

Even in the hardest of seasons, God is still moving in Haiti.

This month, the pump that supplies running water to the Matthew 25 House required repairs. While the water is not suitable for drinking, it is essential for cleaning, bathing, and maintaining the basic daily needs of the elderly residents who call the house their home. Because of your ongoing prayers and support, we were able to restore this vital system, allowing dignity and comfort to continue for our most vulnerable.

Across Haiti, daily life continues to be impacted by violence and instability. Armed gangs still control large parts of the country, limiting movement, creating fear, and making survival itself a challenge for many. And yet—in the midst of this darkness—Christ's light is shining.

Romans 12:12

Thanks to your support, food continues to reach those in desperate need. Your generosity is literally putting meals on the table.

At the Matthew 25 House, our residents are not just surviving—they are thriving. They are loved, seen, prayed for, and celebrated. They know they are not forgotten.

Students sponsored through Supply and Multiply are continuing their education—a radical act of hope in a place where the future often feels uncertain. Education opens doors, and you are helping keep those doors from closing.

Please keep praying for Haiti. The need is great, but so is our God. Together, we are proclaiming the Gospel not just in words but through faithful, loving action.

Thank you for standing with us. Thank you for believing in the power of hope.

The Ebenezer School in San Pedro Sula recently held a joyful celebration for Father's Day, honoring the men who are filling the role of dad in the lives of students—whether it's a grandfather, uncle, cousin, older brother, or another role model. It was a special time of food, fun, and heartfelt appreciation for those who are showing up with love and guidance.

We love that the school is encouraging these role models to be involved in the lives and education of children. When men step into these vital roles with care and consistency, God is honored, and the next generation is strengthened in both character and faith.
