Our Vision

Redevelopment of the Annoor Cultural & Community Centre

Our Vision for the New Centre

Building a Landmark for Faith, Learning, and Community Life

The new Al-Hidayah Centre is more than a redevelopment – it is the realisation of a shared vision that unites faith, education, youth, recreation, and community service under one roof.

Building on over three decades of the Annoor Trust's legacy of worship, guidance, and support, the Centre will become a modern, inclusive, and self-sustaining hub for future generations. New homes above the centre will help secure long-term financial stability, ensuring that this work continues for years to come.

Our Vision for the New Centre

Faith

Faith

At the heart of the new centre lies worship. Purpose-built prayer halls for men and women will provide a peaceful space for daily prayers, Friday gatherings, Ramadan and Eid celebrations – nurturing spiritual growth, connection, and reflection.

Recreation

Recreation

The new Al-Hidayah Centre will provide welcoming facilities for families and individuals to relax, socialise, and connect. From a community café and bookshop to multipurpose halls and social spaces, the centre will offer a safe environment for recreation and wellbeing.

Youth

Youth

Our youth are our future. Dedicated spaces will encourage young people to learn, lead, and thrive through mentoring, workshops, and creative projects – fostering confidence, leadership, and belonging in a positive environment.

Education

Education

Knowledge has always been central to our mission. The new centre will offer modern classrooms, lecture halls, and learning spaces for children and adults alike – supporting religious studies, academic enrichment, and personal development programmes.

Community

Community

The Centre will remain a beacon of unity, service, and compassion – open to all. It will host interfaith events, support networks, charitable initiatives, and advice services, ensuring that the spirit of Annoor continues to strengthen lives and bring people together.
