Familiar Faces

We are happy to announce that Amy McCrary has accepted the office manager position. Amy has worked in the rectory office for a few years now.
You may also remember Amy as a former member of the Family Ministry. Welcome to your new position, Amy!

Another familiar face joining our office team is Lisa Berg. Lisa has dedicated many years as a catechist teaching the First Communion Class. Welcome to the team, Lisa!

UNDY SUNDAY 2021

Catholic Charities will be holding the 20th Undy Sunday Collection October 16th & 17th. As this event has grown over time we are including more items than just underwear. Now, we also collect socks, diapers, wipes, feminine products, and other basic needs. These items are rarely donated, but most needed among the poor. Please bring in these items to the back of church this weekend to be collected. ALL ITEMS MUST BE NEW IN THE PACKAGE!

MAKE SOME JOYFUL NOISE

Unfortunately, we spoke to soon and have now been guided from the diocese we are unable to have a full choir during mass at this time. We are very hopeful this will be able to resume sooner than later and will keep everyone in the loop as to when that will happen.

Family Faith Formation

FFF (Formerly known as Religious Education)
We are excited to start a new year with a new way of teaching and a new schedule. To keep track of the days your child is to be in class, a family gathering, family mass or online please view our parish calendar on our website.

www.stgeorgeil.com

We are very thankful to ALL our volunteers who have offered to help in one way or another this year!
The calendar also has children's liturgy Sunday's as well.

LET'S MAKE IT THE BEST YEAR YET!
