

Corporate Upgrades

it's not everyday that a client is excited about going to get a check up, grabbing a quick bite to eat, or sitting in the waiting room of an office. We look at a space from the eyes of the client in it. We create an experience for your clients to not only enjoy the space themselves but tell a friend about it as well....word of mouth is usually the subliminal marketing that most corporations yearn for. Let us help get the word out.

The Nook is an event space located in Temecula, CA. They wanted to have a focal point that would be versatile for all the different types of events they cater to.
