

Best Companies for Classic Car Insurance

Best Overall Coverage (for total coverage)

If you travel for car shows, parades, and other events to display your classic vehicle, then you'll want to put American Collectors on your list. They boast "the most comprehensive towing and labor expense reimbursement plan for collector vehicles today." You can choose between Silver, Gold, and Platinum levels on the TLC plan.

Depending on the level you choose, you can expect:

- Emergency Lockout (all levels)
- Emergency Towing (all levels)
- Roadside Assistance (all levels)
- Accidental Death & Dismemberment
- Ambulance Assistance
- Bail Bond
- Car Show Expense
- Emergency Travel Expense
- Hit & Run Info Reward
- Legal Defense
- Personal Effects
- Theft Reward
- Trailer Guard

And the insurer offers flexible mileage, restoration protection, inflation guard up to six percent coverage above the agreed value, $500 spare part coverage, and deductible options so you can select the best pricing for your vehicle. You'll have automatic coverage up to $100,000 for up to 30 days.

Best for Spare Parts Coverage (as good as American Collectors for overall coverage)

When you have an inventory of hard-to-replace parts, American Modern is a smart choice. This specialty insurance company has the highest spare parts coverage at $2,000. It will cover your vehicle at the agreed value, and it sells policies for exotic cars.

If you come across a car you can't live without, the company gives $50,000 of automatic coverage for 30 days. You can also choose the right mileage depending on how you drive for pleasure at 1,000 miles, 3,000 miles, 6,000 miles, or unlimited.
