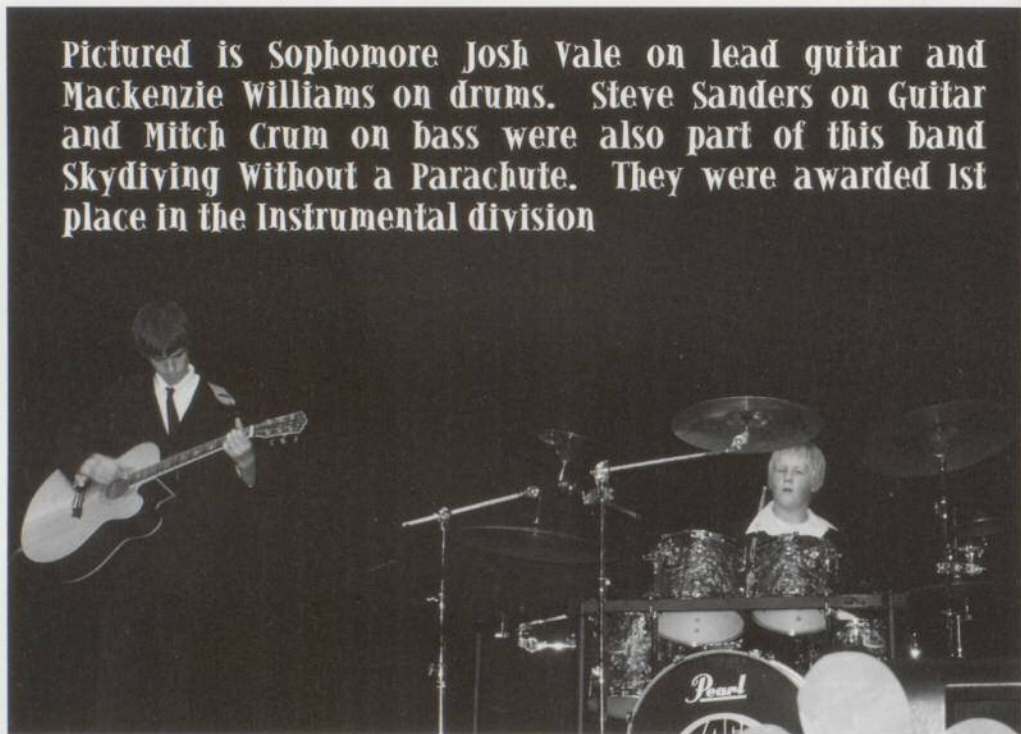

Every year the Argos High School Music Department hosts the annual Variety Show. This show has many students competing to place in one of the three categories. The categories are instrumental, dance/skit, and vocal. A lot of hard work and talent is put into this production led by many of the school employees and students. These individuals worked very hard to produce excellent directing, talent, and effects.

Each year the show holds a theme. The theme this year was "Can't Stop the Beat", and that is exactly how the activities occurred. It was very fast paced from guitar solos, to a Mexican dance, to the cheerleaders' remixes. This was a night to remember for many.

Senior Zach Shafer taking a walk after his stressful performance. Zach landed 1st Place in the Vocal Division for his performance of "Old Time Rock N' Roll."

Pictured is Sophomore Josh Vale on lead guitar and Mackenzie Williams on drums. Steve Sanders on Guitar and Mitch Crum on bass were also part of this band Skydiving Without a Parachute. They were awarded 1st place in the Instrumental division

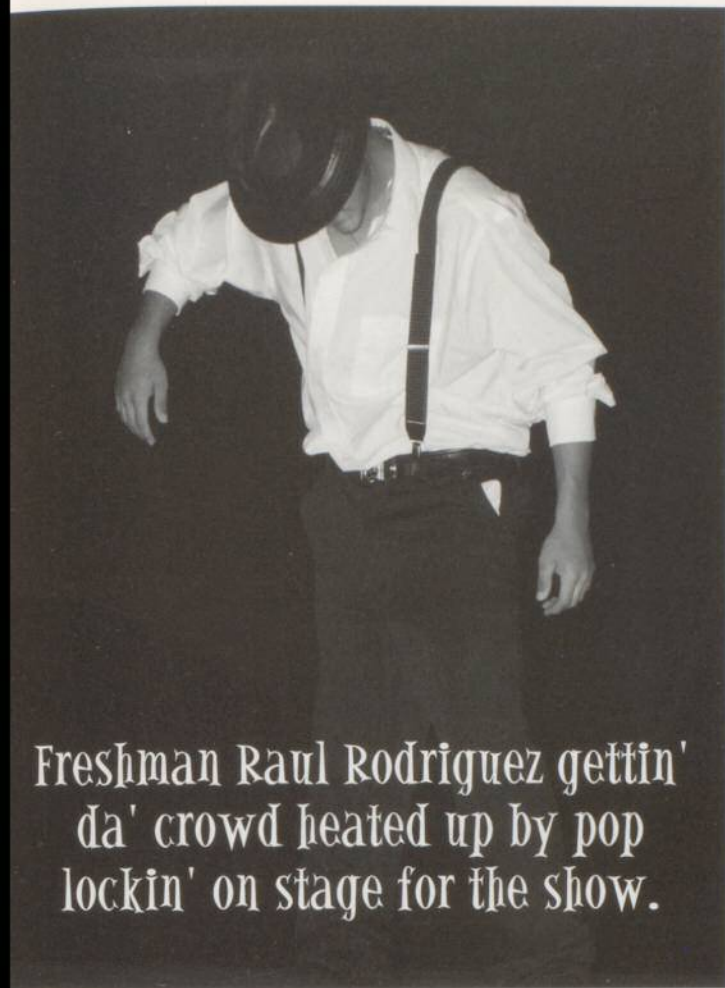

Above is Claire Bourdon singing and playing the song "To Where You Are." This talented girl placed 2nd in the vocal competition.

Brother and sister Ashley and Josh Overmyer perform well together. These two siblings were awarded 1st place in the Dance/Skit division for their James J. James act.

The Argos Cheerleaders broke out of their usual preppiness with a side of skirt to go gangsta' with the Nelly remix of "Carwash Blues."

Freshman Raul Rodriguez gettin' da' crowd heated up by pop lockin' on stage for the show.

Mi Gente

Rachel Avendano scores 2nd place in the Dance/Skit Competition by dancing to the song "Mi Gente" with her partner Raul Rodriguez.

Tonight!
Tonight!

Sophomore Lizzie Grayckowski stands upright in her dress to sing "Tonight".

The High School Band chose classic rock as a genre as they played "Back in Black", "Carry on Your Wayward Son", and "Sing, Sing, Sing".

Dug Hammond and Casey Coslet perform "Dust In The Wind" by Kansas.

Above Sophomore Mitch Crum plays "Smooth Tred". He was awarded 2nd place in the instrumental division for his rocking performance.
