MARKD Productions Named 2026 Canadian Choice Award Winner for Video Production Services

STOUFFVILLE, ON - January 19, 2026 - MARKD Productions has been named a 2026 Canadian Choice Award Winner in the Video Production Services for the 3rd year in a row.

The Canadian Choice Award recognizes Canadian businesses that demonstrate excellence, professionalism, and meaningful community impact. Winners are selected based on reputation, service quality, and the trust earned within their communities.

“This award is deeply meaningful because it reflects how our clients, crew and cast experience working with us,” said Kevin Huhn, co-founder of MARKD Productions. “We don’t measure success by volume or scale alone. We measure it by clarity, trust, and does our work genuinely help people communicate what matters. Being recognized for the 3rd year in a row, tells us we’re delivering on that responsibility.”

MARKD Productions works with organizations, brands, and leaders to create strategic video content that brings clarity to complex ideas, strengthens credibility, and supports real-world business and community outcomes. The company is known for its hands-on leadership, production efficiency, and ability to align creative execution.

“This recognition is a testament to consistency,” said Rob Crowley-Smith, co-founder of MARKD Productions. “It’s about showing up prepared, listening carefully, and executing at a level where clients feel supported and confident throughout the process. That trust is something we take very seriously.”

The 2026 Canadian Choice Award win reflects MARKD Productions’ ongoing commitment to high standards, thoughtful storytelling, and long-term relationship building within the communities it serves.
