

Hone your steel
For the cold you'll feel
Dont think I forgot
The arrow you shot

The celestial light
Obliterating sight
The fire of hope
Reaching at the end of the rope

The contradicting fate
Forced to live on with only hate
Whilst you feel an emotionless embrace
Truly I have fallen from grace.

The world is harsh;
You know this most of all
Forced to live on, lonely in the Marsh
Your only wish to fall

I saw destined evil's kindness
Feeled with nothing but warmth
More importantly evil's sadness
As you held me close

The light fading away
Beat stopping
But love remains unswayed
For its still growing.

The Divine can only pray;
For they cannot pay;
The cost of your forgiveness.
For the world will reel in emptiness
