Seek, and You Shall Find

Have you ever played a game where you must collect certain articles or words of a phrase to open the secret door? Maybe you have read a book or watched a movie like this. The character works hard to find clues to unlock and open the door. Fighting battles, growing skills, and developing new knowledge, they are back at the door with all they need to open it. They are sure it will lead to great rewards. Often, the most challenging door with the most risk to obtain the key has the most to gain.

God is very much like that door. He is easy to reach, to touch, and to know, but to get to go deep into His vault. We must venture into complex territory. We have significant risk and likely great loss, but the reward of opening up about who He is will completely astound us. We must venture forth and find what is lost. To enjoy blessing requires seeking God wholeheartedly.

You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. Jeremiah 19:13 English Standard Version

The Editors' Desk

Greetings My Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

We have entered into a new season, Fall or Autumn, whichever you prefer to call it. The leaves start to change their colors. The daylight is ending sooner now. It's cooler in the mornings and evenings.

These verses remind us of the beauty of God's creation and how everything has its own time and season. They also encourage us to keep doing good and to trust that we will reap a harvest if we don't give up.

I hope these verses help you embrace the fall season!

- "The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever." (Isaiah 40:8)
- "For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven." (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

"And let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up." (Galatians 6:9)

Theme for 2023

“For we Walk by Faith, not by Sight”

Goal Statement

To bring people and membership in His family, develop each member for Christ-like maturity and equip them for their ministry in the church and life mission in the world in order to magnify God’s name.

Vision Statement

We have a vision of Denmark Missionary Baptist Church as a model of Christian education that focuses on life change, not just comprehension. We intend to make available resources, tools, and training to other churches. The goal of this vision is to bring glory to God by presenting Jesus Christ to as many Christ-like disciples as we possibly can before He returns.
