Enclosed are 4 thank you notes from the high school scholarship recipients.

Someone has cut the fence again. I have taken photos and forwarded to The Local Mow Man about repairing it. I also did a follow up with them regarding the fencing on the far side of the field. That repair has not been completed yet.

DHHS has vacated the building at 510 E. Washington Blvd. I have met Alan Pinger from High-Tech Security regarding the alarm system and changing the code. He will be giving me information regarding cost.

I am working on changing the utility accounts on the 510 building back to the District. I will be closing out the elevator line also.

Dear Del Norte Health Cape District,

Thank you so much for you generous scholarship support. Your Kindness means a great deal and is helping me pursue my education with greater focus and less financial Stress. I'm truly grateful.
