CREATION WORK	God separates light from darkness. Heaven and earth called into being by divine command. (Gen. 1:1–5)	God forms the firmament, separating waters above from waters below. (Gen. 1:6–8)	Dry ground (yabashah) emerges from the waters. Earth bears fruit for the first time. (Gen. 1:9–13)	Sun, moon, and stars set in the heavens to govern day and night and mark sacred times. (Gen. 1:14–19)	The waters produce two kinds of creatures: those that remain in the sea, and those that rise to live in the air. (Gen. 1:20)	Man and woman created in the image of God. Given dominion over all living things. (Gen. 1:24–31)	God rests from all His work. The seventh day is blessed and made holy. (Gen. 2:1–3)

NOTE	The day you eat you shall surely die. Adam fulfilled the sentence within one cosmic day.	The waters above and below reunite in judgment. Firmament reversed.	Israel crosses the Red Sea on dry ground (yabashah). Same word, new world.	The Sun of Righteousness rises with healing. The sun refuses to shine at the cross. (Matt. 27:45)	The church multiplies (Acts 2:41) then error enters. Rome consolidates power. 1260 years begin.	Christ in you, the hope of glory. The image of God restored in the redeemed. Church presented without spot or wrinkle. (Eph. 5:27)	The redeemed reign with Christ 1000 years. Earth lies desolate. (Jer. 4:23–26)

Anno Mundi conversion: subtract AM year from 3960 for BC dates; subtract 3959 from AM year for AD dates. • "One day is with the Lord as a thousand years." (2 Peter 3:8)
