

Fruit Trees 2026

Plant Info Fertility Fruiting Price

Apple

4n1 Combo	4 different apple varieties grafted together		Self Fruitfull, with the 4 varieties	$140.00
Cortland	White, crisp, juicy flesh. Excellent for fresh eating and storage.	Cross Pollination required	Mid - season, fruit ripens late september	$120.00
Granny Smith	Green, crisp, tart, juicy apples good for both fresh eating and cooking.	Cross Pollination required	Late - season, fruit is ready end October	$120.00
Royal Gala	fruit is bright red, with golden yellow strips, excellent for fresh eating, cooking and storage.	Cross Pollination required	Mid Season, fruit ripens mid September	$120.00
Honeycrisp	Medium to large fruit, cream coloured flesh, very crisp and sweet.	Cross Pollination required	Mid - late season, fruit ripens end of September	$120.00
September Ruby	Sweet with scarlet red skin. Excelent for storage. Very hardy.	Cross Pollination required	Mid -Seaon, ripens end of September	$120.00
MacIntosh	Massive crop of bright red skinned fruit with firm, crisp sweet flesh. Medium to large in size, good for storage, baking and canning.	Cross Pollination required	Mid-late season, fruit ripens late september.	$120.00

Appricot & Peach

Fruit Salid	You'll get a Frost peach, a Puget Gold and a Harglow apricot, a Hardy Red nectarine and an Italian plum.	Self Polinating		$140.00
Tilton Appricot	Heart shaped orange fruit with a sweet flesh and slight tartness. Freestone	Self Polinating		$120.00
Reliance Peach	Freestone variety is ideal for eating fresh or canning.	Self Polinating	Ripens Late August.	$130.00
Frost Peach	Known to be the hardiest, it's a beautiful fruit tree, bearing firm, golden, freestone peaches that have a light red blush.Excellent for fresh eating and making jams and jellies	Self Polinating	Ripens mid-summer	$130.00

Cherry

Montmorency	Firm red, tart fruit , ideal for pies, canning or freezing.	Self Polinating	Ripens late July	$120.00
Bing	Large, firm, sweet, black fruit.	Cross Pollination Required	Ripens mid-late July	$120.00
Stella	produces large, firm, black cherries with sweet flesh. Excellent for fresh eating and is compact in size.	Slef Polinating	Ripens late July	$120.00
Cherry - 'Athos'	Dwarf Cherry that produces an abundance of dark red cherries with a sweet-tart flavour.	Self polinating	Ripens in late July	$40.00
Cherry - 'D'Artagnan'	Dwarf Cherry that produces small sour cherries that are sweeter than other vafieties. Great for fresh eating, baking or preserves.	Self polinating and also cross pollinates well with the Romance Series.	Ripens in August	$40.00

Plum

4 n1 Plum	4 Different plums on one tree. Great for smaller spaces.	Self fertile as it has 4 variteis together	Fruit Ripens at different times.	$140.00
Blue Damson (European)	Medium Size blu fruit with sweet flesh	Somewhat self polinating, another European plum is recommended.	Ripens mid-September.	$120.00
Mount Royal (European)	Medium blue fruit with firm, sweet yellow flesh. Freestone type. Excellent to eat fresh or for cooking.	Somewhat self polinating, another European plum is recommended.	Ripens mid-September.	$120.00
Yellow Egg (European)	Produces an abundance of large, oval, freestone, golden yellow fruit with a golden interior that tastes like honey. Excellent for dessert, cooking, and canning.	Self Polinating		$120.00
Sapalta Chum	The reddish purple fruit has very dark red, sweet/tart flesh. Sapalta is one of the best for fresh eating. It makes great jam and is good for canning.	Self Polinating	Ripens mid - August	$130.00

Pear

4 n 1	4 varieties grafted together. Great for smaller spaces.	Self Pollinating		$140.00
Comice	Its large, greenish-yellow fruit is blushed with red and has a sweet, juicy flavor.	Cross Pollination required	Ripens late September	$120.00
Golden Spice	Very hardy. Fruits are a medium yellow, lightly blushed with dull red. Flesh is tart, sweet and aromatic. Good for eating fresh when ripe and for home processing.	Cross Pollination required	Ripend in September	$120.00
Flemish Beauty	Yellow fruit with pink hues. Firm, buttery and sweet yellow flesh.	Cross Pollination required	Ripens late September	$120.00
Bartlett	Large golden yellow fruit. Excellent for fresh eating or canning and is good for storage.	Cross Pollination required	Ripens mid-September	$120.00