About Us

The Child Crisis Center of El Paso (CCCEP) is a distinguished local non-profit organization, operating as a 501(c)(3) entity, and proudly serving the community of El Paso, Texas. Our emergency shelter operates on the generosity of community donations and federal funding. The children who we serve at our shelter have often endured unimaginable hardships, and it is our utmost priority to ensure their well-being by providing them with essential services. About The Event

The 23rd Annual Golf Tournament is a signature fundraising event benefiting the Child Crisis Center of El Paso. Hosted at the beautiful Painted Dunes Golf Course, this tournament brings together community leaders, local businesses, and compassionate individuals for a day of camaraderie, competition, and charitable giving.
