

Our Mission

Connecting young professionals in the Austin area and empowering their growth and success in the community.

What is Connecting Young Professionals (CYP)?

We offer young professionals unique opportunities to network with their peers in the Austin business community through various professional development, social and community engagement activity offerings.

Benefits to Young Professionals

CYP can help you develop relationships with other Austin area young professionals, expand your business connections, enhance your leadership skills, and provide opportunities to get involved in our community! Join CYP of Austin and take advantage of these valuable opportunities!

Benefits to Employers

CYP strives to provide future community leaders with opportunities for networking and personal and professional development. CYP will help members get involved and feel connected to the Austin community. Help support CYP and get your employees involved!
