

The WISCONSIN HEADWATERS INVASIVES PARTNERSHIP welcomes you to our SPRING WORKSHOP

9am, Wednesday April 26, 2023

Boulder Junction Community Center

5392 Park St, Boulder Junction, WI 54512

Time	Speaker	Topic
9:00-9:30 am	Registration and coffee/rolls
9:30	Michele Sadauskas	Welcome and Introductions
9:45	Rosie Page	A Year of WHIP Activities
10:10	Frank Schroyer	Invasive Species Management from a Land Trust's Perspective
10:40	Cherrie Nolden	Goats and Other Livestock as a Tool for Invasive Plant Management
11:05 – 11:15	Break
11:15	Lindsay Peterson	Stories of CISMA Success: Three Examples of Collaboration, Partnership, and Invasive Species Management"
11:45	Quita Sheehan	Wetland Invasive Species in Vilas County
12:15	Light lunch thanks to the Great Lakes Restoration Initiative and the Lumberjack RC&D Council.

Please bring your own reusable coffee mug or water bottle if possible.

Wisconsin Headwaters Invasives Partnership (WHIP) is a cooperative of 16 partners who share resources to offer invasive species education and management. We serve Oneida, Vilas, and Lincoln Counties. Learn more about us at www.whipinvasives.org