Come my friends and help us "holler,"
And get a square meal for half-a-dollar.

We will have a magnificent lot of CIGARS at prices to suit all.

We are also having an observatory erected, one hundred feet high, and will have a most powerful Telescope, to give all an opportunity of viewing the surrounding Country.

Come and behold the star-lit Heavens by night, and gaze upon the beautiful Rivers and Mountains, Cities and Towns by day.

Our Mr. Homesley is running the "Piedmont House" in the town of King's Mountain, where may be found "rest for the weary."

A CENTENNIAL HOP will be given every evening, at the "Piedmont House," and

A Grand Centennial BAL MASQUE on the evening of the 7th,—the National Day.

And fifty cents a meal is all we charge,
