

| Court                         | Names of Judges       | Notes                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | Should This Judge Be Retained?(As recommended by the research of RetiredAdministrative Law Judge Donald Bohlken frominformation provided by Iowa Right to Life Guide.) |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Supreme Court:                | NA                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Court of Appeals:             | Judge Julie A. Schumacher    | Catholic Republican appointed by Branstad to district court and Reynolds to the Court of Appeals.                                                                                                                                                                                 | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                      | Judge Sharon Soorholtz-Greer | Appointed by Governor Reynolds to the Court of Appeals. She switched to the Democratic Party after her appointment.                                                                                                                                                               | NO                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                      | Judge John M Sandy           | Appointed by Governor Reynolds to the Court of Appeals.                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| District 5A Judges:           | Judge Nicholas Alan Bailey   | Republican                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                      | Judge Michael K. Jacobsen    | No Party, but voted in 3 Democrat primaries through 2018, the year he was appointed to the bench. Thirteen donations to state Democratic candidates and six to Democratic county committees.                                                                                      | NO                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|                                      | Judge Thomas P. Murphy       | No Party. No record on primaries. The Iowa Right to Life guide indicates that, according to the Iowa Ethics and Campaign Disclosure Board, he made one contribution to a Democratic candidate, but my examination of their online files going back to 1990 does not confirm that. | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| District 5A Associate Judges: | Judge Steven W. Guiter       | Republican                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|                                      | Judge Mark F. Schlenker      | No Party. No record on primaries. Gave donations to two Republican candidates.                                                                                                                                                                                                    | YES                                                                                                                                                                                          |