How to Use the By-law

For most zones, there are a list of permitted uses and a number of regulations such as lot area, lot frontage, yards required, coverage, etc.

The location of the zones is shown on the Schedule “A” Zoning Maps. The specific uses and regulations applicable to each zone are found in the section of the By-law which bears the same zone symbol.

In order to determine the provisions of this By-law that affect your property, it is suggested that you use the following technique:

1. Locate your property on the Index Map immediately following the last page of the text.
2. From the Index Map you will be able to identify the Zoning Map on which your property is located.
3. Turn to the appropriate Zoning Map and identify the zone that has been applied to your land (e.g. R1-A for Residential, or PCC-B for Planned Commercial Centre, etc.).
4. Once you have identified the zone, turn to the appropriate Section of the By-law. For example, if your lands are zoned Residential (R1-A), you will turn to Section 6 and Table 6.2 to determine the specific zone provisions affecting your land.
5. It should also be noted, however, that most of the general provisions contained under Section 4 also affect your property. Care should be taken to review these provisions as well as the applicable definitions in Section 2.

BE IT ENACTED AND IT IS HEREBY ENACTED as a by-law of The Corporation of the City of Oshawa by the Council thereof as follows:

Section 1: Administration, Enforcement and Interpretation

1.4 Compliance with Other Restrictions

1.4.1 This By-law shall not be construed so as to reduce or mitigate any restrictions or regulations lawfully imposed by the City or by any governmental authority having jurisdiction to make such restrictions or regulations.

1.5 Gender and Number

1.5.1 In this By-law, unless the contrary intention is indicated, words used in the singular shall include the plural and words used in the male gender shall include the female gender and vice versa.

1.6 Headings

1.6.1 The headings of Sections, Subsections and Articles in this By-law are inserted for ease of reference only, and do not affect the interpretation of this By-law.

1.6.2 Municipal addresses are inserted for ease of reference only and do not affect the interpretation of this By-law.

1.7 Numbering System

1.7.1 The numbering system for sections, articles and sentences for this By-law is explained as follows:

Each “section” is numbered with an Arabic numeral. The second Arabic numeral following the first (separated by a decimal) describes the “subsection”. The third Arabic numeral (where one appears) following the second (separated by a decimal) describes the “article”. The fourth Arabic numeral (where one appears) following the third (separated by parentheses) describes the “sentence”.

For illustrative purposes, an example is:

Section 5:	Uses Permitted in Certain Zones
Subsection 5.1	Accessory Uses, Buildings and Structures
Article 5.1.4	Lot Requirements or Location
Sentence 5.1.4(1)	Accessory buildings....

The sole variance to the numbering system, as described, occurs in Section 4, where the letters A., B. and C. denote subtitles, e.g. B. General Provisions Affecting Residential Zones.

1.7.2 Lists of items, provisions or requirements within subsections, articles or sentences are defined by alphabetic characters enclosed by parentheses. Lists within lists are defined by Roman numerals enclosed by parentheses.

For illustrative purposes, an example is the list of permitted uses in the OSH(1) Zone under Sentence 26.3.2(1).

1.8 Measurements

1.8.1 All measurements in this By-law are in metric. The abbreviation “m” stands for metres, “m²” stands for square metres, “ha” stands for hectares and “N/A” stands for not applicable.

1.9 Use and Occupancy

1.9.1 In this By-law, unless the context requires otherwise, the verb “use” shall include “intend to use”, “design to use” and “cause or permit to use”; and the verb “occupy” shall include “intend to occupy”, “design to occupy” and “cause or permit to occupy”.

1.10 And/Or

1.10.1 The word “and” is an inclusive conjunction, the use of which indicates that all items or phrases in the article, sentence or list in which it appears are permitted or required, as the case may be. The word “or” is an alternate conjunction, the use of which indicates that alternate or optional items or phrases in the article, sentence or list in which it appears are permitted or required, as the case may be; however, notwithstanding the foregoing, where the context permits, the word “or” may also be an inclusive conjunction having the same meaning as the word “and”.

- 17.3.2(13) In order to determine the minimum number of parking spaces required to be provided, the steps outlined in the following clauses apply:
- (a) The provisions of Section 39 apply to the required number of parking spaces for residential and storage uses. No adjustment for peak period use is made to those requirements. The minimum number of required parking spaces for these uses must be added to the figure resulting from clause (e) below.
 - (b) The minimum required number of parking spaces shall be determined by grouping all uses falling outside clause (a) above into three use categories, as outlined in Sentence 17.3.2(14), and applying the following standards:

 - (3) Hotel: 1 space per suite plus the minimums established in Section 39 for taverns and/or assembly halls within the hotel, but excluding parking requirements for restaurants, retail stores or personal service establishments within and accessory to the hotel.

This will yield three numbers, being the basic minimum number of parking spaces for each of the three use categories.

This will yield the adjusted minimum number of parking spaces by time period per use category.
- (d) For each time period in Tables 1 and 2, add the adjusted minimum number of parking spaces for the three use categories. This yields six numbers, being the adjusted total minimum required number of parking spaces per time period.

- (e) The highest number of the six numbers obtained in accordance with clause (d) above is the total adjusted minimum number of parking spaces for all uses other than residential or storage.
- (f) Adding the figure obtained in accordance with clause (a) above to the figure obtained in accordance with clause (e) above will yield the parking requirement for PCC-A(1) Zone.
