

HELP US HONOR KRISAN WITH A DIGNIFIED FAREWELL

Since 2015, Supply and Multiply has provided residential care with love and dignity to the elderly in Montrouis, Haiti through the Matthew 25 House. In a land where poverty and instability often deny the most vulnerable even the simplest comforts, we have done our best to walk alongside our residents until their final breath. We are sharing not only food and shelter, but the compassion of Christ.

Today, we are mourning the passing of our dear brother Krisan. He was often known by other names such as Mono, Emmanuel, or simply “the gentleman that smiles and sits in the red camping chair.” He was a fixture of peace in a world of chaos. His joy was contagious. His presence, a quiet blessing.

Haiti is in crisis. Corruption, violence, and economic collapse have made even basic needs scarce. In this hard place, Krisan was loved well, and now we ask your help to honor him well.

Our prayer is to provide Krisan not only with care in life, but also with a dignified funeral in death. A testimony to the sacred worth of every human soul.

If you are able, please consider giving to help cover the funeral costs. Your support ensures that no one is forgotten, and that the love of Jesus shines even in the valley of the shadow of death.

“Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord... that they may rest from their labors, for their deeds follow them!” Revelation 14:13
