Chess Camp is near

School age children welcome

The Randy Richardson Memorial Chess Camp will be held this month providing an opportunity for children on multiple age levels to learn and play the game of chess.

The Camp will be held on Saturday, October 14, at the Forest Public Library, 210 S. Raleigh Street, in Forest.

The Camp is free to all participants and is named in memory of Randy Richardson, a 1960 Forest High School graduate, who taught chess to classmates and enjoyed playing. A donation of $1,000 was made to the library in his memory and proceeds are funding the Camp.

Richardson

The Camp is free to all participants, but registration advance is requested for planning purposes.

Registration forms are available at the library and on the SC Chess Club web site at scottcountychessclub.org.

Forms should be returned by Oct. 7 by noon at the library.

The Camp will include three sections of students divided by school grades 2-4, 5-8, and 9-12. Home schooled children are also available and may participate in any grade class appropriate to their ages.

The Camp will begin at 10 a.m. and include all participants in a classroom setting to receive instructions on how the game is played. Any students who already know how to play may participate in the classroom activity or play among themselves.

Chess News Highlights

The Camp will break for lunch whereas sack lunches will be provided. It is requested that none of the participants leave the Camp during the break unless they are withdrawing and leaving with a parent.

The Camp will resume at approximately 12:30 p.m. A brief question and answer session will be held to cover any topic discussed during the morning session.

Participants may then be allowed to play casually on boards provided until pairings are assigned for the next activity.

As soon as possible, participants will be paired with opponents based on their grade level to participate in a tournament style activity. General rules of the U.S. Chess Federation will be applied, but the games will not be rated and some rules will be relaxed. Membership in the Federation is not required to participate in the camp.

First place winners in each grade section will receive a trophy while second and third place winners will receive a medal. All participants will receive a certificate. Souvenirs will also be available.

Scott County Chess Club sponsored tournament

3rd Annual Roosevelt Chess Classic is set

MORTON – The next anniversary of our first tournament series is set for November 4, 2023 - the 3rd annual Roosevelt Chess Classic tournament. Like the first one, this event will feature individuals and teams.

Our first Roosevelt Classic in November 2021 attracted 50 players from around Mississippi and neighboring states. Our second Roosevelt Classic attracted 69 players from across Mississippi and from Louisiana. Combined with our spring Bienville classic series, in our four tournaments so far, we have had 192 players participate from Mississippi, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Florida.

Before we go any further, recognition goes to our past sponsors who generously donated funds to help make all of tournaments successful. Our original sponsors have remained with us and we have added more each year. This is a tremendous benefit because their contributions help keep the registration fees and expenses as low as possible which means funds left over after all bills are paid can be carried over to the next event. We really appreciate the support from the community and the businesses who have helped make these tournaments possible. We are getting noticed around the state with strong showings of players visiting Scott County to play this great game. There is so much potential to make our community a chess destination in Mississippi.

Tournament action is all around

Many chess players are content to just play casually whenever the opportunity arises. This may include accepting a spontaneous invitation from a fellow chess player or attending a local chess club. However, there is another level to the game of chess - tournaments.

Tournaments are great ways to see how much progress a player is making in learning and growing in the game by discovering how they stack up against other players. It is also an opportunity to learn from other players in seeing a variety of strategies and styles of play. Like any other competitive activity, it is good to keep a healthy attitude and perspective, but playing in tournaments can reap many rewards.

Some players enjoy just playing in a random tournament for fun and experiencing the opportunity to learn and grow. Other players are more competitive and really get into tournaments, seeking to win and advance as far as they can go. They may have aspirations for earning master, grandmaster status within the U.S. Chess Federation through their rating. It is up to each individual to determine what kind of chess life they wish to have.

In Mississippi, there are many opportunities to participate in tournaments. The Mississippi Chess Association sponsors a state tournament each fall for adults and youth. Youth may also participate in the annual scholastic tournaments. These events are precursors to representing the state on the national level at many events.

Tournaments usually include registration fees and players choose what sections they wish to participate in, based on their skill level as determined by their U.S. Chess Federation rating. Tournaments may also include team play where individual players' scores are combined and calculated for overall scores. Prizes may include cash, trophies, plaques, medals, ribbons, and certificates.
