

My Little Ladybug

*Come here, come here my little ladybug dear;
I have a message for all to hear.*

*Where once I was, I am no longer there;
But I still have something I need to share.*

*I am at peace and surrounded in love;
For I am with the one who once sent a dove.*

*Heaven received me with such lovely bells;
But it was before I could say all my farewells.*

*My loved ones are having such a hard time;
Your message my little ladybug, is that I am just fine.*

*They believe I am gone and no longer will thrive;
But my little ladybug, I have never been more alive.*

*Heaven is beautiful and full of grace;
And the Holy Spirit connects us, in every time and place.*

*I ask that you visit them and give them peace;
For I will watch over them until their time shall cease.*

*And until that time should come;
Remind them to live in Faith, Hope and Love.*

*Guardian Angels exist and on Earth, they abound;
For those who believe, we can always be found.*

*In birds, animals and even insects like you;
So, my little ladybug, let this always be true.*

*That whenever my loved ones see you near;
Our souls will connect and their focus will be clear.*

*Life is short and will be over all too fast;
So love one another and your memory will always last.*

*And when you are in the presence of others;
They will know a love just like their mothers.*

*My task is for you to be my messenger now;
There is no reason for you to bow.*

*You represent God's Guardian Angels wide;
An honor that I know you will carry with pride.*

*I send you forth, go now and delight;
Show others there is peace when you follow the light.*
