

Pet Adoption Fees:

Senior dogs can be wonderful companions as they tend to be calmer and require less exercise compared to their younger counterparts. They still have plenty of love to offer, so please don't overlook them!

- Adult Dogs (Dogs over 2 years of age.) $350

As dogs reach the two-year milestone, they are still youthful and energetic, but they start to settle down and move past their mischievous behaviors.

Adult dogs make excellent companions for active families!

- Young Dogs and Puppies (Dogs under 2 years of age.) $450

If you're looking for a lively companion, a puppy is the perfect choice!

These adorable little creatures need plenty of training, regular potty breaks, and lots of playtime to thrive!

- Cats (Cats over 1 year of age.) $200

While adult cats can be fantastic companions for busy families, they still retain their playful spirit and enjoy plenty of sleep. They are generally less demanding of your time and possess lower energy levels compared to kittens. Have you thought about adopting two cats?

- Kittens (Cats under 1 year of age.) $250

Kittens are lively and bursting with energy. They will surely keep you amused as they chase their tails and pounce on their shadows. As they grow and develop, they need plenty of attention and supervision.
