We are a group of deeply concerned, unpaid Alberta resident volunteers. Our work is intended to educate, inform and motivate all Canadians to be visible and vocal regarding the unequal, unfair and discriminatory treatment of Alberta by our Federal Government. That motivation should naturally flow from the fact that Alberta's energy business is the most important driver of the Canadian economy and its health directly impacts the standard of living of every Canadian.

DO YOU THINK WE HAVE NOTLEY AND TRUDEAU ON THE RUN??

(by Ken Wilson, Neil Bowker, Rick Shannon and Bob Iverach, all of Action Alberta)

As a believer in free-enterprise, self accountability, hard work and possibly even conservative-led governments, you might be backing off a bit right now, getting comfortable with thinking that Jason Kenney and the UCP 'have it in the bag' in terms of running Premier Notley and the NDP out of Alberta. You might even be thinking and getting only a wee bit comfortable that Prime Minister Trudeau and his cabinet have really put their foot in it and have begun to slide down the slippery slope to maybe a minority government or better, this fall.

We at Action Alberta have learned a great deal over the past year, and the biggie is that we cannot pause or stop for one second in our efforts to take our city, our province and our country back from all these misguided and very destructive socialists.

We need you to get out of your chair, now, and join us in this day-by-day, life-long, never-ending battle for sanity.

What you may not understand is that the LEFT, and particularly the environmental extremists, are way, way, way ahead of us. They have vastly out-organized, out-spent and out-maneuvered us over the past thirty plus years. They highly focused and are smart as hell. They successfully occupy our schools as teachers, our universities as professors and our bureaucracies as chiefs of staff. They own or operate or work for most of the mainstream press and they have established successful communication, entertainment and technology firms. They are running our governments as elected leaders too.

How far ahead of us are they? Here's how far:

- The total revenues received by Environmental Non-Governmental Organizations (ENGO's like Pembina Institute, David Suzuki Foundation and Tides Foundation) and Environmental Law Firms (ELF's like EcoJustice and Environmental Law Centre of Alberta), during the period 2000 to 2018 was TWENTY-SEVEN TIMES GREATER than the revenues received by market-oriented think tanks (like Fraser Institute, Canada West Foundation, MacDonald Laurier Institute). The numbers? The 'progressives' have received about $11.4 Billion dollars; the market-oriented think tanks, $412 Million. Canada's Federal and Provincial political parties have received a grand total of $1.5 Billion dollars over that period. That means the ENGO's and ELF's received revenues 7.6 times that of all of our political parties... our fellow citizens who oversee the government. Who's really running things?

- Many of the ENGO's in the above group were either founders of or participated in the now well understood, ten-year old, 2008 Tar Sands Campaign orchestrated by Corporate Ethics and Michael Marx out of Washington, D.C. whose sole objective (successful, so far) was to 'land-lock the Alberta oil and prevent it from reaching international markets where it would fetch a high price per barrel...'

- The 'progressives', aided and abetted by the Liberal Party of Canada, have embedded, at very high levels in our bureaucracy, at least forty-two people spread across twenty two Canadian Federal Government ministries who have previous or direct ties to the various ENGO's identified in the points above. These embedded 'progressives' are all dedicated to shutting down the oil and gas industry, to bankrupting Alberta and our way of life. They are winning!!

- The 'progressives', aided and abetted by the Alberta NDP and Premier Rachel Notley, placed avowed anti-fossil fuel activist Tzeporah Berman on the Alberta Oil Sands Advisory Council in 2015, and earlier this month placed Ed Whittingham (formerly of The Pembina Institute) and Linda Coady (formerly of the World Wildlife Fund Canada) on the Board of the Alberta Energy Regulator, (the provincial body that regulates oil and gas activities in Alberta).

- Ed Whittingham is a very well-known anti-Alberta fossil fuel activist, was instrumental in participating in the Washington, D.C. orchestrated Tar Sands instrumental in participating in the Washington, D.C. orchestrated Tar Sands Campaign, and oversaw the receipt of about $8 Million in funding from The Tides Foundation.

- Linda Coady, prior to joining Enbridge, was Vice President, Pacific Region, World Wildlife Fund Canada, another one of the participants in the Tar Sands Campaign. Of course, Gerald Butts, formerly the most senior embedded eco-activist in the Federal Government (recently resigned as the Principal Secretary to PM Justin Trudeau), was previously President and CEO of World Wildlife Fund Canada.

- This week, Prime Minister Justin Trudeau simply continued this unrelenting and well disguised attack on Alberta by appointing an avowed anti-pipeline, anti-tanker activist as President of Treasury Board, Joyce Murray. The position opened at Treasury Board when its former occupant, Dr. Jane Philpott, resigned from the Liberal Cabinet because she had lost confidence in Justin Trudeau as Prime Minister and Leader. Ms. Murray is a very well accomplished individual who has benefitted from the backing of the Dogwood Initiative. The Dogwood Initiative. Headquartered in Victoria, B.C., the Dogwood Initiative is one of the ENGO's in the list mentioned above. It is a direct recipient of money from the Tar Sands Campaign and Tides Foundation. The Dogwood Initiative not only supported Ms. Murray's political campaigns in British Columbia but also very actively supported her bid to defeat Justin Trudeau for leader of the Liberal Party of Canada.

AND THIS IS JUST THE TIP OF THE ICEBERG! READ MORE...

In the late 1980's the United States Agency for International Development helped to create the Consultative Group on Biological Diversity ("CGBD") and funded the Rockefeller Brothers Fund to act as the CGBD's Secretariat. The CGBD, headquartered in San Francisco and rebranded as the Biodiversity Funders Group has nearly 70 very wealthy US-based charitable foundations as members, with assets of approximately USD$70 Billion, donating roughly USD$3 Billion annually.

The membership group includes:

- o The Hewlett Foundation
- o The Oak Foundation
- o Tides Foundation
- o Rockford Foundation

- o Packard Foundation
- o Moore Foundation
- o Leonardo di Caprio Foundation

Many of the key players in the Washington, D.C. based Corporate Ethics Tar Sands Campaign that began in 2008 are funded by members of this incredibly wealthy and powerful Biodiversity Funders Group.

- Agenda 21 from its inception in 1992 at the United Nation's Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, with 50,000 delegates, heads of state, diplomats and non-governmental organizations ("NGOs") hailed Agenda 21 as the "comprehensive blueprint for the reorganization of human society." To introduce the plan, the Earth Summit Chairman, Canadian Maurice Strong (first CEO of PetroCanada) boldly proclaimed, "Current lifestyles and consumption patterns of the affluent middle class – involving meat intake, use of fossil fuels, appliances, air-conditioning, and suburban housing – are not sustainable." Finally, Agenda 21 was summed up in supporting documents this way: "Effective execution of Agenda 21 will require a profound reorientation of all human society, unlike anything the world has ever experienced. It requires a major shift in the priorities of both governments and individuals, and an unprecedented redeployment of human and financial resources. This shift will demand that a concern for the environmental consequences of every human action be integrated into individual and collective decision-making at every level."

This all amounts to a concerted global effort at wealth distribution, the spread of socialism and totalitarianism and ultimately countries giving up their sovereignty to adhere to the globalist agenda.

What can you do? Three things.

- Send this email, and the links, to everyone you know.
- Get out and actively campaign to get the NDP out of power in Edmonton and the Liberals out of power in Ottawa.
- Become familiar with and donate to digital social media platforms that have huge reach and can successfully deliver the message to each voter's smart phone, tablet or PC.

OUR READERS' COMMENTS SECTION

1. From a Reader: Regarding Gwyn Morgan's Article: Not news, I agree, however the complicity of the Liberal government in the effort to kill the Alberta oil industry and Butt's role are presented in a somewhat different manner than anything I've seen previously. US environmental groups' primary tools in a campaign against Alberta oil are communications and legal tactics. The Liberal government has much more powerful tools and is using them. And how is it possible to interpret Butt's $362,000 "contract severances" when he quit WWF Canada to work for the Liberals as anything other than payment for future services?

2. From a Reader: I am a proud Albertan who as a farmer takes pride in being Canadian, but am sick and tired of the west being the cash cow for the transfer payments that favor Quebec and Ontario and a government that has lost all integrity. The oil industry has been the highest contributor to Canada's economy for all these years and has been sabotaged by a government bent on our destruction. Yes we need to take a stand.

3. From a Reader: Trudeau's shutting down all coal. 40,000 jobless entire towns. I was waiting my flight in Calgary, a Liberal clan was there flying to Sk to tell a town it's done. One of them said what do you think they will do? He said grow weed, then they both laughed. It made me sick. I should have switched flights and told the people at the town hall what was said at the airport and the laughing, because you can guarantee they were all in drama mode.

4. From a Reader: Just a note on the franconization bill of 2011. That really only legitimized the movement which began back in the seventies with young Justin's father PET. I was in the armed forces (military college) at the time of unification and the Bilingual and Bicultural agenda. It was very clear mid-seventies that unless you were fluently bilingual in the CAF (and all other federal departments), full Colonel or Director level and above ranks were reserved for the Quebecois (who always made it a point to learn English). Trudeau and his buddy Renee Levesque snookered the country way back then and the only guy who had the balls and smarts to stand up to their French crowd and agendas was dear old Peter Lougheed. It's just a shame that Peter's protege Premiers (Don and Ralph) didn't continue to fund the Heritage Fund, which would make departing this one-sided Federation much easier today. Just saying. I do agree that this conversation needs to take on a national perspective in order for it to have any traction in making changes.

5. From a Reader: You have reduced to words what many of us have been thinking for years. The unfairness of requiring applicants for senior government jobs to be fluent in French is particularly galling for those of us who grew up, and were educated in western Canada. We are, for all intents and purposes, denied the opportunity to work for our government because we did not choose to learn an internationally dead language, and even if we tried to do so, we had little opportunity to practice what we were taught.

History shows us that the French and the English have disliked one another (as in hated each other's guts) for centuries. Simply stated, the differences between us are, in my view, insurmountable. How in the world will this country of ours ever come together considering the obvious injustices against English speaking Canadians that you have pointed out in your email. You are doing all of us a service. Keep up the good work.

Please share this email with your contacts so we can turn this unfair, inequitable, unjustifiable travesty around for the good of all Canadians. If you would like to submit information or articles, please send them to me. Thank you for ALL of your support and interest!
