

About Notus do Zambujal

Notus do Zambujal is an exceptional 7-year-old Lusitano gelding.

Notus has the unique ability to gauge your emotional state. With his charming demeanor, he effortlessly identifies where you stand emotionally.

If you are feeling insecure, Notus instinctively draws closer to provide comfort.

If you display aggression, Notus maintains a safe distance.

Notus has a remarkable talent for bringing smiles to people's faces, as he genuinely believes in the inherent greatness of individuals.

Doina Fischer

Doina Fischer worked with horses all over the world. Doina's many years of teaching turned her into an expert in Classical Dressage with Biomechanics in Mind.

Her regular clinics in Germany, Austria, Slovakia, England, Portugal and the USA helped many riders and their horses, both becoming physically and mentally stronger and acting as a team.

Doina lives and teaches with her schoolmaster on the Costa del Sol in Spain.

In Brazil Doina introduces riders and breeders to the FEI Young Horse Program. Doina is also a Working Equitation Judge and uses WE elements to make horses supple.

What we offer to our Partners

For non-residents of Spain:

- 20 annual riding days with Notus and Estoy.

For residents of Spain:

- 24 annual riding days with Notus and Estoy.

Estoy is Doina's Schoolmaster, a 14 year old PSG Lusitano Stallion.

While anyone can engage in groundwork activities with Notus, only experienced riders will be permitted to ride him, subject to Doina's approval. Our utmost priority is to ensure Notus' happiness and well-being.

We invite you to join us in this remarkable partnership, where your involvement will not only bring you joy and fulfillment but also contribute to the overall welfare of our beloved equine companion.

Revenue of Interest

In the event that we decide to sell Notus, each owner will receive their purchase price back, excluding the expenses incurred during the ownership period.
