HELLO ALL (The Group of 5,355+ and growing):

We are a group of deeply concerned, unpaid Alberta resident volunteers. Our work is intended to educate, inform and motivate all Canadians to be visible and vocal regarding the unequal, unfair and discriminatory treatment of Alberta by our Federal Government. That motivation should naturally flow from the fact that Alberta's energy business is the most important driver of the Canadian economy and its health directly impacts the standard of living of every Canadian. Unfortunately that has not happened so far!

A GREAT DAY FOR ALBERTA - OPEN FOR BUSINESS ONCE AGAIN

April 16, 2019 is a day that will go down in the history of both Alberta and Canada as the day that "the tide of the war changed".

In a small way, this is our D-Day. We have won the first of many battles that must be won to take back both our province and our country from the creeping grip of socialism. Yesterday we landed on and secured the beaches. Next we must move eastward and challenge and defeat the forces aligned against us in Ottawa. April 16 was just the first (and successful) battle in this struggle. Many more will come, with the culmination being the federal election this coming October.

Last evening at the UCP victory celebration, Premier elect Jason Kenney gave a wonderful speech to not only his UCP supporters, but also to the rest of Alberta and Canada (particularly Quebec, as he spoke in French). It is clear that with a new sheriff in town, Alberta is open for business and will defend itself from outside attacks.

This article gives you both the words and the video from his speech last evening.

From today onward our guns point east!

OUR READERS' COMMENTS SECTION

1. From a Reader: It was like a well composed symphony. Hit all the right notes. I loved the fact that he spoke at length in French and that he spoke to Quebecers as ally's not enemies. His acknowledgment of Notley's ability, her hard work and her service-was classy.

He sounded genuine rather than angry, kind, tough, collaborative, national, international, local, multicultural, free enterprise with a social and environmental conscience, and, as I had hoped, he sounded a stark warning to the Dauphin (JT)....

2. From a Reader: We have our Alberta back! It will be refreshing to have Premier that advocates for Alberta in Ottawa, across Canada, and worldwide. We thank Rachel for her service, building schools, promoting human rights, healthcare, clean air, and water – while sort of promoting the energy industry once her team realized they had to run for re-election without vote splitting. During her “concession” speech she neglected to thank her inspiration and supporters Che Guevara, the Castro brothers, Marx, Tides Foundation, the Rockefellers and Suzuki Foundation.

3. From a Reader: The NDP knew that the renegotiation of the Equalization Formula was going to be pushed forward by Morneau. They raised no objection to such action by the Feds. Moreover the NDP refused to support a motion by the UCP to take Alberta's grievance and seek a renegotiation notwithstanding the legislative action of the Feds. In short, despite the gross unfairness of the Equalization formula (particularly with Alberta in very difficult economic straits), the NDP refused to stand up for Alberta. No doubt the NDP is complicit in exacerbating Alberta's untoward and unfair treatment by Ottawa. This is outrageous...!!!

4. From a Reader: I am retired, but work a few days in the summer “marshaling” at a golf course. Almost all golf course staff, including many students, are paid minimum wage. At our pre season meeting yesterday, we were told that because of mandatory minimum wage increases, we would have to get by with fewer staff. So increasing the minimum wage does a lot of harm to the service industry, and does nothing to help an individual since hours are just cut back to compensate. But this should be no surprise. Name one thing, Business or otherwise, that Government interferes in or runs, that is successful. I don't know any. Education and Health Care are prime examples of Government incompetence!

5. From a Reader: Have we sunk so low that it was necessary for our local paper to print such an offensive NDP ad with unjustified scare tactic statements and images against the UCP? Shame on the Calgary Herald for accepting this ad three days before a critical election that will directly, and indirectly, affect all Canadians. Shame on Rachel Notley, who behind the smiles, has made it abundantly clear (for decades) that she and her party are no fans of our Provincial and National energy industry. It's interesting to note that in her promo piece "Getting pipelines built" is last on her list. How telling!

6. From a Reader: I don't know why anyone would believe that Notley intended to help the case for Alberta energy. She has always supported the false global warming/climate change hypothesis 100 percent, hence a carbon tax. People of her ilk always say one thing and do another.

7. From a Reader: Yes, the information on the scam has been around for some time. Notley's so called efforts to get the pipelines built appears to have started after Trudeau appeared to be on her side. He then used and abused her by taking advantage of her naivety to screw Alberta and drive home his agenda. Sure appears to me that's when Albertans really began to wake up. Mean while back at the ranch, we in Canada just continue to rotate while yet again Trump leads the way for the US which puts us farther behind in the energy game.
