HELLO ALL (The Group of 4,009+ and growing):

We are a group of deeply concerned, unpaid Alberta resident volunteers. Our work is intended to educate, inform and motivate all Canadians to be visible and vocal regarding the unequal, unfair and discriminatory treatment of Alberta by our Federal Government. That motivation should naturally flow from the fact that Alberta’s energy business is the most important driver of the Canadian economy and its health directly impacts the standard of living of every Canadian.

THE EMBEDDED ENVIRONMENTALISTS IN THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT

Over the last few months, we have raised concerns about the "environmentalists" embedded into some of the most senior positions in the federal bureaucracy. We had only commented on the Prime Minister’s Office and two other cabinet portfolios.

However, recent research by the HYDE PARK GROUP has uncovered the EXTREME depth of the positions held by environmentalists across almost all of the federal ministries.

Many have noted the strong ties of the Trudeau Government with the environmentalist community. Some of those connections are very obvious - the (former) principal secretary GERRY BUTTS being the most obvious example. Others are perhaps less well known. Their report is a first attempt to document the extent of these connections. It is not comprehensive, but gives a snapshot of how a particular perspective is well-entrenched.

We apologize in advance for the length of this report but it is ESSENTIAL that this information see the light of day!! Then you will understand why the federal policies are so negative towards pipelines and the energy sector and in a rush to pass Bills C-69 and C-48!! IT IS NO WONDER THAT PIPELINES DON’T GET BUILT!

You will quickly see that this is a DISASTER for Canada!! Remember, several of the enviro-groups shown below were promotors of the foreign-funded [ANTI-] TAR SANDS CAMPAIGN. Please pass on to all of your contacts.

So here we go.
So here we go.

OUR READERS’ COMMENTS SECTION (AGAIN MANY)

1. From a Reader: I am of the view that unless Alberta separates our opportunity to develop a robust and growth energy industry that supplies reliable energy backed by what should be world class technology innovation to mitigate world wide, not just Canadian, emissions will be LOST. The main driver of my view is that capital is fleeing Canada, not just the oil industry and that this cannot be reversed by simply voting out the Liberals. Capital markets for large Canadian initiatives have been severely damaged by the recent political evolution and investors will continue to be cautious because even if the Conservatives are voted in, the Cycle will be repeated and a left wing socialist government will eventually be installed to plunder the perceived riches.

Therefore I strongly believe it is imperative that Alberta pursue separation as expeditiously as possible.

You have a great source of materials to support you position and you may be familiar with the [ARC Energy Charts] that are published weekly. Some the most frightening information about the state of our oil and gas industry is presented here. This is the first time the table includes a line for a 2019 Estimate. [In it] you will see that in 2017 the ratio dropped below 1.0, maybe for the first time in decades. Now it is forecast to drop to 0.76 in 2019! We are not only losing new capital coming to the province, but successful companies are diverting the cash flow they used to reinvest in Canada to basins outside of Canada. We are talking about $billions every year. Once companies have established beach heads in other basins they will continue to invest a large portion of their cash flow in those basins in the future.

The only way I see to reverse this trend is to separate from Canada and establish a new jurisdiction committed to resource and technology development to improve the world wide distribution and consumption of energy. What a great opportunity to establish world class industry centered in Alberta. And I am totally not at all concerned by threats that we don’t have access to tide water.

2. From a Reader: I believe that Ottawa and the machinery of Federal elections that governs us will pay little or no attention unless a clear signal from the people of Alberta is expressed and evidenced by way of a petition or potentially - a referendum. It would cost nothing (politically or otherwise) for Kenney to commit to giving the people of Alberta the opportunity to express their wishes and will by way of a referendum. That the Federal government did not act swiftly to allow Alberta to deliver its oil to market is unprecedented. Bob - Alberta has been crushed and is and has been a standing joke in the East (with all due respect) for decades. Ottawa laughs about it. Preston Manning et al were a cake walk.
Of course - you know what’s what - but I share these ideas as it is clear to just about everyone that Alberta has to do something to exercise its political and economic significance. Alberta ought to be governed by Albertans...just some humble thoughts...

3. From a Reader: Alberta may not have access to the Pacific if it separates, but BC has no access to the rest of Canada either.

4. From a Reader: I would imagine the Chinese government is paying close attention the Trudeau//SNC Lavalin scandal. Wondering why he can change Canada's justice system rules to help a friendly Quebec company; if he can do it for Quebec--surely in the minds of the Chinese people, Trudeau can bend the rules for the Chinese lady. In the case of the Chinese situation--in the best interests of reestablishing future Canadian trade with China, Trudeau should bend the rules.

The Aussies are running away with China trade. Without even trying Australia has picked up a large part of Canada’s Far East--Asian trade. Aussie kids have been learning Mandarin Chinese for the past 25 years while Canadian kids are stuck in the 'time warp' of learning French. Australia is booming: Sydney International Airport (there are 2 airports one for domestic flights and one overseas flights). Arriving back in Canada, Vancouver International airport seems like a quiet country airport. How quiet is Vancouver in international trade. Germany’s Hamburg port sees 35,000 deep sea vessels arriving annually, Holland's Rotterdam port sees 8100 oil and fuel tankers arriving annually: Canada is so far out of the big-league trading nations. Thinking about it is scary. Sadly for all of us, Canada is in its own "bush league" business attitude. The Frogs have been running Canada for 50 years and it shows. Everything they touch turns into barn Yard Droppings.

5. From a Reader: Justin Trudeau claims that he is fighting for Quebec jobs. Trudeau does not run SNC Lavalin, its management does. He is not responsible for job losses at Lavalin - it's management is. SNC Lavalin has been charged with corruption and bribery and must face the consequences of a criminal trial and possible conviction. If the Company is convicted, it must pay the price, the same way any other company would. It is up to SNC Lavalin management if it wants to reduce staff in Canada or anywhere else. It does not have to dismiss employees as a result of a criminal conviction. In fact, it is possible that SNC Lavalin management is simply threatening Trudeau to get possible that SNC-Lavalin management is simply threatening Trudeau to get what it wants.

If Justin Trudeau is concerned about Canadian jobs he and Gerald Butts should have thought about the over one hundred thousand jobs that have been lost in Alberta as a result of their carefully crafted plan to destroy Canada’s oil and gas industry.

6. From a Reader: Was that not the same speech he made in the defense of his grouping accusation? In both cases it was the gal’s fault according to his perception. You can see why he was able to respond so quickly. There are rumors he always keeps several copies with him! The Liberals and Quebec are just disgusting.
