ZOMBIE ZOO

Dominic McHale and Kevin Short last appeared together in Edinburgh in the award-winning play The Pigsty (also written by Kevin Short). They celebrate their reunion with a vision of zombie life after the apocalypse. Combining film, comedy, drama, music, song, dance, this multimedia piece centres around an imprisoned, partially sane, recovering zombie, and his zookeeper captor. Their relationship hovers between compassion and vitriol until the surprise denouement, which must not be revealed or zombies will devour your brains.
