MARKD Productions Premieres Four Shorts at Niagara Canada Film Festival 2024

Stouffville, ON – MARKD Productions has four short films being screened at this year’s Niagara Canada International Film Festival (NCIFF) taking place June 1st and 2nd. Three of the productions have World Premiere status and one has a Canadian Premiere.

MARKD Productions’ three short dramas: I Love You Most, Athletic Withdrawal and The Package have been officially selected for the Niagara Canada Film Festival 2024 and qualify for NCIFF’s ceremonial awards. The short documentary The DNA of LOVE is part of the showcase line-up. “What an honour to see these productions getting to be a part of this amazing destination festival,” says Kevin Romano - Huhn, Co-Founder of MARKD Productions. "One of the greatest feelings is knowing the work you do is enjoyed by others. When any of our films gets recognized, we make sure the whole cast, crew and supporters are recognized."

Niagara Canada International Film Festival is set to take place on June 1 and 2, 2024 at Niagara Convention Centre, 6815 Stanley Ave. Niagara Falls, Ontario, L2G 3Y9. The opening ceremonies are being held June 1st starting at 10:00 AM EDT. The two days will include screenings of 37 films as well as 2 VIP interviews. One of the interviews will be with Emmy and Golden Globe winning Executive Producer (Schitt’s Creek; Son of Critch and Kids in the Hall) – Andrew Barnsley and the other with Founder of SINEFEST, General Manager of Raven Banner and owner of Top Drone Inc Michaelangelo Masangkay.

ABOUT MARKD PRODUCTIONS

In 2021, the co-founders Matt Worthington, Alexandre Belke, Robert Smith, Kevin Huhn & Diego Aldana met at Toronto Film School. In a short time, they recognized each other's talents and shortly thereafter started MARKD Productions. In 2022, the team grew adding Matt Dionne to the team and they took their work to the outside world. Today, the business does movies, corporate commercials and public service announcements. Their success is built on the foundation: at the core of any project is a good story that can entertain, empower and educate an audience. For more information visit MARKDProductions.com
