

Effective Communication

“If you have a disability and require an alternative form of communication including, but not limited to, a sign-language interpreter or assistance completing forms, you may make your request (orally or in writing) at any time during the application process or after admission and CSHA will document the preferred form of communication.”

