Challengers Set to Compete on May 8th and May 22nd*

(Sophia, NC): The Solid Rock Carries Cars Tour event on May 22nd will mark the return to "big time" Late Model Stock Car racing at Caraway Speedway. This event will give several of Caraway's Late Model regulars the opportunity to compete with some of the best Late Model Stock Car competitors from North and South Carolina and Virginia.

Current Caraway Late Model standings leader, Blaise Brinkley, heads the list of Caraway regulars that expressed the desire to compete in the CARS event. Other Caraway Late Model drivers expected to compete include Dylan and Trevor Ward, 2019 Caraway Late Model Champion, Coy Beard and others with Caraway experience that may make them factors in the outcome for that event on May 22nd.

The move to replace the regular Caraway Late Model event on the 22nd opened the door for Caraway's new Challenger Division to highlight their talents and equipment at one of the biggest events of 2021 at Caraway. "The Challengers have been a pleasant surprise for Caraway", said track spokesman, Randy Myers. "Those guys came to Darren and me after the 2020 season and expressed an interest in bringing back the division to the track. We held a meeting during the off season and the response was solid enough to give it a try and their efforts have proved all of us right. The CARS Tour event is a big show for us and with several of the Late Model drivers wanting to run the CARS Tour race, it opened the door to having a bigger race for the Challengers", Myers said.

Mike Chambers leads Fletcher Whaley and Kirk Sheets by fourteen points after three 2021 events. Chambers comes into the May 8th event fresh off a win last Friday night at Wake County Speedway. Anthony Bennett and Michael O'Brian round out the top five in standings. April 17th Caraway winner, Justin Newlin ranks sixth in standings with Bobby Salisbury, Tony Housman. Joe Armakovitch and two time 2021 winner, Jason Poole rounding out the top ten.
