Bridal Party Entrance Order

It has become very fashionable/popular for each couple to have their own song while entering the reception. For grandparents and parents if could be their Wedding Day song. It allows the members of the Bridal Party to do something unique and special for your Wedding Day. This song will be played until they reach their seats or clear the entrance. Approximately 30 to 45 seconds long. If no song is selected, they will be an agreed upon song playing in the background.
