Welcome to the NVIDIA Inception Program

Hello Kevin,

We're excited to share that Tristar Digital / VideoIQ.ai's application to the NVIDIA Inception program has been approved. Congratulations and welcome to the global startup community defining the future of AI and accelerated computing. Here's a short message from our CEO, Jensen Huang, welcoming you to Inception.

Inception is designed to help you build faster and grow your business. Now that you're a member, you have access to cutting-edge technical resources, preferred pricing on NVIDIA hardware and software, exclusive offers from our partners, opportunities to connect with VCs, and other benefits—all built for growing businesses.

Ready to dive in? Here are a few quick ways to get started:

- Explore the Inception portal. Log in to the portal to request benefits, get personalized recommendations for tools and training, discover Inception events, and find helpful resources.
- Share your news. Download and customize co-branded marketing assets—including digital badges, event materials, and social templates—to showcase your NVIDIA Inception membership.
- Join the NVIDIA Developer Program. This program complements your Inception membership with free access to SDKs and APIs, developer tools, free training, and technical documentation.

If you have questions, please see the Inception FAQ or email us at inceptionprogram@nvidia.com. For immediate assistance, contact Inception support at +1 \(408\) 486-2056, Mon–Fri, 8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. PT.

We look forward to supporting your work. Welcome to NVIDIA Inception.

Thank you,
NVIDIA Inception Program
