

Teaching Parenting the Positive Discipline Way

Positive Discipline tools are what every parent needs to raise children who are respectful, responsible, and resilient!

Teaching Parenting the Positive Discipline Way (developed by Jane Nelsen & Lynn Lott) is a research-based, trauma-informed parent education program that provides a step-by-step approach to starting and leading experientially based parenting groups.

This program stands alone or offers significant enhancement to any program. It provides experiential activities that reach the heart to inspire deeper understanding and change.

Participants will earn recognition as Certified Positive Discipline Parent Educators and will:

Learn research based effective tools and techniques for teaching parents how to use discipline that is kind and firm at the same time (non-punitive non-permissive).

Learn how to facilitate a parent class from the position of a non-expert.

Gain practice with experiential exercises that help parents go beyond intellectual understanding and be able to respond in empowering ways that teach children

Learn how to use materials and activities in group settings, parenting classes and individual work with families.

Materials provided: Teaching Parenting the Positive Discipline Way manual & Positive Discipline book
